SAINT JOHN CLUBS WIN FIGHT RE ANNUAL GATHERING OF M. P. B.

PLACE WILL BE NAMED NOW AT PREVIOUS MEET

South End Wins Move Concerning Local Sanctions

SAINT JOHN amateur clubs who strenuously opposed ex-President Miller's action in naming his home town as the annual meeting place this year for the M. P. B. and who demanded that the place of meeting be set at the preceding annual gathering won their fight at this year's convention by the adoption of a resolution incorporating this clause into the constitution. They had the satisfaction of seeing this rule go into effect when the 1926 annual—a procedure they strongly advocated this year and one which they felt would do away with any abuse of power. From now on, the clubs in annual session will decide where the meeting shall be held. This was probably one of the most important matters put through at the Halifax convention last Friday.

STIRLING CONGRATULATED

W. E. Stirling, who was appointed to the post of New Brunswick vice-president last year when Mr. Gillespie, Moncton, resigned, was the unanimous choice for N. B. vice-president this year. He is being congratulated on this election as he has filled the position very acceptably.

One of the important decisions at the meeting, Mr. Stirling said this morning, was that handed down on the matter brought forward by the South End Improvement League regarding sanctions for senior baseball leagues in the city. The South End asked if more than one senior league for the city could be sanctioned. The answer given by the Maritime branch was "yes."

In explanation of this, Mr. Stirling said that this would mean that the franchise given to the present City League was not an exclusive right and that if a certain number of senior teams banded together and applied for a senior sanction it would be granted, provided such league was controlled by the clubs composing the league and was not dominated by one individual. In other words, all clubs must have an equal say in the management of the league.

If two or more leagues were formed, Mr. Stirling pointed out that players would not be allowed to jump from one league or team to another under penalty of suspension. "If the two senior leagues operating next year," Mr. Stirling said, "I am going to watch this matter carefully and will not hesitate to use my authority in stopping any jumping tactics. Any releases will have to be properly brought before me together with the reasons for same and if it is found that this rule is being followed, I will be early to work on the matter I know, but we may as well start right."

RULE IS CHANGED

The rule in regard to intermediates also was changed at the annual meeting this year, Mr. Stirling said. "Until now, an intermediate if played with a senior team twice was automatically a senior. The clubs recognized the harshness of this rule and have adopted one to the effect now that an intermediate can participate in two games without losing its intermediate standing, but that once he takes part in a third game he becomes a senior. This rule is good for all branches of sport under our direction. It is an important rule and one that must not be broken, otherwise the penalty will follow," Mr. Stirling said. The suspension holds good for that season in which the rule was violated.

NEW REGISTRATION

The former procedure of appointing a Maritime registration committee has been done away with, Mr. Stirling said, and now the province will have a separate registration committee, representative of the province. This committee will be appointed at once for New Brunswick by Mr. Stirling. The committee will deal with all applications for re-appointment for its own particular district and in turn will pass on its findings and recommendations to the executive of the Maritime branch for final decision. The branch executive can deal of itself with all applications of Class B men, that is, athletes who have competed for or against professionals but have taken no money for their services. All applications from Class A men must be before the Canadian executive, of which A. W. Covey, of this city, is a member.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS

Practically all of the delegates from here who attended the meeting were well pleased with prospects for a big year in amateur sport. The new executive, Mr. Stirling says, will work hard to justify the confidence shown in them by their election. "If the various clubs and organizations throughout New Brunswick will bury past differences and work for the common good, I feel that we shall make rapid strides this year."

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN A. DUNLOP.

POSSIBILITY that there will be two senior baseball leagues in operation here next year has been considerably strengthened by the favorable decision handed down at the annual meeting of the M. P. B. in Halifax last Friday on the question brought up by the South End Improvement League. It has been a long hard fight on the part of the South End officials in this matter but they can experience the satisfaction now of having been instrumental in settling a rather important point and one that will have far-reaching effects. It practically boils down to this—there can be a dozen senior leagues if the authorities are satisfied that all the players are bona fide senior amateurs. In discussing the matter over the week-end with "Steve" Payne of the South End, we learn that at present it is the intention of the South End to go ahead now with plans for a senior league for South End people next year. This league, when sanctioned, will have the right to be represented by its winner in the finals for the city title—a right that was denied two years ago. Mr. Stirling has made it known, however, that he will not tolerate any jumping from one league to another. That is one of the dangers of having two or more senior leagues but strict handling can overcome it, we believe. Next year's baseball situation holds considerable possibilities.

THE BARS were lowered a bit for the intermediates at the annual gathering of the M. P. B. Now, they can take part in two senior games without losing their intermediate standing. There are some officials who believe that even this is too harsh.

THE BATTERING and pounding received by the two local teams, Trojans and Saint John High, at Fredericton on Saturday should do them good if there is the real stuff in them. Trojans floundered around rather helplessly while Fraser and his cohorts ran up 29 points while High School went all to pieces in the closing moments of their game for a 20 to 0 trimming. Such trimmings by Fredericton High of our squad are not unusual and several factors, including tradition, a rainy field, and an injury in the shape of a broken hand to their most valuable player, Captain Petrie, went into the making of a Fredericton victory. The thing to do now is to buckle in and give the capital boys a taste of their own medicine when they come down here. Trojans will probably have U. N. B. down here again while Fredericton High is due here on Saturday of this week for the return game. Fredericton High plays at Rothesay on Friday and comes into the city on Saturday for its game with Saint John. Just what kind of a comeback can the local High squad make?

SAINT JOHN amateur clubs should feel satisfied that their agitation to have the place for the annual meeting named at the preceding gathering has been successful. That was one of the most important bits of work done this year. It should have been done long ago.

THE Harry Wills-Floyd Johnson bout set for Newark a week from tonight is not going over as big as the promoters expected. No wonder. Johnson has been flattened by nearly every heavyweight of less than average ability and to pit him against the man who is supposed to be the leading contender for the heavyweight crown is an absurd piece of business. In their efforts to boost the fight and secure some publicity, the promoters have announced that Wills will sail soon after Christmas for Australia. And why? To lay a wreath on the grave of his illustrious compatriot in pugilism, Peter Jackson. Harry could save the trip by going into a florist's shop and sending a wire. Anything for a ballyhoo.

Present Baseball Season Featured By Many Upsets

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor.

Those fans who have a memory long enough and sufficient interest to take a razor at the critics, can have a winter of sport looking fun at the experts who told last spring how the teams were going to finish in the American League pennant races.

There are a few who are qualified to say that they picked the Washington Senators and the Pittsburgh Pirates to win the pennants, but there isn't a writer in captivity who came within a mile of naming correctly the positions in which the teams would finish.

The New York Yankees and the Brooklyn Robins were the most conspicuous examples of upsets. The collapse of the Chicago Cubs and the reformation of the Boston Braves were also the surprises that a biblical prophet hardly could have foretold.

The Yankees and the Robins were second place clubs in 1924 that chased the Senators and Giants right up to the wire. It was perhaps only natural to figure that they would be prominent contenders in the 1925 races. The Yankees were strengthened by the recovery of Earl Combs, a star young outfielder, who was out of the game most of the 1924 season with a broken ankle and by the addition of Urban Shocker, rated as one of the best pitchers in the American League.

The Robins had intact the strong team of 1924 with Dazzy Vance and Burly Grimes heading a pitching staff of more than the average strength. No one knew that Babe Ruth would be out of the game so long from illness and that he would stray away from the path so far that he would have to be suspended and fined $5,000. No one knew that Joe Dugan would go bad with a trick knee and that Scott and Pip would slow up so much that they would have to be replaced with rookies.

No one knew that Burly Grimes would have such a bad season with the Robins and that Bill Doak, one of the early season, broke a finger on his pitching hand and was out of the game for six weeks.

The Pittsburgh Pirates have been a threat for so many years that no one should have succumbed to heart failure when they came up from the cellar and started their successful drive for the pennant.

The Pirates won the championship by eight and a half games but they would have had a much harder fight and they might not have won—if the New York Giants hadn't run into a deplorable string of injuries that had left them laid up all season.

When the Chicago Cubs secured Grimm, Maraville and Cooper from the Pittsburgh Pirates, the critics called Bill Killefer a sage and branded Bill McKetchnie a boob.

When the Chicago Cubs secured Grimm, Maraville and Cooper from the Pittsburgh Pirates, the critics called Bill Killefer a sage and branded Bill McKetchnie a boob.

Yet, with their added strength, the Cubs went so badly that two managers, Killefer and Rabbit Maraville, were deposed, and the club dropped from sixth in 1924 to last place in 1925.

Under the inspiring leadership of Dave Bancroft and some fine pitching, the Boston Braves pulled a surprise by jumping from last place into fifth position and Rogers Hornsby pulled the Cards up from sixth place to fourth place.

Eddie Collins did some fine work also by bringing the White Sox up from the cellar to fifth place. George Sisler also moved up a notch with the St. Louis Browns from fourth place to third place, replacing Ty Cobb's Detroit Tigers.

Y. M. H. A. LOOKS TO BIG SUCCESS FOR THIS YEAR

Eli Boyaner Is Elected President by Acclamation

ELI BOYANER was elected president by acclamation for a second term at the annual meeting of the Young Men's Hebrew Association yesterday, there being a large attendance of members. Reports on the work of the association were received and plans discussed for the coming season. It was felt that this year the association would have one of the best years in its history. Mr. Boyaner said that he did not wish to be president this year but his objections were over-ruled and he consented to act. The following were elected members of the executive board: Samuel E. Komienksy, Isadore Amdur, H. Marcus, Max K. Komienksy, Dr. F. Boyaner, L. N. Harris, A. Ralph Isaacs was elected vice president and Ronald S. Hart, secretary. Louis Slavit was elected financial secretary and William Kaplan, treasurer.

Reports on the gym work were submitted by Louis Slavit and Morris Ellman, physical instructor. The report shows that the attendance at the classes was large. Both the president and retiring secretary, Ralph Isaacs, presented reports, outlining suggestions for the improvement in the association's work. The retiring secretary, S. E. Komienksy, submitted his report, showing a good balance on hand.

U. N. B. FLATTENS TROJANS BY 29-0

Locals Handicapped by Grounds and Failure of Several Regulars to Arrive.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 18.—The Saint John Trojans' rugby team was defeated 29 to 0 here Saturday by University of New Brunswick. The game was played on wet grounds in a pretty steady rain. Fine weather would have produced better football, but would not have altered the result materially, as the college team had a wide margin over the visiting team. The latter was handicapped by the lack of several players who failed to arrive by motor with the rest of the squad.

Steen scored the first try after thirteen minutes of play on a pass from Fraser. Shortly afterward he made another in the same way. Fraser converted each.

In the section half the college backs worked better. Combined passing produced the first try by Keene, who scored again soon afterward, following the ball when kicked over. A pass, Fraser converted. Steen made another on a dash from a broken scrum and Fraser converted. Steen made the last one practically single handed.

The latter part of the game was enlivened by two or three fights. Chown of Saint John played an effective game, being used both as three quarter and full back. The visitors fell down on team play.

PLAN CAMPAIGN

Y. M. C. I. to Undertake Drive For More Members This Week.

The regular meeting of the Y. M. C. I. was held yesterday, Joseph P. Coughlin presiding. W. E. Stirling, vice-president of M. P. B. A. U. of C., was present and told of various matters dealt with at the annual meeting held in Halifax on Friday last. Mr. Stirling said that the meeting was harmonious and quietly conducted and several hard and fast rules were done away with, also more than one senior league can operate in the city hereafter. It was also pointed out that the Maritime boxing championships may be held in Saint John this year.

The House League will be opened on the bowling alleys this evening and a general meeting will be held on Thursday at the Y. M. C. I., when all bowlers in the city are invited to be present for the purpose of forming an inter-society league, also the Diamond League.

A cosy smoker will be held at the Y. M. C. I. tomorrow night and the committee in charge have arranged a good program.

A big drive for membership to the M. C. I. will begin this week and the Herald and Mail's annual ten mile road race Saturday setting up new mark of 34:48-3-5. The course is being re-measured to ascertain if record was broken.

Capital Outfit Run Away With School Match in Closing Moments.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 18.—The local High School football team won a rather one-sided victory over the Saint John High School fifteen here yesterday afternoon on a field that was covered with great puddles of water and sticky mud to the depth of over an inch. The score was 20 to 0 but the greater part of this was made late in the game when the Saint John boys, apparently losing heart over their inability to make any headway on the treacherous surface, slackened their game.

The lineups follow:
Fredericton. Saint John.
Rutter. Forwards. J. Melick. Parlee
Sherwood. Bolton
