t vernment would be continued in the would som effect the complete restoration of the Union with the complete emancipation of the negro. Line in died for that principie, but his death was not the symbol of its dele t, but of its glorious triumph.

Bright, concurred in the hearty tribute dent Lincoln. They had seen America pass triumphantly through gigantic perils, and they confidently expected that she would come out with equal fortitude and equal dignity from what was perhaps the greatest resolution, vis:—

That this meeting desires to express its power of the people and Government of the United States to carry out to the fullest extent the policy of which Abraham Lin coln's Presidential career was the embody ment, and establish free institutions throughout the whole American Republic. Mr. Stansfield said they had met, not only to give an expression of their horror at a deed so foul that history could produce no parallel, but to show sympathy for a cause which begins, by being honorable and just and great, to be rightsous, and which the acts and by she life and death of martyr President, had now become sacred in their eyes. The South had been fight ing for the avowed and deliberate purpose of promoting and perpetuating human slavery. It attempted to found its exist ence on a national crime, and had met the against the laws of God and man. The North had been fighting for a common coun North had been ugnuing for a common country which they would not allow to be torn asunder. Step by step the North rise to the heighth of the great and holy argument on which their cause was founded. Each delay, each defeat, seemed but to make their resolve firmer, and higher and purer their policy. When the South finally abolished slavery throughout their States, then victory would finally crown the cause. Throughout all this period, Lincoln guided his country with hocour. If anything could strengthen the States in their trial, it would be the deeply felt, spontaneous and universal sympathy which was now traveling to them from Europe. He was sure all prayed that the Government and people might be true to the example of him who was the guide of heir cause. on which their cause was founded. Each

Was the guide of heir cause.

Mr. J. B. Potter, M.P., seconded th motion. He said he now stood in Parlia ment as the successor of Richard Cobden whose object was equally with that of Mi Lincoin to dignify labou. Lincoln destroy ed slavery in America. It should be then wish to destroy seridous at home, and h trusted the result of the couffict to Americ would be to give an impetus to the cau e o reloim in Europe.

Bax'er M.P., supported the te expresed a hearty concurrence he coquent tributes paid to the men Presment Line do. All the ev. h est our y ars desindled tota toel since the the the baues divolved in th a i consta America. Not only w lat geer question of slavery to volved in the contest, our the question of constitution not believe a greet cause depended on sing e life, and leit confident that the Ame can people would hurry to a triumphan issue the policy and principles of Abrahas Hou. L. Stanley, second son of Lord Statutey, of Alderley, a member of the Cat seter of Mr. Lincoln.

Professor Fawcett also supported the res-Ir. Shaw Lafevre, M P., said that men who elected Lincoln could not wrong in the choice of Johnson. Mr. Caird, M.P., moved that copies of the foregoing resolutions be placed in the hands of Mr. Adams, for transmission to the President of the United States, Mrs. Lincoln and Mr. Seward. He paid a warm compliment to the American Minister. whose moderation and firmness and concili ation had been the best preservative of peace between the two countries

The resolutions were supported by Green fell, Curran and Ewing, members of Par that it looks very like "tempting the cupidinament, and Rev. Newman Hall and Mason ty of detectives to violate the sanctity of the

Cyrus W. Field, who was called for an received with great applause, thanked the chairman and the meeting, on behalf of the Anerican people, for their deep sympathy the Atlantic who were mourning for the Liverpool, April 29—Evening.—The China's news created a favorable impression Confederate loan flat at a material decline, closing at 11 to 13.

Political news to-day is unimportant.

The weekly papers all coincide with the any press in their remarks on Lincoln's ing for many years has moved England like the telegram announcing the event. It pay and says the more one looks at the facts, the more one sees that although President Lineon is dead the Confederates are hopelessly vading topic.

Audresses of sympathy and indignation are most numerous, Parliament will vote an address on May

The Prussian Government and Chambers, also the Italian Chambers, gave expressions of their Sympathy.

The Assa brought twenty-siz passenge for Haitlax, and fifty-six for Bor bark for Postland. The President, as usual, was disposed to be merciful and to permit the architebel to pass unmolested, but the Secretary urged that he should be arrested as a tractor. "By permitting his told by President Lincoln, was to one of l would be proper to permit Jake Thompson to st.p turoage Maie to disguese and emtentry remarked the secretary, "you sanc-tion it." West," replied Mr. Lincoln, "let me tell you a story. There was an evenuerator to drink stronger than water, Late news from England indicates a preand stopped at a drug store, where he esand stopped at a drug store, and stopped at a drug stor Thompson is permitted to go through Main intimation that the country is to be invaded to go through Main intimation that the country is to be invaded the House of Commens, the House of Commens, e taked the rebellion of the slaveholder. FENTANISE .- The Sligo Chronicle says: course of his observations he mentioned that here were two public houses in town almost solely maintained by the members of these organizations." The Limerick Chronicle says:—"The spirit of Fenianism appears to be rife in our country. On last Thursday eight notices were posted in three districts of Pallaskenry—'Men of Kenry, be ready—The Fenians are coming! On the following morning the police tore down the ppouncements.

If cripoline stories are not already to plentiful, the following may perhaps be tolerated:—Two ladies not far from Blair cowrie, and not being sure as to the "right of-way" on a certain road, asked a rustice laborer "if they could get up that way?" The simple fellow took a look of the fair ones, and considering it a question of girth, replied "I dinna ken; but there was twa ad of hay gaed up a whyle syne,-Perth-

IMMIGRATION -Since the setting in of ne weather, Mr. Rae, and his assistant. Mr. Clever German interpretor), have had a pretty busy time of it in forwarding emigrants to their destination, and supplying their more immediate wants on their rival here. Since the first instant, nearly 300 immigrants have proceeded to settle in various parts of Canada—all of whom came by the United States routs, and represented English, Irish, Scotch, and German nationalities.—Hamilton Times.

Berald. CARLETON PLACE.

Wednesday, May 10th, 1865.

The circulation of the C P. Herald now very large and constantly increasing. Merchants, business men and all who desire o communicate with the public will secure a wide publication for their notices, by advertising in its columns. Charges as low as those of other papers of less than half the circus ation. No charge for publishing births, marriages and deaths.

The recent proclamation of President Johnson offering large rewards for the capture of Jefferson Davis and other Southern ers and their friends, some of whom happen to be in Canada, seems to have had no other effect than to surprise all who have ead it. The general opinion seems to b ne of doubt and disbelief in the statement contained in the proclamation that these parties were at all guilty of being connected uppere that the leaders of the South were e bloody murder of the President would in o wise better their cause, but would ther tend to complicate the evils under hich they I bored, by inflaming the pas ions of their enemies, and rousing into ction the worst demon of the war.

The fact that Tucker and Sanders has ndignantly repudiated the charge against hem, and have voluntarily offered to su ender themselves to the Federal authorities provided a fair trial be guaranteed them also favors the idea that they are not guilty and that the President has been impose upon in issuing rewards for their arrest. Even the American Press repudiates the tory as false and untrue. The New York World condems the idea of offering rewards for men who are not in the country, and says that "unless they are first kidnappe and brought" there they cannot be arrested under the terms of the proclamation; and that it looks very like "tempting the cupidi nation that harbours them." The New York News "believes that President John son has been imposed upon," and that "neither Jefferson Davis nor any of the the parties so fearfully accused, nor any man in authority in the South, has instigated or encouraged the assassination President Lincoln and the attemp; upon the life of the Secretary of State." The New York Tribune very clearly expresses the same opinion and says, that, there is secured after a very short racs.

The general and sincere sympathy which the people of Canada eviaced on receipt of the shared the sucience to the succent to the succe The general and sincere sympathy which | An American inventor has written to us the poor, have alike given vent to their feelings of horror and of sorrowful sympathy.

The press has been rendered unanimous for once on the American question by the sad event, just as in Canada the minor distinction of the control of the says, ing to patent a machine, which he says, affected by the general sympathy which has brushes and his tail into a cork screw. been accorded to Americans in their grief —a sympathy which was denied to them simple, and perhaps as useful. Improve-except in part during the conduct of the four years war. It will be well if the imnumerous kinds of Patent medicines, but The Medical Faculty of Queen's University have decided on adopting the plan of a summer session of three months-a system which is quite general with the Engish medical schools, and which of late has and Children, will be taught by their rerevents ary profitable audy of Anatomy, and this branch will not be systematically aught. Instead of lectures and demonstra ions on Anatomy proper, the subjects of Microscopical Anatomy and Surgical Anaomy will be taken up the first by Professor Fowler. The Betanic Garden will be sure remedy. available during the summer for the practial elucidation of the classification and properties, of poisonous, medicinal, and death of Mr. William Giles, of Ramsay, with the compiracy for the assessination of other plants. The Kingston Hospital will which happened on Saturday last. Mr. The parents and guardians of our youth fail to serve a profitable introduction to the flicting injuries which caused his death in a everer studies of the Winter Session, and for this object principally we believe the plan has been devised.

> ourpose of discussing the best means of establishing the traffic on a firmer basis. At one of those meetings lately held in Glasgow the chairman gave the following advice to the trade :-

"I wish every drunkard would take th harbour drunkards or people of indifferent character about their establishments, depend upon it their trade will soon go away from them if they have got any. A trade cannot be conducted with two classes of customers of that kind, because they clash so much

In some respects the instinct of the comon spider exceeds the boasted reason of nan : but the chairman of the meeting has been studying cause and effect more than the spiders, who never think of kicking the ucked flies out of the net!

What to do with the coloured people he United States, after they are liberated rom Slavery, is a question that will require all the ingenuity of the rulers of the Ameri an people to solve. The following extract tions of private feeling and party views when wound up and set in motion will were swallowed up in the genuine outbursts chase a pig over a tan acre lot, catch, yoke, of a common human nature. The whole and ring him, or by a slight change of world has been made kin; and the New gearing, will shop it into sausages, work his York journals show that they are not un- skin into saddles, his bristles into shoe

There are other inventions equally pression thus produced proves of good and we must decline advertising them further until we become convinced of their practical utility. Those of our readers who invest in the foregoing articles will be able to keen house without any further contributions to Yankee ingenuity for some time to come.

Affairs in connection with Mexico are institutions in the United States. The session for this summer opened on Monday ast at the the Medical Buildings. Very and the United States. It is announced ittle publicity has been given to the matter, President Justes, of Mexico, has issued and it will not be surprising if the experiment suffers from this cause, though when French commerce. This course derives the fact comes to be generally known and importance from the fact that, notwithits advantages appreciated, there can be no standing the reverses of the Republic the doubt of its success. The course of study Illnited States have continued to recognise liffers in certain respects from that pursued it, and that resruiting for active service in during the regular or winter session. The its defence is now going forward in Washbranches of Principles and Practice of ington and New York. It is said that al-Medicine, Principles and Practice of Sur- though this enlisting will be so managed as gery, and Obstetrics and diseases of Women to escape the charge of being a breach of international law, the "emigrants" will be spective Professors; but the summer heat fully supplied with arms. The plot is evidently thickening and the denouement may wear a very startling aspect.

The Prince Albert Observer regrets learn that the grub, which destroyed so much wheat three years ago, has made its Maclean in connection with the Institutes of appearance in the 11th concession of the Medicine, and the second by Professor O. township of Reach. They are found on the Yates. The chemistry and botany collateral bigh land, and the ground appears to be to the science of Materia Medica and the art literally alive with them. The Observer of pharmacy will be taught by Professor thinks that to rell the grain at night is a ourse, though of short duration, cannot farm, when the stone fell in upon him inlew minutes afterwards.

We are requested to mention, that Union Sabbath School has been organized The temperance movement in England in this village, and will be opened, im appears to have somewhat alarmed the mediately after the close of Public Worship iquor dealers in the United Kingdom, and on the afternoon of next Sabbath. The neetings of those favourable to the eraft lesson for the day will be the first seven have been held in different places, for the verses of the first chapter of the Gospel according to St. John.

We have received the volume of Statutes assed during the last session of the Canadian Parliament. It is a thin book, con taining 172 pages. The greater number of ledge. (Applause.) They are the worst bills passed last session are of a nature copie we have to deal with. If men effecting individuals and companies or affecting individuals and companies or corporations; very few of public interest.

We have had a large amount of dull cloudy weather this spring, accompanied with so much rain as to hinder farming operation on the low lands. At the time we write however, the sun is shining brightly, and egetation is progressing rapidly:

A rumour is in circulation, for the truth of which we cannot vouch, that employees of the Government in Quebec have received notice to prepare for removal to Ottawa in

Capture of Mr. President Davis

Official.—War Department, Washington 13th May.—To Major Gen. Dix.—Th

To the Editor of the C. P. Herald.

SIR,—According to previous appointme a meeting of friends favourable to the mation of a Union Sunday School in village of Carleton Place, was held in Methodist Chapel, on Tuesday evening, Bell, Req., presiding. The meeting but all proved unreal, as the mirage of the desert. Never, perhaps, had mortal risen to such a pitch of elevation. For a time he defeated every opposing army, no weapon formed against him seemed to prosper. But what reverses soon followed. One by one he saw the fragments of his power pass away until he found himself a prisoner on the rock of St. Helena. Deprived of wife and son, he longed and pined to die. "Everything I love, everything that belongs to me, the same described by the popular indignation." But to be serious," remarks "Junius," thick was described by the proxi-

the rainbow, yet, like these same colours we may blend into one and seek to throw the ight of sacred truth upon the surrounding darkness. Mothers, come to the rescue. On the power of maternal influence, in moulding our manhood, the celebrated Dr. Winslow writes, in the memoirs of his mother :-"How deathles is the influence of a holy mother. That influence employed in plant ing the first seedlings of thought, in shaping the first actions of childhood, still lives to instruct, admonish and cheer in manhood's iper years. Henored and privileged are they around whose toilsome pathway yet lingers a spell so sacred, a power so gentle and a charm so holy and persuasive. The sepulchre has closed in silence over her; but her chre has closed in silence over her; but her inspiration, vital and balmy as the breath of spring, still floats over life's dreary way, gladdening, moulding and guiding. Beneath its embalming power the parental relation never dies. The authority to which as children we bowed so submissively in ter life, when the snow-flakes of time frosted our brow, still lives to sway, and the maternal influence which shaped our youth-ful steps, yet holds us in its deathless en

Ancement."
The author of that little gem entitled owe all to my parents, but especially to my mother. Our dwelling, in appearance, was like one of those inhabited by farmers in the mation of a Union Sanday School is the village of Carleton Place, whe held is the village of Carleton Place, whe held is the thickness the passes of the place of the second with the moral and religious the same, representing the Charch of South and the place when the same, representing the Charch of South and the same, representing the Charch of South and the same, representing the case, representing the Charch of South and the same, representing the case, representing the Charch of South and the same, representing the Charch of South and the defence of Canada, and perhaps it is all right and proper, in present circumstant and the same, representing the case, and the same, representing the Charch of South and the defence of Canada, and perhaps it is all right and proper, in present circumstant and an anticompanies of the same, representing the case, and the same, representing the case, and the same, representing the Charch of South and the same, representing the Charch of South and Eaglist Charches.

Pakenham Village Its Muddy their ends ernamented with coloured strips streets.

To the Editor of the C. P. Herald. Pakenham, May 6th, 1865.

In these central times we hear much all best their swords into plow-charce, and their poars into prunting holowers, seems to be a defence of the same than the same and unnecessary. We are no just of we never the same the same that the same that the same through the same and unnecessary. We are no just of same the same and unnecessary. We are no just of the same and unnecessary. We are no just of the same and unnecessary. We are no just of the same and unnecessary when men shall best their swords into plow-charce, and their spears into prunting holowers, seems to see defence of the same and unnecessary when men shall best their swords into plow-charce, and their spears into prunting holowers, seems to seem the same and unnecessary when men shall best their swords into plow the same and unnecessary when men shall best their swords into plow the same and unnecessary when men shall best their swords into plow the same and unnece large and disciplined army or navy, nor to commerce or agriculture, or progress in arts and science, but, above all, to the Bible.

How different was the confession of Napoleon Buonaparte, possessing, as he did, talents and power of the first order, and every eliment of human happiness within his reach, but all proved unreal, as the mirage of the desert Never rephans had mortal risen to the same breath, he absolves the Council, (who if I mistake not, are the directors in such cases) from all complicity in the thing I love, everything that belongs to me, is smitten," said he, "Heaven and mankind unite to afflict me."

Men and brethren, as Philanthropists, as Patriots and Christians, let us put our shoulder together to the wheel, in the great and the good work of training the young and rising race. They are immortal fellow

You see the admission has to come out. efforts of the teachers in communicating religious instruction. As one united phalanz let us all go forward in this labour of love. Though there may not be perfect uniformately in our ranks, still there may be that which is much better, and that which control come could never accomplish, is e., union without uniformity. Denominational differences may exist as distinct as the colours of the rainbow, yet, like these same culours was not expended, just because the villagers did not raise a sum equal thereto. This is the impression being upon the public mind that a murder was committed near the Pigeon-house fort, but up to last evening nothing had been eligited.

Antracite coal has been reduced to seven deligated to be in excellent.

We were always under the impression being upon the public mind that a murder was committed near the Pigeon-house fort, but up to last evening nothing had been eligited.

Antracite coal has been reduced to seven deligate a ton in Buffalo.

The Eric canal is reported to be in excelthat the Councillors of a Municipal Corpo-ration were the servants of the people, that they were appointed to transact the town-ship business, make bylaws, build bridges, open out roads, allot and direct the statute labour, &o., and if we are under a mistake in still thinking so, we hope to be set right on the matter.

Now, Sir, in view of the following facts, we should like to have your opinion on this question:—There is a certain amount of statute labour performed every year, under the guidance of overseers, appointed by the Council, to whom they report. Instead of the proper material for making good streets, olay is heaped up in vast quantities in turnpike style; and the same process is gone through one year after another. There is a quarrie within a quarter of a mile of the village, where stones and gravel in abundance, and well adapted for macadamizing purposes can be had, yet it never seems to be thought of by our overseers.

If you would give us your opinion on the

Yours, &c., CITIZEN.

We would advise the Pakenham people to The author of that little gem entitled "The Pearl of Days," written by a labourer's daughter, thus speaks of her early life:
"In glancing back on the years of my youth, I am convinced that in so far as my mind has been awakened to intelligence, and my character formed to virture, under God, I good beginning could be made this summer. -Ed. Herald.

The Jews still keep up the custom which

In the centre of the room was a structure In the centre of the room was a structure resembling a cushioned table. As we were rather late, the reading of the law was over, and the Rabbi stood at the head of the table reading or chanting some part of the service, in Hebrew, he was occasionally

After the sermon was finished, the mon otonens chapting was again resumed, and constituted the closing part of the service. It is ead to reflect that God's chosen people, they to whom so many mercies were shown, for whom so much was done, and to whom the Saviour was first revealed, should whom the Saviour was heat revealed, should still refuse to accept Jesus of Nazareth, as the Christ, and still keep up the rites enjoined in the Old Testament Scriptures, unable to see that "old things have passed away, and all things are become new". But it is cheering to see, that light is beginning to break in upon their darkened under standings, and may it not be long before they acknowledge Jesus as the promised Saviour.

shoulder together to the wheel, in the great and the good work of training the young and rising race. They are immortal fellow travelers, made in the likeness of God, capable of knowing, of loving and serving and enjoying him for ever; capable of elimbing the heighths of knowledge and experience when suns and systems have undergone their destined catastrophes. Tenants they are either of heaven or hell, to all eternity. We are influencing these minds every day, for good or evil, both the future character of our offspring and country will much depend upon cur own character and conduct of the proposition of the great when he becomes a little serious, for to deny it would be worse than folly. And then arises the question, somewhere from the profound depths of his questionable brain, "Who is to be blamed for this state of things?" Listen ye wise men of Pakeaham —freeholders and householders—to the answer that simultaneously merges up from the same obscure corner, "Certainly not the found at some distance on the sea when reduced the same obscure corner, "Certainly not the found at some distance on the sea wall lead-doubtful fact by saying that "a few years ago they made a grapt of £25, provided the A DUBLIN MYSTERY.-Dublin has at ago they made a grant of £25, provided the the vest torn, evidently with violence, whilst villagers would raise a like sum, but fairing the knot was literally pulled off the necktic.

The keeper was last seen on Saturday night the Union Sunday School institution by their co-operation in encouraging the child ren in attendance, and in following up the efforts of the teachers in communicating red did not raise a sum equal thereto. This is

The Eric canal is reported to be in excel-lent order throughout, and navigation is en-tirely unobstructed.

On Friday night, says the Chatham "Planet," Peter Simpson, who resided in Tilbury East, was struck down and killed by lightning.

Robert S. Jordan and James Jordan were committed for trial at Kingston, on Thurs-day, for assaulting James Campbell, a few

The Kingston papers state that an American attempted to pass two $5 counterfeit bills on the Commercial Bank of Canada at the Railway Station on Saturday last. He proceeded castwards.

purposes can be had, yet it never seems to be thought of by our overseers.

If you would give us your opinion on the case, in your next issue, you would confer a favour on a number in this place. More anon.

A gentleman, unknown took a cab at Dublin, on Thursday, and ordered the driver to convey him to a neighbouring village. When the driver pulled up he found that his fare had committed suicide, by cutting his throat with a resor.

A Canadian paper mentions that the coins of the United States are in future to bear the motto, "In God we trust." This is perhaps as near to our "Dieu et m Droit" as it might be thought well to go.

A correspondent writing from Seville, says:—"We visited the Royal Cigar Manufactury: there were 5,000 women working in the manufatory and 5,000 erinclines hung up; also were scattered ab out 2,540 babies."

doubties, "wridence in the bares of millioning deposits, January a speech, delivered gentlemen, shown has been conducted gentlemen, shown