HYDRO-RADIAL SITUATION

(Special to The Ontario)

Toronto, March 28.—For some reason or other the Conservative Government in Ontario is not very keen on the project of Hydro Radials. During the recent debate on the subject in the House, induced by the resolution of Thomas Marshall, Liberal member for Monck, calling for Federal Government subsidy for Ontario Hydro Radials, the Government members showed absolutely no enthusiasm. By an amendment in Ottawa at the time but the other two members of the Hydro Electric Commission, Hon. Colonel Henrich and W. K. McKinnagh, at speeches during the whole debate, although they were urged to express an opinion. It looks, therefore, that the rumors of cleavage between Beck and his colleagues in his Commission, which have been current for some time, have at last some foundation.

The final working of the resolution as amended by J. A. Ellis, Conservative member for West Ottawa, was weaker than the original, but was accepted unanimously by both Government and Opposition. It was the latter, however, who took the initiative in regard to Hydro Radials this year, as they also did last year.

Mr. Rowell has submitted an important point—the necessity of having the fullest data on hand in regard to the territory and transportation prospects before Hydro Radials are built in various parts of the Province. In this work the municipalities can cooperate most effectively with the Commission in supplying and gathering together complete information and statistics.

The toast list was within the bounds of the societies and church work. Toasts were made in honor of Rev. W. G. Clarke, pastor; Mr. J. E. Watson, superintendent; Mr. C. J. Hines, teacher of the Apex Club, and Miss Watson, teacher of the Baraca Club. The musical and literary program was interspersed with several promenade which enlivened the proceedings.

IS A DEAD HORSE A HORSE?

This is the question that came up before Judge Burns at the Deloro Sessions this week when Thos. Potts, who defended his own case, charged William A. Longmuir, of Deloro, with selling him a dead horse without stating that the horse was in such condition. Mr. C. T. Hines acted as counsel for the defence.

It appears that on the night of March 9th, Thos. Potts, Longmuir, having of the horse and also of Potts' desire to trade the previous evening, spoke to Potts on the telephone the next morning and stated that he had bought Jones' horse (which he had for $50) and that he was willing to trade. After a good deal of argument over the price, it was settled that Potts should give his horse and $2 for Longmuir's white mare. The terms of the purchase being "sight and unseen."

Potts drove round for the white mare and accidentally (it met Longmuir on the way, and the $2 was paid over, and Potts on arrival at the barn found the mare to be dead.

The judge, who appeared to have been squared by both parties, (and very liberally by appearances) reserved his judgment until further legal evidence could be obtained.—Mar more Herald.

Fought the Fire.

The home of Messrs. Caniff and Wilfred Haight, Hallowell, was the scene of a fire on Thursday of last week. The building is a large terrace and fire started in the kitchen, and when discovered had gained considerable headway. The brothers fought the flames desperately. The neighbors were called over the phone and soon about 50 were battling with the fiery element, which threatened to consume the building. By desperate efforts the flames were subdued, but not before considerable damage was done to the room and furnishings in which it started.—Pictou Times.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

Half a century ago, before Confederation, they were on sale in nearly every drug or general store in the Canada of that day, and were the recognized cure in thousands of homes for Constipation, Indigestion, Biliousness, Rheumatism and Kidney and Liver Troubles. Today they are just as effective, just as reliable as ever, and nothing better has yet been devised to

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism untrained for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from the trial of strength, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes where once children have been born, the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham, Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

THE ANTI-SMOKE ENTERTAINMENT

Monday night while walking on one of our main city thoroughfares and meeting the throngs of young people issuing from one of the popular amusement resorts. We could not avoid considering the occupation of a young man as a dead fish can be kept alive by one who swims against it. Do our boys realize the stream they are floating on weathered in clouds of tobacco smoke. Here are General Baden-Powell, a famous boy scout, and what he looks like a little fool, and what he smokes for fear of other fellows laughing at him he shows that he is a coward as well as a fool.

We also considered when seeing the smokers how timely and "Ys" in act as well as name was the unique program that is to be presented in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium Friday night, March 27th. When about fifty young people will present an uncommon entertainment of songs, drills, dialogues and monologues with its key-note, anti-smoke.

Elizabeth Ketchum's country story will be the setting of many humorous experiences. It is worth hearing and especially seeing. Some of the participants are very prominent in musical circles.

Come one and all and unite with the "Ys" in the Y. M. C. A. hall. When about fifty young people will present an uncommon entertainment of songs, drills, dialogues and monologues with its key-note, anti-smoke.

The Literary Digest says "Recent scientific investigation shows that the nicotine of the cigarette is far less virulent than the carbonic oxide and other products of its combustion which enters the blood through the lungs. It is acrolein that makes the smoke irritating. The constant irritation of the nervous system causes the habit of smoking to concentrate thought. The digest also tells how enforcing the law restricting the minors made a difference in one district in Chicago of 8,500 less cigarettes sold in one day. Look for further particulars of "Ys" concert in another column.

COME TO CHURCH

A concerted action of the christian ministers of the village of Brighton is about to be put forth to get the habitual non-church-goers to change their Sunday way of living, for an hour at least, and put in an appearance at a church service.

There is a great danger that if the people of our land do not resume the habit of going to church on Sunday, there will be but a little more or the future of the institutions of our country. The worldly rush for money and amusement has crowded church attendance into the background, in many cases, and entirely out of the lives of others. It is sad to think of the many who in this small centre of population never darken the door of a christian church. We reckon the life poor and incomplete which has no appreciation of beauty, no taste for poetry, no love for music, but infinitely meager and smaller is the life which has no sense of kinship to God, and from which the worshipful temper and attitude are forever lost. It is sad to think of the universal experience of the best part of mankind proves that private worship, (if it exists in the non-church-goer) is not enough, that our finest feelings are as well as a private aspiration; that the individual life is not sufficient of itself; and that to reach the best it must be joined to other lives; that religion is a social function as well as a private aspiration; that the tie which binds us to God binds us to all the children of God. Together meet in His name—To gether we should assemble ourselves—Together to win and hold the key of the Kingdom—Together to pray the prevailing prayer.

Why not go to church?—for it is a place of social enjoyment. The church is beautiful—the new comfortable; there is a pleasant interchange with friends before and after the service, and everybody welcomed. Why not go to church when it is the place where the worshiper finds God—the God of hope who is disengaged from the God of grief when he is in sorrow—a forgiving God when he is sinned—the God whose benediction gives peace when he comes out of life's storm with a heavy heart. When he is kept from church he misses it. When he goes to church he delights in it.

May the efforts of those who seek to get the non-church-goers to come to church be successful, and add to the character of the children. When life is young and the mind easily influenced by every new impression the importance of church attendance, where Christ is present, and the real life that operates the dream and is literally ground off. Only the thumb remains. He was brought to Bancroft where Dr. Embury dressed the injured member and made him as comfortable as possible. No blame is attached to anyone as the accident occurred in the basement of the mill, and the boy was alone at the time.—Bancroft Times.

I OWE MY LIFE TO "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

They Did Me More Good Than All Other Treatments Combined

Mrs. H. S. WILLIAMS

PALMERSTON, ONT., June 20th, 1913. "I really believe that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives'. Ever since childhood I have been under the care of physicians and have been paying doctors' bills. I was so sick and worn out that people on the street often asked me if I thought I could get along without help. The same old stomach trouble and distressing headaches nearly drove me wild. Some time ago I got a box of 'Fruit-a-tives' and the first box did me good. My husband was delighted and advised a continuation of their use. 'Fruit-a-tives' completely cured me. Today, I am feeling fine, and a physician meeting me on the street, noticed my improved appearance and asked me the reason. I replied, 'I am taking 'Fruit-a-tives'. He said, 'Well, if 'Fruit-a-tives' are making you look so well, go ahead and take them. They are doing more for you than I can'.
