

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

To the Editor of the Wesleyan.

DIED July 15th, at Kenneth-Cook, in the Newport Circuit; PHIBE WILCOX, aged eighty years.

She was one of the first Methodists in this part of the Province. About forty-seven years since, she was awakened to a sense of her lost state, under a sermon preached by the late Rev. John Mann; and shortly afterwards found peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. She and her husband united themselves to the then, infant Methodist Society, of which they both continued exemplary members until death. Her husband, Stephen Wilcox, was called to his reward several years since. From the time Mrs. Wilcox was converted to God, she never lost a sense of her acceptance. Feeling the love of God shed abroad in her heart, she, as the necessary result thereof, loved him, his people, and his cause. Her house was a home for the Wesleyan ministers; and under her roof they frequently expounded the word of life to the listening throngs.

She was warmly, and from principle, attached to Methodism. She firmly believed its doctrines, and felt it her highest privilege, to attend those religious ordinances, which gives Methodism such a prominence among the Christian churches.

During her last illness she enjoyed much of the Divine presence; she expressed her full confidence in the mercy of God, and in the end, she peacefully resigned her happy spirit into the hands of her Heavenly Father; and thus exchanged a world of sorrow, for an abode of everlasting bliss.

WILLIAM WILSON.

THE Subscribers beg leave to acquaint their friends and the Public, that they have received their Stock of ENGLISH LEATHER, and a variety of other articles in their line, suitable for the summer season, consisting of—

Black and white Satin, black and a variety of fancy colored Prunellas to suit dresses, Morocco and kid and various colored Roans, black and buff doe skins, dog skins, &c., which they will make up and sell for Cash at their usual low prices. Their custom work will be found not inferior to any made in Halifax.

L. & H. cannot allow this opportunity to pass without expressing their gratitude for the exceeding liberal patronage they have received hitherto, which has been equal to their utmost expectations, and this circumstance affords them peculiar satisfaction, for thus they have been instrumental in retaining and putting in circulation many hundreds of pounds within the province, which would otherwise have been exported to Great Britain and elsewhere, never to visit our shores again. Every effort is being made, which the infancy of their establishment will admit, to produce work at prices corresponding to those of imported Boots and Shoes, and if sufficient patronage be continued, the Halifax Boot and Shoe Manufactory will be able to defy foreign competition.

ESSAY ON CHRISTIAN MISSIONS.
PRIZE OF TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS, &c.

DURING the last forty years, many excellent Sermons, Tracts, and Pamphlets, have appeared on the subject of Missions to the Heathen; but the want of a comprehensive work, embracing all the topics directly and collaterally involved in the general theme, has long been felt and very generally acknowledged. It has occurred to a few friends of the Missionary enterprise in Scotland that this desideratum in our Christian literature might be supplied by means of friendly competition, were the theme of Missions proposed as the subject of a Prize Essay. Dispensing, for the present, with the consideration of the causes that may instrumentally have retarded the progress of Christianity throughout the world, and with the investigation of the most approved methods of practically conducting Missions abroad, a PRIZE OF TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered for the best Essay, and another PRIZE OF FIFTY GUINEAS for the second best Essay on "The Duty, Privilege, and Encouragement of Christians to send the Gospel of Salvation to the unenlightened Nations of the Earth." The grand object of Missions, viz., the regeneration of a lost world through the all-sufficient atonement of the Lord our Righteousness and the renewing of the Holy Ghost, must be distinctly exhibited and vindicated from the Sacred Scriptures. The Duty, Privilege, &c. must be illustrated as enjoined or sanctioned by Divine commands, Evangelical motives, and explicit prophecies, as well as recommended by a review of the beneficial effects of Christianity on the civilization of the world, and the reflex influence of the Missionary enterprise in improving the spiritual tone and condition of the Returned Christian. Under the head of Duty, must be comprehended the obligation to advance the kingdom of the Redeemer by means of prayer, constant pecuniary contribution, and personal services. Answers must also be furnished to all the most plausible objections that have from time to time been urged against the cause of Missions.

In order at once to demonstrate the Catholicity of the present design, and inspire universal confidence in the rectitude of the design, the following Gentlemen have been requested, and have kindly consented, to become adjudicators, viz.:

The Rev. David Welsh, D.D., Professor of Church History in the University of Edinburgh.
The Rev. Ralph Wardlaw, D.D., Glasgow.
The Rev. Henry Melville, B.D., Camberwall, late Fellow and Tutor of St. Peter's College, Cambridge.
The Rev. Jabez Bunting, D.D., President of the Wesleyan Conference, London.
The Rev. Thomas S. Crisp, President of the Baptist College, Bristol.

The Essays will be received on or before 1st June, 1838, by the Secretaries of the Church of England, London, Baptist, and Wesleyan Missionary Societies, at the respective Mission Houses in London, and by the Rev. Dr. Brunton, Convener, or Rev. Dr. Gordon, Secretary of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland's Committee for Foreign Missions, Edinburgh. Each must be accompanied with a sealed letter, enclosing the name and address of the author—the Letter and Essay bearing some motto or superscription common to both. No Essay need be forwarded which is not written or copied in a clear, distinct, legible hand. The Adjudicators are expected to make their decision known on or before 1st June, 1840, after which date the Essays will be returned, on proper application at the several Offices where they were originally left, with the Letters unopened except those accompanying the successful Treatises. Half of the profits arising from the sale of the Copyright of the Essay, to which the Prize of Two Hundred Guineas shall be awarded, to be given to the Author, the other half to be applied to such object, promotive of the great cause of Missions, as the Contributors to the present Prize may deem most expedient.
