

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothestay, Oct. 7.—On Tuesday afternoon a specially interesting meeting of the Rothestay Red Cross Society was held in St. Paul's church school house. This society was organized in August, 1914, and has been holding regular meetings twice a week, on Tuesday and Friday. Miss Muriel Robertson, the secretary-treasurer, has been away from home but having returned was ready on Tuesday with the year's report. Cash receipts for the year August, 1914-1915, were $2,847 and financial support is still good. Monthly subscriptions promised—and the canvas is not yet completed—with Miss Leslie Campbell. The Tuesday afternoon tea is to be continued. Mrs. John H. Thomson was re-elected president and Miss Muriel Robertson, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Thomas Bell, who has given splendid satisfaction as bayen, was requested to continue this work and has kindly consented to do so. The most successful "cutters," Miss Edith Gilbert, Miss Hooper, Mrs. Hibbard, Mrs. D. A. Pugsley and Miss Donville, are willing to continue in this most important department and received hearty thanks for the cheerful and efficient way in which the never ending duties of this branch of the work has been rendered. Thanks were given Miss Annie Puddington for valuable help on several occasions; also to Miss Annie Brock and Mrs. Fred Foster, who conducted the Tuesday class, conducted by Mrs. W. J. Davidson, on Monday completed the study of the book, "The Awakening of India," and for the present meetings will be discontinued.

On Thursday afternoon last, Mrs. H. F. Puddington was looked at bridge for the Misses Ravenel, of South Carolina, who are visiting Mrs. D. D. Robertson. Among those present were Mrs. Bell, Miss Donville, Mrs. Percy Fairweather, Miss Hooper, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. Blair, Mrs. J. F. Robertson, Miss Ravenel, Miss Muriel Robertson, Miss Sophie Robertson, Miss Muriel Fairweather, Mrs. Frink, Mrs. Walter Harrison and others. Prizes were won by Mrs. Blair and Miss Muriel Robertson. Dr. W. A. Fairweather and his wife, who were removed to North Sydney in view of the influenza epidemic, are just now guests of Mr. George Ketchum and Misses Ketchum at their suburban home, Riverside. Best wishes for happiness in their new home are being expressed.

Miss Muriel Robertson, who has been visiting relatives in Halifax, returned home last week. An enjoyable little sewing party was given by Mrs. Blanchet on Thursday afternoon last, when the guests included Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. E. J. Mackay, Mrs. W. M. Mackay, Mrs. Harry Gilbert, Miss Puddington, Miss Gilbert, Miss Mabel Gilbert, Miss Purdy and Miss Hall. At Fair Vale during the summer a Red Cross sewing circle was formed with Miss Leslie Campbell at the leading spirit. It was a branch of Rothestay Society and held about ten weekly meetings at the homes of the members. A box was provided into which those present were expected to drop ten cents. The report of what this little circle accomplished during the season surely shows the interest and energy of the workers to be perfectly splendid. The last meeting for the season was held at the home of Miss Campbell last Wednesday. Collections in the "box" amounted to $48.70 and was voted to be given to the hospital. The following articles were manufactured: 61 pairs of socks, 44 pyjama suits, 69 hospital shirts, 74 shirts, 173 handkerchiefs, 24 operation stockings, 28 towels, 48 personal property bags, 27 caps, 100 pairs of face cloths sent in by Miss Alice Robertson.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. and Miss Puddington entertained at bridge, when among the players were Mr. and Mrs. Blanchet, Miss Alice Davidson, Miss Palmer, Miss Allison, Mr. Walter Allison, Mrs. Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Mr. and Mrs. Bell. There were no prizes.

Mr. Heber Daniel, who has been spending a few weeks' vacation here, returned to Montreal on Sunday. Mrs. Walter Harrison and her little daughter, Ruth, left on Tuesday for Bear River (N. S.) for a short visit to the home of her brother, J. Royden Thomson, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Murphy of New York, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Banks, have returned to their home. Misses Fairweather and Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather on Friday evening entertained at bridge Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Miss Donville, Misses Robertson, Judge Armstrong and Mr. West.

Bishop Hamilton, of mid-Japan, and Rev. G. F. Scovell, of St. John (west), spent Monday in Rothestay, being guests of the college where he spent the afternoon the bishop addressed the boys. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. H. F. Puddington was hostess at four tables of bridge for Miss Blanchet, of New York, other guests being Mrs. Harold Brock, Mrs. Malcolm Mackay, Mrs. Bell, Miss Brock, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Miss Hooper, Miss Edith Gilbert, Mrs. Fred Foster, Mrs. John Davidson, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Frink, Miss Allison, Mrs. W. S. Allison, Miss Florence Gilbert and others. Prizes were won by Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Frink.

Miss Irene McQuade and Mr. William McQuade, of the Royal Bank at St. John, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carter over the week-end. Mrs. Daniel is spending a few days at "Kerasale" with Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robertson, awaiting Rev. Canon Daniel's return from Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Ritchie, who have spent the summer at Riverside, moved to their city home, St. John, on Monday.

Little Miss Barbara Fairweather enjoyed entertaining a few friends on Monday. Some of the wee guests were Muriel Hibbard, Helen Allison, Margaret and Arthur Fairweather, Eleanor Foster, Sibbie Frink, Harry Frink, Mr. and Mrs. Frink, Miss Helen Blanchet and Frances Robinson.

At Ray's Lake on Friday Mrs. Frink and Mrs. Robinson entertained at a picnic lunch Miss Celia Armstrong, Misses Muriel and Marge Robertson, Miss Hall, Miss Purdy, Mrs. Beverly Armstrong and Mrs. W. S. Allison. In the interests of Red Cross work Mrs. John H. Thomson, Miss Muriel Robertson, Miss Puddington, Mrs. Walter Harrison and Miss Marge Robertson motored to Clifton on Friday evening and met a number of Clifton ladies at the home of Mrs. Wetmore. The local Red Cross meeting Miss Hendricks, Miss Emma Turnbull and the Misses Gilbert entertained at the afternoon tea on Tuesday. Mrs. Blanchet gave a small informal bridge on Monday afternoon, when those playing were Mrs. Leonard Tilley, Mrs. Estlin, Mrs. Hooper, Mrs. Blanchet (New York), Miss Puddington, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. W. S. Allison and Mrs. Harry Puddington, who won the prize. Mr. John M. Hastings is visiting friends in Boston.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, Oct. 7.—The Women's Institute is now being convened here and brought a large number of ladies to the city and some very pleasant meetings are being held. At this morning's session the principal speakers were the Countess of Ashburnham and Mrs. Havelock Coy, both ladies making strong appeals for recruiting. Mrs. John Black charmed the large audience with her vocal solo "Knitting" and was forced to respond to an encore when she sang "Gallant Little Belgium." At the conclusion three cheers were given for Belgium.
