GOSSIP.

There is one woman poet in New York who will read proof carefully until the edge of a recent error wears off. She spent two days on a touching poem, the pivotal line of which read:

"My soul is a lighthouse keeper."

When the printer finished with it the line read:

"My soul is a light housekeeper."

A good story is told of an old couple, who frequently got into argument upon religious subjects. The old gentleman contended that the Bible was almost wholly about men, and ignored women. His wife took strong ground against this view, but finally, for the sake of peace, allowed her husband to have the last word.

"You know I am right, Mary," he concluded, "and you just argue the matter to be contrary."

After a while Mary said: "John, I must confess you are right. The Scripture writers knew a great deal about men, much more than they did about women, and one passage that has just occurred to me convinces me that the Bible was really written more for men than women."

"Of course it was," replied John, almost rapturously, "and you knew it all the time; but, Mary, what was the verse that has brought you to agree with me?"

"It was written by the wisest of all the old Scripture writers, John."

"Yes, yes, but was it, Mary?"

"It is this, John, and remember it was written by the—"

"Oh, but the verse!"

"Well, John, it is this: 'All men are liars.'"

A new Hampshire judge, says Lippincott's Magazine, has in his possession the following letter, sent to him by an old farmer who had been notified that he had been drawn as a juror for a certain term of court:

"Dear Judge,—I got your letter tellin' me to come to Manchester an' do dooty on the jury an' I rite you these fue lines to let you know that you'll have to git someone else fer it ain't so I kin leave home now. I got to do some butcherin' an' sort over a lot of apples just about the time the jury will be settin' in your Court. Si Jackman of this town says that he would as soon as not go, fer he ain't nothin' else to do jess now, so you better send fer him. I hate the worst way not to oblige you, but it ain't so I kin at present. Ennyway I ain't much on law, never havin' been a jooryman 'ceptin' when old Bud Stiles got killed by the cars here some years ago when I was one that set on the bobby with the koroner. So you better send fer Si Jackman, for he has got some kin in Manchester he wants to visit ennyhow, an' he'd be willin' to go fer his carfare there an' back. Ancer lack if you want Si."

Messrs. D. C. Flatt & Son, Millgrove, Ont., who advertise in this paper Large English Yorkshire hogs, write:

"We are now booking orders for spring pigs got by three as good if not the best boars in America. Two of them are first-prize and silver medal winners at Toronto. Summer Hill Duke of York, we claim, is the best boar to-day we ever owned, both as an individual and a stock-getter. He weighs over 800 lbs., and is as smooth as it is possible to get a hog. Expert judges that have recently seen him pronounce him a model of the breed. Summer Hill Slasher is another hog that will be heard from at the fairs next year. He is a young hog with great promise. He has substance and quality equal to anything in the herd. Among the sows we have bred to these are a number of our prize-winners at Toronto and London. We should be able to supply our customers with winners for the fairs next fall. Parties wanting something good from March and April litters should write us for particulars. Prices are reasonable. We are also offering about one hundred pigs of both sex, now about three months old, extra quality and breeding, and prices right."

Necessity of Sleep As a Restorer.

The Vitality Consumed During Waking Hours Must be Replaced During Sleep Otherwise Collapse.

Sleep is more essential to life than food.

Men have lived for weeks without food, whereas a few days without sleep and man becomes a raving maniac—a mental and physical wreck.

Nights of sleeplessness tell of a feeble and depleted nervous system, of approaching nervous prostration or paralysis.

The use of opiates merely gives temporary relief, and actually hastens the collapse of the nervous system.

The regular and persistent use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will form new, rich blood, create new nerve force and thoroughly cure sleeplessness and nervous exhaustion.

By keeping a record of your increase in weight while using this great food cure you can be certain that new, firm flesh and tissue is being added to the body. You will feel the benefit in every organ.

Mrs. S. Derocher, 495 Bethune Street, Peterboro, Ont., states: "I was troubled a great deal with nervousness and sleeplessness, and began a treatment with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I can say for a certainty that it is a splendid medicine, for besides steadying my nerves, it built up my system wonderfully and enabled me to rest and sleep well. We have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Ointment in our family for years and consider them excellent. For skin diseases, I think the Ointment cannot be equalled, and the Pills are a most satisfactory laxative."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous recipe-book author, are on every box.
