

TO THE ELECTORS OF CHARLOTTE COUNTY.

GENTLEMEN:—At the coming election I shall be a candidate for your suffrages. In so doing I have no promises to make. I have served you seven years. My conduct for the past must be your guarantee for the future. I am still in favor of a union of the Colonies; being rejected at the last election, I felt that it was a confession that was rejected, and not my services.

Yours truly,
JOHN MCADAM.

May 24, 1866.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.

GENTLEMEN:—I will at the ensuing Election offer myself as a Candidate for the Representation of the County. If successful, my strongest efforts will be made to promote a UNION of the CANADIAN and BRITISH PROVINCES. The prosperity of them all I believe, for many reasons, depends upon their Confederation under a just and judicious Scheme.

Your ob. Servant,
JAMES W. CHANDLER.

GENTLEMEN:—Yielding to the solicitations of numerous friends from various parts of the county, I offer myself as a candidate for your suffrages at the ensuing general election. Deeply impressed with the necessity of a union of the British North American Colonies, I shall do so affectionately and politically, the accomplishment of such union, feeling assured that it can be obtained upon terms of justice and equity to all. And while thus assenting to an imperial union, I am not less anxious to secure the advantages of inalienable independence. If elected, these and all other interests shall receive my most watchful care.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours most respectfully,
FRANCIS HIBBARD.

NOTICE.

WHEREAS I have been informed that certain statements have been circulated through this County, to the effect that I have spoken disrespectfully and disloyally of Her Majesty the Queen, or of Her Government, I would hereby distinctly contradict all such reports, and declare every such statement to be false and calumnious, and wickedly designed by some persons whom I do not yet know, to injure me as a good subject of the Queen in the eyes of my neighbors and fellow subjects.
