He has been a member of the St. John Power Boat Club since its formation, and one of its most enthusiastic members. In recent summers he and his father, mother and brother spent much time together on the river, and he will be sadly missed in the family circle. The good wishes of all his comrades and friends go with him.

CORN HIGHER; OATS AT NEW HIGH LEVEL

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Scarcity of offerings brought about an advance in the price of corn today, under a little sag at the outset. Initial declines were ascribed to assurances that western stocks would receive more care soon to move supplies from the country. Unwelcome rain and mile temperatures, however, tended to make sellers more cautious. Opening quotations varied from the same as yesterday's finish to 1/2 cent lower, were followed by a material upturn all round. Oats touched high price levels for the season. Scantiness of arrivals appeared to make shorts nervous.

GERMANS USE MASS ATTACK AGAINST ITALIANS

Italian Army Headquarters, Nov. 21.—(By the Associated Press)—The greatest mass attack which the enemy has made is in progress along the Upper Piave river at the point where it bends to the northeast into the Belluno Alps. As the action proceeds the enemy is bringing forward fresh masses of his reserves, including 20,000 mountaineers from Lower Hungary, troops notorious for brutal vandalism.

The action through the day has shifted westward from Monte Tomaso and Pertica, where the enemy rushes have been checked. The Italian positions remained substantially unchanged in the region of Monte Grappa.

GERMANY'S NEW BILL ONE OF GOOD FEATURES

Noted Screen Stars in "A Square Deal," Two Entertaining New Vaudeville Acts

The Gem's new programme was much enjoyed at the performances last night. The picture feature is good and the vaudeville provides excellent entertainment. In the words of the profession, the acts "went big."

In the picture "A Square Deal," a story of Bohemian life that is true to life is told, with Carlyle Blackwell and June Elvidge and a notable cast including Henry Hull and Muriel Osterline.

The tremendous sacrifice made by a man for the sake of his country is the basis of the story. Carlyle Blackwell portrays the role of the man who makes the sacrifice and playing opposite him is the charming June Elvidge in a particularly pleasing role of great dramatic intensity.

The scene is laid in McDougall street, a famous little thoroughfare in the heart of New York where so many famous authors and artists have their homes. Four friends decide to stick together through thick and thin. Sooner than any of them expected, one of them is put to the test. The manner in which he proves his friendship is as startling as it is unique. For a time his actions are misunderstood by the friend for whom he has acted, but eventually he is understood and everything comes out happily.

Law Freeman, who opened the vaudeville part of the programme is a black face comedian of ability. He has the mannerisms to perfection, his clear, good singing and speaking voice and his repertoire includes a lot of new ones in the comic story telling line. He is a genuine following him closely and caused much laughter. He also dances well.

Willie Day & Co., woman and man, make an excellent team. Miss Day sings several character songs well, and her "little girl" act was decidedly clever and captured the house. Her companion is a clever violin player, who added to the interest by a number of well given imitations.

The Gem will continue this programme until and including Friday night, with all changed for Saturday afternoon.

WALL STREET NOON REPORT

New York, Nov. 22.—United States Steel's one point fluctuation measured the extent of the movement in leading stocks during the dull first hour.
