

weekly letters from Mother indicate that she is busy and happy in Denver and getting along well. We are planning to drive out there in June if I can manage to get enough time away to make a trip of sufficient duration to be worthwhile. I believe I mentioned previously that we got delivery of our new car a couple achievements as represented by the King's award of the order of merit. We do hope that you found the trip a pleasant one and not too tiring in its arduous duties and responsibilities.

 We would like to thank you, too, for the very welcome batch of vitamin capsules sent to us before your departure for the wedding.
