JUNE 23.— "The Sunny Side" the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. George was looking its best on the evening of June 17. Amid its magnificent surroundings of grand old elm trees and thick foliage of vines; standing on the broad verands and overlooking the beautiful grounds surrounding the cathedral and beyond the quiet river, flowing placidly on to the sea one would hardly expect to see a more charming view, but once within the hospital doors of "The Sunnyside" quite as pret:y a scene was enacted, as promptly at the hour appointed, half past six, Miss Adolina Elizabeth Armington, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Farrington George entered from the extreme end of the western parior, leaning on the arm of her inther. A cheir of young ladies at the plane sang 'The voice that breathed o'er Eden' as the bridal procession passed through lines of guests, separated by bands of white satin ribbons held in the hands of the unhers, through the spacious hall, to the east drawing room where they took their position under an imanque canopy of white illacs. The bride was pure canopy of white illacs.

Hardens Tender Feet.

The trials and troubles associated with the feet are often such as to cause great annoyance and discomfort. The Corns, Bunions and Ingrowing Toe Nails make walking a misery. When the feet swell, ache, tire easily, sweat profusely, or become sore readily, there is only one remedy that will overcome these disabilities and that is POOT ELM. It keeps the shoes sweet and dry and the feet cool and clean.

M. W. J. Calcon, Cor. Wilton American Relative St. Toronto Ont. 2015.

Mr. W. J. Calgary, Cor. Wilton Ave. and Berkeley St., Toronto, Ont., says.—"I found Foot Elm an excellent foot remedy. I have been troubled with tender, sweating feet for a long time. The soles of my feet were always very sore. The use of Foot Elm has removed the soreness and excessive sweating. It proved a splendid remedy for my feet." Price 25c. Sold by druggists; and shoe dealers, or sent by mail on receipt of price by addressing Stott & Jury, Bowmanville, Out.
