

BY-LAW No. X.

For the Protection of Horses and other Animals.

1. The owners or harbourers of dogs shall restrain the same from running at large at night, and it shall be lawful for any person to kill and destroy any dog so running at large.

2. In case of any animal being killed or injured by any dog or dogs upon the said Reserve, it shall be the duty of the owner or owners of any such dog or dogs to forthwith kill and destroy said dogs, and in case he or she refuses so to do, the owner shall be liable to a fine or penalty as provided by By-law No. XI.

3. The owner of any sheep, horses, cattle or other animals which shall have been killed or injured by dogs shall apply to the owner of such dog or dogs, for payment of the amount of loss he thinks he has sustained by such dog or dogs, and in case the owner of such dog or dogs shall refuse to pay such damages or thinks the amount unreasonable, the case shall be left to arbitration to be composed of one arbitrator for the owner of the dog or dogs, one for the party whose property has been destroyed or injured, and the third arbitrator shall be appointed by the Council of the Band, the decision of the arbitrators to be final, and the amount awarded may be collected under provisions of By-law No. XI.

BY-LAW No. XI.

For the Imposition of Punishment by Fine or Penalty or by Imprisonment, or both, for Infraction of the Foregoing By-laws.

1. That in each and every case under said by-laws where a penalty is not specially imposed, any person or persons found guilty of any infraction of any such by-law, or any part or portion thereof, shall be subject to a fine or penalty of not less than one nor more than thirty dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, or to both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the convicting Justice of the Peace or Indian Agent, and in case the person so found guilty is a member of the Band, the said penalty may be deducted from their interest or annuity money.

2. The proceedings for the imposition of such fines and imprisonment to be taken in the usual way before an Indian Agent or Justice of the Peace, having jurisdiction in the premises.

BY-LAW No. XII.

As to School Management.

1. Three Trustees shall be appointed by the Council for the school, who shall hold office for three years.

2. The Council shall as heretofore appoint at its first meeting in each year one Trustee, the retiring Trustee being eligible for re-appointment.

3. Any adult male member of the Band of good moral character may be appointed a Trustee.

4. In case of a vacancy by death or otherwise, the Chief Councillor shall call a Council as soon as convenient, when a member shall be appointed as Trustee in succession, who shall hold office for the unfinished term.

5. Duties and powers of Trustees:—

(1) To take charge of all school property of the Band, subject, however, to the orders of the Council.

(2) To repair, warm and furnish the school and keep in order its furniture, appendages and land inclosures, provided such repairs or furnishings shall not exceed the sum of ten dollars, without first obtaining the approval of the Council.

(3) To permit and encourage all members of the Band between the ages of five and seventeen years to attend the school free of charge so long as they conform to the by-laws.
