

Ottawa, March 7th., 1918.

Dear Mrs. Matheson,-

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 26th ultimo, in which you state that you are prepared to sell the building therein referred to at Onion Lake to the Department for use as a hospital; and in reply I am directed to inform you that after careful consideration of the matter, the Department does not feel disposed to make the purchase.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Mrs. E. B. Matheson, M.D.,
Onion Lake, Sask.
