The Rev. W. H. Jenkins, who for the past four years has been priest-in-charge of St. Matthew's, Possilpark, Glasgow, was presented, on leaving there for a new sphere of work, at St. Columba's Clydebank, by the members of St. Matthew's congregation with a dining-room clock in a handsome oak case, which bore a suitable inscription.

At the dedication festival at Clumber Church—the Duke of Newcastle's private miniature cathedral—on a recent Sunday, Canon Mason preached his last sermon in Great Britain. He has volunteered for missionary work in Kaffraria. Clumber Church is a stately building, and cost over £40,000. In the Lady Chapel are valuable paintings by Correggio and Tintoretto. The choir stalls are walnut and cedar, the sanctuary is paved with black and white marble, and the high altar is of white alabaster.
