Gazette

It was announced this week by Matt Epstein, editor-in-chief of the Dalhousie Gazette, that the Gazette will take part in all fields of competition open to it as regards Canadian University Press judging competition. This includes the Southam, Jacques Breau and the Bracken trophies.

TROPHIES

The Southam trophy competition is mainly for those college newspapers who publish more than two copies weekly such as McGill, Toronto Varsity and U.B.C. Last year this award was won by the Toronto Varsity newspaper.

College newspapers publishing two or less editions a week are eligible for the Jacques Breau trophy. The Western Gazette of London University falls in this class making it a tough competition since they have a top journa-listic school and a high allotment of money on which to publish their newspaper. Last year the trophy was won by the Western Gazette with Acadia's Athenaeum coming

All college newspapers are eligible for the Bracken trophy which is awarded on the basis of general editorial excellence. Le Cariban of La Valle University in Quebec City was successful in gaining this award last year.

It was felt that the work, preparation, and interest shown by staffers, the student body, and the general public as well as the favorable reception with which the paper has been received warrants the decision to enter not only the to reach to higher limits.

A.R.C.U.P.

The Maritime College newspapers, as a result of the Atlantic Regional Conference at Acadia, are urging the establishment of a third classification. This class, if established would be open to those newspapers publishing less than twice a week and having an advertised enrollment of less than 1800. This would be to the advantage of the smaller college papers tage of the smaller college papers who haven't journalistic schools and whose allotment isn't as high as some of the newspapers that they formerly had to participate against in the Jacques Breau competition. Should this recommenda-tion be put into effect at the Na-tional Conference, the R. J. Rankin trophy would be available for this

Top Canadian journalists representing various sections of Canada comprise the board of judges. The results are announced at the National Canadian University Press Conference slated for Quebec City immediately after Christmas.

CROWDS CHEER "IT'S A STEAL"

"It's A Steal", the gay and sparkling revue presented by the Dalhousie Glee and Dramatic Society was a whopping success. Crowds of about 1200 saw this revue under the direction of Graham Day and Dave Murray. A mass robbery employ approximately 1500 full of musical numbers and skits thrilled capacity audiences in paper has been received warrants the decision to enter not only the Dalhousie Gazette's own class but ed all over the world at 50 or 60 and without the awkward pauses of former years. The reand without the awkward pauses of former years. The result: a $500.00 profit for D.G.D.S.

ORIGINAL CHORUS

Interspersed throughout the show were a great variety of songs by the gaily-clad chorus of thirty, led by Graham Day and accompanied by Coleen Ashworth. Except for Dave Murray's original opening chorus, borrowed in fact from 14 composers, most of the tunes were classic favorites stolen from the musical comedy field, from such Broadway hits as Carousel.

Two talented newscomers to Dalhousie's musical circles, senior Anne Stacey and freshette Judy Wilson, won the hearts of the audience with their respective solo

Meds Plan Banquet

The annual fall social function of the Dalhousie Medical Society, this year in the form of a banquet, will be held at the Lord Nelson Hotel on Thursday, December 1 at 6:30

During the past several years there has been some experimentation in an effort to find a fall event which would meet with the ap-proval of the majority of medical students. At the last meeting of the society it was decided that this year a banquet would be held.

The entertainment committee has numbers. Marlene Mathews sang several songs in her gay and energetc style; other soloists included Diane Eager, Dave Peel, Graham Day and Dave Murray, who gave a hilarious rendition of "Your Hand in Mine".

Directed by Karine Anderson and Marilla Merritt, 13 lovely danand Marilla Merritt, 13 lovely dancers presented several numbers, including the favorites "How to be Very, Very Popular" and "Something's Gotta Give". The matchless team of Lane and Brown were back again this year, and danced to Don Warner's "Invitation". Choreography for this dance was created by Dave Brown. Especially appealing to the audience was the rollicking 'Lizzie Bordon' number from 'New Faces' with Margo Williams as Lizzie with her wildly swinging axe.

THREE DAVES

Eight hilarious skits, parodies stolen from radio, television and the movies, were aptly presented by Dal professionals as the three Daves — Murray, Brown and Peel; Graeme Nicholson, Brenda Murphy, Mary Patterson and Elise Lane. These included digs at Cecil B. de Mille's biblical movies, Canadian art, dentists, birdwatchers, and channel swimmers. The favorite seemed to be "The Price of Inno-cence", a skilful reproduction of a silent movie by Dave Brown, Mary Patterson, Graeme Nicholson, and Brenda Murphy. Make-up for this skit was very effective, and many favorable comments were made on Dave Murray's piano accompaniment.

Hear Hicks

Nova Scotia's Premier, Henry D. Hicks, was the guest of the Dal Liberals at their regular meeting last Thursday. The first public man to come to Dal this year and discuss his views openly with the students, Mr. Hicks spoke encouragingly for the future of Nova Scotia and the other Maritime Provinces.

EXECUTIVE

Preceding the arrival of the Premier, a short business meeting was held at which the executive for the coming year was elected. The following are the officers for

Pres.—Thomas MacQuarrie Vice-Pres.—(Membership) Leslie Bryan Vice-Pres.—(Organization) Hugh Dunlop Secretary-Treasure-Ellen Kelly

Following the election, Premier Hicks suggested that instead of making a speech he answer any questions the students wanted to ask. This idea was readily accepted and a lively question and answer proposed or product of the students was readily accepted. wer period ensued.

TAXES

In reply to a question on the Federal-Provincial Conference this fall, the Premier said that Nova All enquiries, requests for application forms, applications and correspondence should be addressed under the current tax-rental agreement. In fact the Province might Scotia would do as well under the new scheme presented by the Federal Government as it now does even do better, he added. Elaboraeven do better, he added. Elaborating further on the economic outlook, Mr. Hicks replied that he could not forsee the effects of the St. Laurent Seaway on Nova Scotia. A study of this complicated problem is being made for the Nova Scotia Government by Professor R. S. Cumming of Dal's Commerce Department.

Premier Hicks

When questioned whether his government was planning to increase its aid to Maritime Universities, Premier Hicks stated that due to the great increase in public school education he did not think operation cleanup
