Two carloads of raw silk, brought by the steamer "Batavia" from China, consigned to eastern parties, reached Ottawa on Monday, crossing the continent in six days.

NATURAL gas well No. 2, in Essex, has been successfully tubed and capped, and it will be piped into Kingsville as soon as possible. The vein was struck at a depth of 1,024 feet.

We learn from a Western exchange that the American Woman's Canning Company has been incorporated at Chicago with $100,000 capital. The principal mover of the concern is Miss Amanda Jones, who has discovered a new canning process. The fact that no men will be admitted into the company adds to its eccentricity.

It is the intention, we understand, of Bell & Co., Guelph, to exhibit their organs and pianos at the Jamaica Exhibition. Their representative, Mr. D. Allan, jr., will leave with a consignment of their products about 1st September. He will afterwards make a trip through the West India Islands, establishing agencies of the company in all the important centres.

VIENNA, Port Burwell, Bayham and Houghton people are bound to have a railway. So says the London Free Press, but does not tell us where it is intended to run or with what road to connect. Presumably it is from Port Burwell northward and eastward. It is proposed to get from Bayham $35,000, also smaller amounts from Vienna, Houghton and Malahide and Tilsonburg.

JOHN HENDRY, formerly a policeman in this city, who carried on quite a business, known as the Hendry Express Co., has assigned. His assets are chiefly composed of horses, wagons, etc.—Other assignments are those of J. T. Swinton, merchant, Niagara; Spencer & Wood, contractors, and Chris. Wagner, planing mills. Both these are in Toronto.
