A SOCIETY EVENT HOPEWELL HILL, Albert Co., N 3., Dec. 30 .- The Albert County druggists are this week receiving the atention of the Scott Act authorities two of them being up today before Magistrate E. E. Peck for violation of the law. One of the defendants paid up the regular fine without having his case come to trial and the other case goes over for one week for the magistrate's decision. In the latter case it is understood there was terrible technical violation but the defendant claims he acted in good faith. Hon. C. J. Osman and Mrs. Osman, of Hillsboro, gave a reception this afternoon in honor of Lt.-Gov. Tweedie and Mrs. Tweedle, who have been the guests of ex-speaker and Mrs. Osman during the past week. The reception lasted from four to six and a large number took advantage of the occasion to pay their respects to the Lieutenant Fovernor and his lady.

The Roman Catholic bazaar, which as been continued for three nights at Albert under the direction of Rev. Father Lochary, priest-in-charge of the Albert Mission, was concluded this evening, a very large gathering being present. The different attractions of bazaar have been well patronized. The proceeds during the three nights amounted to about six hundred dollars. The bazaar throughout has been characterized by good management and excellent decorum among the large crowd and Father Lochary and his assistants are much pleased with the success attained. The receipts go towards the building fund of the new Roman Catholic church at Riverside, now in course of construction.
