

The Story of Canada's Industrial Expansion

Told in a Series of Short, Well-Illustrated Articles.

A Remarkable Record

Not only has there been Notable Progress during the past Ten Years, but even through recent Years of Depression this Progress has continued in a Remarkable Way, giving good ground for Encouragement and providing a Cheerful Outlook for the Current Year.

Read the Evidence in these Articles on

New Plants and Plant Extensions and Developments in the Past Decade

New Industries Established in Canada in the Past 4 Years

New Products and Goods in Which There Have Been Marked Developments

Beneficial Effects of the Empire Trade Pacts on Trade Within the Empire

Striking Progress in the Chemical, Textile, Boot and Shoe, Base Metals and
Other Industries

Also Numerous Shorter Articles on Similar Topics.

Reprinted from Industrial Canada, January, 1935.
Published by the Canadian Manufacturers Association Inc.

MEIGHEN PAPERS, Series 5 (M.G. 26, I, Volume 175)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA