Ottawa, December 6, 1917.

Rev. Sir,-

I beg to advise you that the Department has decided to send eighteen children from the Caughnawaga Reserve to the Spanish River Industrial School. Mr. MacKenzie of this Department will take these children up from Montreal on the GOR train on the night of Tuesday, the 18th instant, and I have to, ask you to be good enough to make arrangements to meet them at the station on the Wednesday.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Rev. Eug. A. Papineau,
Principal,
Spanish River Industrial School,
