entirely untrue. Mr. Phinney repeated that Mr. Labilloi had used the religious cry to its fullest extens at Cocaigne, and used the express lan guage quoted by Dr. Alward. Mr. Labillois is the Kent election, had charged that Mr. Crocket was not liberal enough toward Catholics, and, therefore, had to go.

Hon. Mr. Labillois denied that he had done so, though possibly Mr. Johnston had As to the charge that he had intimated that he would accept Gogain's defeat as his own, he said that the supporters of the govwith him not to bring on another election and he had bowed to that appeal. As to the meeting at Dundas and the claim that he had closed the meeting on account of the Sabbath, Mr. Phinney denied that he had done so. Mr. Blair, like his patron saint Mercier, in the last dominion struggle, has gone into Keat county to win at any hazard

MR. LEGERE. Mr. Legere said the steps he had taken in becoming a government candidate were right, the people of Kent pronounced them so. Mr. Gogain, Mr. Phinney's candidate came out as an independent and said he was willing to support the government under cer tain conditions. If he (Legere) had made one had step, as Phinney stated, the latter had made two.

The first bad step was, when he deserte the government, and the second was whe he said he would accept Gogain's defeat a

MR. TWEEDIE. Hon. Mr. Tweedie said that the Oppo sition had complained that the governmen members had not replied as promptly they should to their speeches. The reason of that he could assure them was that ti. government members were anxiously waitin for the Opposition to say something wort replying to. While the Opposition did a hesitate to make charges against the govern ment they failed to formulate any definition charge. They dealt in insinuations, goin, around the streets gathering gossip here an there, and then indulging in mud-throwing in large quantities in the hope that son of the material would stick. Regarding the Kent election, hon. Mr. Labillois had give an explanation which he believed would be satisfactory to every right-thinking man in the House. The lieutenant of the opposition (Stockton) had congratulated the new ly elected member for Kent (Legere) upo being a member of this House while, at the same time, he stated that he had done nothing to assist him to get here. The latter hon. gentleman had this satisfactionif the heutenant of the opposition had no done anything to assist in his election, he had certainly not aided the opposition can didate very much. While the explanatio of hon. Mr. Labillois regarding the Kent election does not seem to satisfy the hou member for Kent (Mr. Phinney) who post as a purist, he could tell the house an country that Mr. Phinney was the most un fair man that could be met in an election campaign, who would scruple at no un fair means to attain his end. He seeks t get over the difficulty regarding his ope letter to the people of Kent by stating the he had no intention to resign his seat, but h (Tweedie) could assure the house that M: Phinney was not stating the case correctly He had not only sent his circular lett throughout the country stating that "tiwas his election," that he was personally terested, but he had informed him (Tweed that if Gogain was defeated ne would resign After the election had resulted disastrou for him. Mr. Phinney felt that he should leave the county of Kent; he packet h satchel, gathered up the remaining copies his manifesto and left for York. SECURE A FREE HOMESTEAD OF 160 ACRES,

And give you facts regarding successful Farmers that will surprise you. The Canadian Northwest has the most productive soil in the world. Its wheat fetches the highest price; its live cattle are admitted to the English markets, while United States cattle are not. There is a market for the farmer at every station; and there are schools and churches wherever there are settlers. It is not subject to drought nor floods, to grasshoppers or to cyclones or tornadors. Ask any Canadian Pacific Railway agent for books and maps concerning it; ask for "Parming and Ranching in Western Canada, or the "Free Farms" map, or "Actual Experience" and read the testimony of men who have gone there from Eastern Canada, "Young women are in great demand; they find occupation as domestics directly they arrive, and readily get married to prosperous young tarmers. Young men or young women can start life there almost without money. They make the money there; an independence is general in a very few years by the

The old settlers of New Brunswick should use their influence with the young men who intend emigrating to keep them within the minion, where they are offered better advantages than in the United States and do not lose their nationality. Lose no time in getting to the West and choosing your location. First come, first served.
