

WEDDINGS

Cameron-Macaulay. The summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Macaulay, Westfield, was the scene of a happy event Tuesday afternoon...

Watson-Strang. A wedding in which the contracting parties were former residents of St. John took place in Boston Thursday evening...

Toole-Robertson. St. Jude's church, Carleton, was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday, when Miss Jennie Robertson, daughter of John Robertson...

Jardine-Dickinson. A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday afternoon in Trinity church, when James A. Bell, a merchant of Fredericton...

Brown-Goth. Moncton, June 20.—(Special)—The marriage of Fred M. Brown, this city, to Miss Mary Goth of Milford (Mass.), took place at the residence of A. McLeod this evening...

Wood-James. A pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday when Miss Eva Ebelke James, daughter of Lewis B. Wood of Charlottetown (P. E. I.), and on the traveling staff of Manchester Robertson Allison, Ltd., were united in matrimony...

Williams-Denison. Woodstock, N. B., June 20.—(Special)—A fashionable wedding in which has caused more than a ripple of excitement in society circles took place at the home of United States Consul and Mrs. F. Denison at 2:30 this afternoon...

Allen-Pears. At Moncton Wednesday afternoon, Miss Beatrice Augustus, daughter of W. H. Pears, 1 C. R., was married to Woodford K. Allen, son of Jacob Allen, Upper Cape, Boistford, by Rev. E. B. McLatchy.

Brayley-Walker. St. Paul's church, Halifax, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, the principals in the ceremony being Miss Emma Annus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker, of the I. C. R., St. John (N.B.).

Hickey-Burns. A fashionable wedding took place at the Church of the Sacred Heart, Bathurst, at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, when Miss Regina Eileen Burns, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Burns, was united in marriage to Clifford P. Hickey...

Carrier-Worden. A quiet church wedding took place Wednesday night at eight o'clock, when Miss Blanche Mildred Worden, of Sussex, was united in marriage to Merwin W. Carrier, formerly of Nauyasack (Conn.), but now residing in Sussex...

Bell-Banks. A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday afternoon in Trinity church, when James A. Bell, a merchant of Fredericton, was united in marriage to Miss Rose Banks, of West Brookfield (Mass.), formerly of Carleton county...

Stafford-Cohen. A very pretty wedding took place in the Cathedral Wednesday at 6 a. m., when Miss Margaret Cohen, daughter of Michael Cohen, of Elm street, was united in marriage to Bernard Stafford, by Rev. A. W. Meahan.

Very many beautiful and costly gifts have been received by the bride, among them being a chair of quartered oak, upholstered in leather, from the Canadian Rubber Co., in whose employ the groom holds the position of New Brunswick agent.

The newly married couple left on the C. P. R. train at 5:40 on a tour of Upper Canada, and their return will be at 1:37 Duke street.

Among the guests from outside the city who were here to attend the wedding, are Miss Isabelle Johnston, of St. John, and Miss Helen Slipp, of Boston.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Harrington, of Millville, was the scene of a happy event on Wednesday evening, when their daughter Miss Bessie G. was united in marriage to Geo. H. Brown, of this city, formerly of Quebec.

The bride wore a gown of white silk, trimmed with white lace, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Barry, assisted by Rev. Louis O'Leary, and Rev. Henry O'Leary.

The bride was given away by her uncle, R. T. Woodson. Her costume was of cream crepe de chine, and she carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

The bride's costume was of blue silk, trimmed with white lace, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Crisp, Methodist clergyman at Milltown.

The bride was given away by her uncle, R. T. Woodson. Her costume was of cream crepe de chine, and she carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

The bride's costume was of blue silk, trimmed with white lace, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Crisp, Methodist clergyman at Milltown.

The bride was given away by her uncle, R. T. Woodson. Her costume was of cream crepe de chine, and she carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

The bride's costume was of blue silk, trimmed with white lace, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Crisp, Methodist clergyman at Milltown.

The bride was given away by her uncle, R. T. Woodson. Her costume was of cream crepe de chine, and she carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

The bride's costume was of blue silk, trimmed with white lace, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Crisp, Methodist clergyman at Milltown.

The bride was given away by her uncle, R. T. Woodson. Her costume was of cream crepe de chine, and she carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

LOCAL NEWS

L. B. Tufts & Co., lumber merchants, are reported in financial straits, and compelled to suspend payment.

Six men of the stranded Elder, Demeter steamer Etoile, arrived here Wednesday on the steamer Senla. The men will probably go across on the Furness liner Antipole.

F. D. Miles and the men under his direction have finished handling the drift of 100,000 lbs. of lumber, speaking some six million feet of logs were landed in five weeks.

Harvey White, of White's Cove, Queens county, has been appointed assistant inspector of weights and measures, to succeed J. Brown, who has applied for re-annuation.

J. B. Roberts, of Welsford, and Charles J. Gallagher, of St. George, have given notice of their intention to make application in October next for permission to study law.

Court Martello, I. O. F., Tuesday night chose B. B. Jordan and T. H. Belyea as officers for the coming year.

A letter from Julian Cornell, of this city, who was hurt at Nelson by falling into the hold of a vessel, says his injuries are not nearly so serious as first reported, and he will return to St. John in a few days.

At the weekly meeting in St. Andrew's church, Wednesday evening, June 21, the Rev. Mr. W. A. Whittaker, who is in attendance at the recent meeting of the Presbyterian General Assembly in London (Ont.), gave a brief account of what transpired there.

Concerning the sums for the I. C. R. in the supplementary estimates at Ottawa—$10,000, including accounts of the expenditure of St. John and improvements at Rothesay, L. R. Ross, the I. C. R. terminal experiment, said Thursday.

The mill strike situation remains unchanged. The Hilday mill, it is expected, will run today. All the other mills, which have been closed down, will, it is said, remain so.

Joseph W. Cameron, of the gravel roofing firm of Magee & Co., met with a painful accident Wednesday afternoon by falling down an elevator shaft in the building of the firm at 100 St. John street.

Mr. Bourassa criticized the premier, whose name had hitherto been associated with the maintenance of order, principles and liberties of the people, and regretted that Sir Wilfrid's name was associated with this most illiberal legislation.

Hugh Guthrie (South Weyling) said that the bill was purely a civic and economic measure for the betterment and preservation of the city.

On class six, regarding Sunday excursions by conveyances where a fee is charged, Mr. Cameron said that this might interfere with those who wanted, by ferry or train, to leave the city on Sunday to get the fresh air of the country.

OBITUARY

William White, Peterborough. The death of Wm. White, a respected resident of Peterborough, Queens county, occurred at his home on Saturday, 26th inst.

Wm. Taylor. The death of Wm. Taylor took place at the Home of Incurables Tuesday morning, the deceased, who was about sixty-five years of age, was in his active days a well known machinist and will be well remembered by many citizens.

Frederick Gammon. Bathurst, June 18.—The death of Frederick Gammon, a respected resident of Bathurst, occurred at his home on the Pointe road, near Bathurst, on Friday last.

Funeral of Mrs. Thane M. Jones. Edmunston, June 18.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Thane M. Jones, aged thirty-one years, took place at Edmunston on Sunday last at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Henry McKinney. About 10 o'clock Wednesday at her home, 47 Sewell street, Mrs. Ada McKinney, wife of Henry McKinney, stationary engineer, passed away.

John Sloan, Formerly of St. John. John Sloan, one of the most universally liked residents of this province, died on June 8, in Alameda, where he had been living since the fire. Mr. Sloan was 72 years old and a native of St. John (N. B.).

Mrs. J. H. Williams. Sackville, June 20.—Mrs. Williams, wife of J. H. Williams, bookkeeper for Geo. E. Ford, died at an early hour this morning.

James Morris. James Morris, road commissioner, of Fairville, died Wednesday. He had been ill only two days and his death was a great shock to the community.

NEW BRUNSWICK TEACHERS' GATHERING. Educational Institute Meetings at Chatham June 27 to 29.

9 a. m.—Meeting of the executive. 10 a. m.—Enrollment of members; reading of minutes; election of secretaries and nominating committee.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Address by Prof. Loebbeck of Macdonald College.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

REV. DR. MACRAE FIFTY YEARS MINISTER THURSDAY

Golden Jubilee Finds Presbyterian Clergyman Hale and hearty after long and active life--has filled an important place in the Church in Canada and won reverence and respect of all.

Fifty years ago Thursday, Rev. Donald Macrae, M. A., D. D., was ordained as a missionary to the colonies by the Presbytery of Lewis, Scotland.

While pastor of St. Stephen's church he worked of organizing home missions. He was the first to call for a national conference of the Presbyterian churches in Canada.

He was born at Hopewell, Pictou county (N. S.), in 1831. His father, Rev. John Macrae, a clergyman of the established church of Scotland, was for eighteen years minister of congregations in Pictou county.

When Dr. Macrae was about twelve years of age he went to Scotland, where he pursued his studies in the universities of Aberdeen and Edinburgh, and the theological schools in connection therewith.

When Dr. Macrae was about twelve years of age he went to Scotland, where he pursued his studies in the universities of Aberdeen and Edinburgh, and the theological schools in connection therewith.

When Dr. Macrae was about twelve years of age he went to Scotland, where he pursued his studies in the universities of Aberdeen and Edinburgh, and the theological schools in connection therewith.

When Dr. Macrae was about twelve years of age he went to Scotland, where he pursued his studies in the universities of Aberdeen and Edinburgh, and the theological schools in connection therewith.

When Dr. Macrae was about twelve years of age he went to Scotland, where he pursued his studies in the universities of Aberdeen and Edinburgh, and the theological schools in connection therewith.

When Dr. Macrae was about twelve years of age he went to Scotland, where he pursued his studies in the universities of Aberdeen and Edinburgh, and the theological schools in connection therewith.

When Dr. Macrae was about twelve years of age he went to Scotland, where he pursued his studies in the universities of Aberdeen and Edinburgh, and the theological schools in connection therewith.

When Dr. Macrae was about twelve years of age he went to Scotland, where he pursued his studies in the universities of Aberdeen and Edinburgh, and the theological schools in connection therewith.

When Dr. Macrae was about twelve years of age he went to Scotland, where he pursued his studies in the universities of Aberdeen and Edinburgh, and the theological schools in connection therewith.

ROTHESAY HAPPENINGS

Rothsay, June 21.—There was a large attendance at the entertainment in the school-house on the Cove road last evening.

David Kirkpatrick, who is nursing his four-year-old son, told the hospital physicians, when they advised that the amputation of a leg would give him a chance to recover.

9 a. m.—Meeting of the executive. 10 a. m.—Enrollment of members; reading of minutes; election of secretaries and nominating committee.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Address by Prof. Loebbeck of Macdonald College.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

KINGS COUNTY PROBATE COURT

Hampton, Kings county, June 21.—Judge of Probates James M. McIntyre, with Miss Mabel S. Gilbert as registrar, opened their first court here this afternoon.

In the interim since the death of the late Judge George J. Gilbert, two cases have been attended to. On June 14th Judge McIntyre in Chambers granted letters testamentary to Mrs. Fanny Jones.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.

9 to 10—Music. 10 to 10:30—Some Phases of Modern Education, by Dr. H. S. Bridges, discussion opened by H. H. Stuart.