SEPTEMBER BRIDES

Thomson-Chamberlain.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Portland street Methodist church when Miss Marion Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Chamberlain, and Roy Leonard, son of Mr. and Mrs.

O. D. Thomson, were united in mariage by Rev. H. A. Goodwin. They were unattended except for little Norma Chamberlain, an inceed a basket of sweet peas.

The bride, who was given away by The right, who acted as flower girl. She was dressed in yellow organic and carried a basket of sweet peas.

The church was specially decorated for the occasion, by girl friends of the builde, with golden rod and greening. Miss Price played the wedding march. The choir of the Portland street Methodist sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" as the bride entered the church. Miss Midred Bustin sang "Oh Perfect Love." Miss Marion hoty and Miss Marion Burley asted as ushers.

The young people received numerous presents from their wide circle of friends. Included among the gifts were a silver service from the groom's gift to the bride was a handsome fur. The groom is a popular linotype operator on the Times-Star staff. Mr. and Mrs. Thomson will leave this evening on a wedding trip to Montreal and Toronto and, while away, will visit the National Exhibition in the latter city. They will reside in this city.

Hoyt-Seeds.

Hoyt, both of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. Cecil Markham. The bride was given away by her father.

The bride, who was formerly a teacher in Victoria school, was dressed in a neat traveling suit of navy blue, with a grey hat and a fox fur. The church was tastefully decorated by girl friends of the bride with asters and sweet peas. James Ford played the wedding march. The ushers were Harold Burley and Lawrence Seeds.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold bracelet and gold stick pins to the ushers. Among the numerous gifts received were a silver set from the groom's employers, T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd., a handsome mahogany dinner wagon from the employes of the Water street plant, where the groom is superintendent, and silver spoons from the bride's associate teachers. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt left by motor for Boston. On their return they will reside at 7 Charles street.
