MORE MEETINGS RE IRELAND TODAY

Lloyd George Presides at a Joint Session.

Churchill Defers Commons Report on Progress of Negotiations—Believed Collins and Griffith Have Satisfactorily Explained—More Heavy Fighting.

(Canadian Press Cable) London, May 29.—Following a meeting of the cabinet's Irish committee today a joint session of the British and Irish representatives was called to meet at 3 p. m., with Premier Lloyd George presiding. It had been intended to hold the joint session at noon but during the morning a postponement to 3 p. m. was decided upon.

No date has been fixed for the departure of the Irish delegates, but it is believed that the meeting here will continue for several days.

It was said definitely this morning that Winston Churchill, this afternoon in the House of Commons will deal with the progress of the negotiations.

The cabinet committee met at eleven a. m. at No. 10 Downing street, the premier's official residence. Lloyd George presided, and the others present included Austen Chamberlain, Lord Chancellor, Birkenhead, Colonial Secretary Churchill and Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland.

Belfast, May 29.—Crown forces last evening carried out an exhaustive search of houses in streets in the neighborhood of the Falls Road. About twenty men were arrested and some ammunition was seized. The prisoners included an Irish Republican army picket.

Churchill's Statement. London, May 29.—A statement by Colonial Secretary Churchill in the House of Commons regarding the Irish situation was awaited today with unusual anxiety—and anxiety emphasized by the secretiveness of both the Irish and British sides.

Nothing substantial can be learned as to what passed at these meetings, but the political correspondents in morning papers say they have information that Michael Collins and Sir Griffith were able to convince the members of their own party of the Anglo-Irish treaty.

Others, while not going this far, say conversations were such as to promise the treaty would be given a more favorable view of the situation.

A conclusion, however, has not yet been reached, and the conference, which was to be resumed at noon today, may last several hours, so that Secretary Churchill's announcement is not likely to win out in any case to be final.

The newspapers again express uneasiness at the whole position, and reiterate their insistence that the treaty must be ratified and observed, and that the agreement between the Collins and De Valera parties must be shown to be innocuous insofar as the treaty is concerned.

Belfast, May 29.—The Cullinstree road police barracks, near Falls Road, were attacked today. Several of the police were wounded, one seriously.

O'Connor Deplores SHOOTING OF SOLDIERS. Dublin, May 29.—There is intention on the part of the Republican forces to accuse the Four Courts Building, it is said at the Republican general headquarters here. The armed guards are being withdrawn from the Kildare street and from Orange hall in Rutland square, and these buildings will be used to house refugees. It is expected that the Masonic headquarters, also recently seized, will be turned back to the owners today, but the dissident faction of the army is not expected to leave the Four Courts Building for some time.

The accomplishment of army unity is anticipated soon, and though this is desirable, it is said it will offer a problem in the relations with the British more serious than the character of the elections now being discussed in London.

The shooting of two British soldiers in Dublin yesterday is regarded as having brought about a serious situation. Regular and irregular army men are operating in an endeavor to bring about the arrest of the perpetrators of the deed. Rory O'Connor, one of the leaders of the irregular army, said: "It was murder, pure and simple. We cannot find words strong enough to condemn it. We hope the citizens will help track the murderers. If they are found they will be suitably punished."

HEAVY FIGHTING IN BELFAST. Belfast, May 29.—Sharp fighting between members of the Irish Republican army and the Ulster special constabulary occurred last night along the boundary between Counties Donegal and Fermanagh, in the Belleek district. Five Republicans are reported to have been killed and several wounded. One constable was killed. The fighting followed action of the Ulster police in taking possession of Belleek village and Magness Castle, nearby.

Special police from the Belleek fort were ambushed and compelled to abandon their motor car, the driver of which was killed during heavy firing.

Both wings of the Irish Republican army, the insurgents and those under the Free State government, are believed to have been represented in the force which the Ulsteries encountered. The southerners attacked in horseshoe formation, the only side open to the police facing on Lough Erne, across which they have been receiving their supplies by boat.

The Republicans' intention to cut this link of communication was foiled by the southerners, who repulsed their assault after a pitched battle.

ROBERT MORGAN,

SIXTY THOUSAND SEE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS CLOSED

Te Deum at St. Peter's Brings to End Impressive World Assemblage of Catholics.

Rome, May 29.—The Eucharistic Congress was solemnly closed today with a Te Deum sung by the massed choirs of the Vatican in the presence of Pope Pius, the cardinals present and 60,000 pilgrims who had been attending the congress.

The atmosphere was tense with feeling at this crowning ceremonial of the impressive world gathering of Catholics in the holy city. When Pope Pius entered St. Peter's an emotional scene was spread over the vast throng.

The pontiff himself appeared profoundly moved as he lifted his hand to bless the throng, and cried "Long Live the Pope," "Viva Pius," re-echoed throughout the edifice.

HORNSBY EQUALS RUTH'S RECORD

Now Leads Major Leagues in Home Runs.

Babe Fails to Get Outside Infield in Five Trials—Features of the Games—Exterminator Has Won More Than $200,000—A Great Race Saturday.

(Canadian Press) New York, May 29.—While Babe Ruth is going hitless as well as minus home runs, his rivals are pounding out a surprising margin for the "king of clouters" to shoot at when he regains his stride.

Hornsby's two blows, with another by Austin Meleney, beat Pittsburgh 4 to 3, giving the Cardinals the deciding game of the series. The home run epidemic also spread to Washington and Brooklyn, Joe Judge's club scored three runs, tied the Yankees and enabled Washington to win out 4 to 3.

Johnson held the Yankees in check, Ryan failing to get a hit out of the infield in five times up.

Wheat rapped out a four base blow which made four errors, but Boston won the Dodgers, 5 to 4.

Frank Frisch had an off day in the fifth and made four errors, but the Giants hit Winters hard with men on base and easily beat Philadelphia, for their fifth win from the boys.

Chicago won a loosely played game from Cincinnati, 5 to 7, after Alexander had been bogged down by the home team's fielding and timely hitting, especially by Gerber, enabled St. Louis to win here yesterday bound for Belmont Park, New York.

It was his victory on Saturday at Churchill Downs in the steeplechase, the greatest in the history of the American turf. Carrying 138 pounds the gallant 7-year-old ran the mile and a quarter in 2:04.2. Two weeks ago Howie, with 126 pounds up, negotiated the same distance in 2:04.5, on a track lightning fast.

His winnings by years follow:—1917—$1,850; 1918—$36,147; 1919—$26,402; 1920—$22,403; 1921—$66,827; 1922—$29,695.

SOLDIER "ARMY" IN OTTAWA FRIDAY

Ottawa, May 29.—"General" McDonald's army of unemployed veterans, expected to arrive in Ottawa on Friday, will march directly to Parliament Hill to interview Premier MacKenzie King, according to members of the advance guard who have arrived in Ottawa. Three veterans comprised this advance guard. They were given lifts along the road. These men came ahead as they had private business with the department of soldiers' civil re-estabishment. The men called on Mayor Plant on Saturday and through him were able to secure accommodations at the Union Mission until the rest of the "army" arrived.

The House of Commons that owing to the state of the discussions now proceeding his promised statement regarding Ireland would be deferred until tomorrow. The secretary added in view of the gravity and urgency of the issues already disclosed parliament was entitled to the fullest information available in order that the house might debate the situation before the Whitechapel

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "the purple glory of the rhododendron has been added in the past week to the floral charms of Rockwood Park. We called it honeyuckle when we were boys."

"So did the bees," said Hiram. "But whatever you call it these ain't nothin' makes a hillside look so lovely."

"There is also more of cherry bloom this week," said the reporter, "and more leaves are out on the trees, and the grass and plants of all kinds are thriving. But I want to ask you a question. A week ago and again yesterday I saw a great flock of swallows skimming the surface of one of the artificial lakes. They were doing some sort of bird dance—on Sunday at that—but there was not a swallow over any other of the lakes. Why?"

"They was leavin' Sunday service at that one," said Hiram. "The swallows ain't like human critters—they tend to be regular. They was all there at that lake. Was you thinkin' they was puttin' on a show for an old bird like you?"

"Not at all," said the reporter, "but I wondered."

"The more you steady the works of the 'old' world," said Hiram, "the more you'll see to wonder at. The trouble with most of us is we kin only see the pin-back stuff man makes—By Hen!"

FOUR DIE IN A PREMATURE BLAST

Many Tons of Rock Bury Foreman and Three Men at West Nyack, N. Y.

Nyack, N. Y., May 29.—Four men were killed in the stone quarry of the Belmont granite company at West Nyack, when a charge of dynamite prematurely exploded. Fifteen men working in the quarry were injured and were covered and showered with rocks by the very detonation. Several received painful cuts and bruises.

The dead are: Luigi Ponz, foreman; Luigi Ramo, Heniamino Nambener and Dorgio Shirro. The four were believed to have been killed instantly, as they were standing within a foot of the dynamite. They were buried beneath great masses of rock dislodged by the explosion.

Ponz and the three men were tampering the dynamite preparatory to blasting out rock. Fortunately the others in the quarry had been assigned to another section to work while the foreman and his men were placing the charge.

Suddenly there was a heavy explosion and tons of rocks were sent hurtling through the air. Eye witnesses reported that some of the stone ascended to more than 100 feet. Men from other parts of the quarry, as soon as they had recovered from the shock, ran to the spot, but were unable to render any assistance.

Officers of the company immediately started men to removing the rock to recover the bodies of the four.

GERMAN ANSWER IS ON THE WAY

Believed Reparations Demands Met on Condition of International Loan on Reasonable Terms.

Paris, May 29.—A courier bearing the German government's reply to the reparations commission was expected to arrive in Paris today. Unofficial forecasts of the answer were that it would accede to the demands for the reform of Germany's financial affairs.

The demands of the commission are those agreed upon in the recent negotiations between the committee and the German finance minister, Andreas Hermal. They include provisions for the virtual abolition of the rent tax of 1920, the abolition of the tax on the profits of the coal and iron industries, and the abolition of the tax on the profits of the coal and iron industries.

Advices from Berlin were that the Irish cabinet's decision to abide by the results of Herr Hermal's efforts here was decisively influenced by the prospects of securing the urgently needed loan, and that the government's reparations policy would be sustained by the Reichstag.

THREE DEAD FROM EATING TOADSTOOLS

Two Other Members of Family on Farm Reported as Seriously Ill.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., May 29.—Three deaths occurred in the family of Mrs. Joseph Lawrence, a farmer, at Gordon Lake, Ont., nine miles north of Deseronto, as a result of taking a quantity of a poisonous species of fungus related to the mushrooms, and the lives of two other members of the family were in danger.

The three-year-old boy who refused to eat the dish is the only one of the family not affected.

Mrs. Joseph Lawrence, aged thirty-seven, mother of two boys and two girls, was the first to die. Her death was followed by her son, a boy fourteen years of age, who was evidently in good health, but she died at five o'clock.

Joseph Lawrence, aged forty-five, father of the family, suffered a great deal, but survived. The other two survivors are William, a boy fourteen years of age, who did not eat any of the morsels, and the three-year-old boy who would not touch them at all.

WAR ON OVER LORD'S DAY ACT

Victoria, B. C., May 29.—A concerted move against the rigid enforcement of the Lord's Day Act in Victoria was apparent yesterday when forty storekeepers kept open house and hung out the "business as usual" sign, following a recent plebiscite on Sunday enforcement, when a majority in favor of a liberal interpretation of Sunday laws was obtained.

The three police commissioners of Victoria announced they would remain firm in their intention to enforce the Lord's Day Act to the letter.

BOTTOMLEY TO PENAL SERVITUDE

Seven Years for Former Publisher of John Bull

Sentenced Today in Connection with Victory Bond Club Finances—Former M. P. Denied That He Had Improperly Taken Money.

(Canadian Press Cable) London, May 29.—Horatio Bottomley, former publisher of John Bull, was found guilty today by a jury on the charge of misappropriation of funds belonging to the Victory Bond Club.

He was sentenced to seven years' penal servitude.

The Bottomley case has been exciting intense interest in England for several months, since the defendant, a former member of parliament, was charged with fraudulently converting funds of the Victory Bond Club, a war-time organization of which he was the founder and president.

When Bottomley was placed on trial he was specifically accused of misappropriating five thousand pounds, but the prosecution alleged that of £495,000 he was declared to have handled, only £230,000 could be accounted for. Bottomley, however, swore during the trial that he had never made a penny out of his various clubs or improperly taken any amount whatever from the club's funds.

Investors in the Bottomley Clubs were largely of the poorer classes, who invested either out of patriotic motives or in the hope of gaining by winning the prizes offered, drawing for which were advertised at given periods.

Bottomley's publication John Bull was noted for its frequent attacks on the U. S.

LARGE INCREASE IN HAUL OF FISH

April Report from Atlantic and Pacific—Fewer Lobsters Taken.

Ottawa, May 29.—(Canadian Press)—The total quantity of sea fish landed on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts during April was 283,928 cwts., valued at $1,121,445, compared with 144,433 cwts., valued at $1,896,672 landed in the same period last year.

The increase in landings was chiefly due to the large catch made by Lunenburg banking fleets.

The catch of cod, haddock, hake and pollock was 159,987 cwts. compared with 36,230 cwts. in April, 1921. The bank fleets returned after their spring trip during the month with one of the best catches in recent years. The catch of cod shows an increase of 115,561 cwts. and haddock an increase of 6,978 cwts. compared with the same period in the preceding year.

The catch of alewives in New Brunswick was 7,250 cwts. compared with 600 cwts. landed in April, 1921.

The catch of lobsters during the month was less than half that of April, 1921, being 21,224 cwts. compared with 48,270 cwts.

Unfavorable weather conditions and scarcity of lobsters would seem responsible for the small catch. Since the opening of the lobster season the total catch has been 34,203 cwts. compared with 15,616 cwts. in the same period in the preceding year. Of the catch this season there were 21,416 cwts. shipped in shell and 6,422 cwts. packed. In the same time last season 44,824 cwts. were used fresh and 15,569 cases packed.

On the Pacific coast the catch of halibut and herring were slightly greater, and salmon less than those in April, 1921.

Five fishermen on the Atlantic coast lost their lives during the month.

IMPORTS STILL EXCEED EXPORTS

Canadian Trade With the United States.

Report for Year which Ended With April—Sending More to Great Britain Than She is Buying There.

(Canadian Press) Ottawa, May 29.—Canada's still importing more from the U. S. than she is exporting to that country and still exporting more to Great Britain than she is importing there, according to the latest trade returns published by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. These figures cover the twelve months ending with April.

During that period Canada imported from the United Kingdom goods valued at $294,555,000 to that market, while imports from the United States were $207,406,000 as compared with exports of $286,400,000.

As the total foreign trade has been falling rapidly, there is a falling off in all these items, but the export trade to Great Britain is holding up much better than exports to the United States or than imports from either country.

The decline in the exports to the United Kingdom for the twelve months period ending April, as compared with the figure for the year ended with April, 1921, was only about eighteen million dollars, while Canadian exports to the United States fell off more than $25,000,000 in the same period.

In imports the falling off from the United Kingdom was a little less than $20 million, while imports from the United States the decline was more than three hundred million.

Australian Trade. Canadian trade with Australia continued to show a heavy balance of exports. The exports to Australia for the twelve months ended April, 1921, were exceptionally heavy, being eighteen millions compared with eleven millions for the corresponding period to April, 1920.

CARLISTS ARE OVERWHELMED

Monarchists Defeated in the Hungarian Elections—Victory for Government.

Budapest, May 29.—First returns from the Hungarian parliamentary elections indicate an overwhelming victory for the government. The Carlist right wing, or monarchist party, is regarded as crushed on the basis of these results, and it seems probable that the Social Democrats will make a great gain.

Up to ten o'clock last night the election of seventy-four government, and six opposition candidates had been assured.
