THE FARMERSVILLE REPORTER.

NEWS CLIPPINGS.

What We See in Looking Over Our Exchanges.

Comely girls of marriageable age are sold in Yokohama for $16 each.

An insane woman in Castle Garden Sunday mounted a box and tried to auction off her baby.

A famous veterinary surgeon was summoned by telegram to Scotland a few days ago by a well known lady to meet the local adviser in consultation on the case of her favorite pug. He had to travel nearly 500 miles to reach his destination.

Horseshoes made entirely of the horns of sheep have been tested of late in Lyons, France. Horses shod with them have been driven over a variety of pavements, at a rapid pace without slipping. They are more expensive than the ordinary iron horseshoes, but they are more durable and more readily adapt themselves to the changing size and shape of a horse's hoofs.

In the city of Canton, China, which has a population of 1,500,000, there is not a newspaper of any kind.

Serious riots have occurred in the mining districts of Hocking Valley, Ohio. Owing to disagreements between the mine owners and the miners 10,000 men are idle, and are on the road to starvation. On Saturday night the miners made an attack on the guards of one of the mines, and in the collision which ensued several men were killed and wounded.

There is tremendous excitement over the wholesale spread of hydrophobia on a plantation at Enfauila, Ala. Negroes recently ate a hop that had been bitten by a mad dog, and 29 of them are now suffering from a mild form of hydrophobia. A mule was also bitten by the dog, and it is reported that the whole herd are now affected. Many of them have leaped the fences and will doubtless spread the disease.

As a variety of reports have been circulated as to the probable date of the issue of the revised edition of the Old Testament, it may be well to state that no copies are likely to be in the hands of the public until the spring of 1885 is well advanced, and that it is more probable that the issue will not take place until midsummer. As in case of the revised New Testament, the book will be published simultaneously by the two presses at Oxford and Cambridge.

A magnificent water spout was seen on the St. Lawrence at Port Neuf, during a severe thunder storm a day or two ago. It was fully formed and appeared like a lofty pillar extending from the clouds to the river, and afforded a spectacle seldom enjoyed except at sea. During its continuance it moved down the river upwards of two miles, when it parted opposite Point Platon, and the rain descended in torrents immediately afterwards to such an extent that from the village there appeared a vast number of heavy black lines joining the river, and the clouds where the water spout disappeared. The phenomenon lasted about three minutes, and was witnessed by a large number of persons.

A mastodon's remains have been found in Michigan.

Farmers in the Kingston district are talking of raising stock instead of grain.

Hanlan claimed a foul in his race with Beach, but he admits that he was beaten fairly.

A horrible story is told by Mr. Hasking regarding the burial of two men named M. Peterson, a Swede, aged 18, who died of typhoid fever at Port Arthur and J. Lawson, a laborer, aged 65, who died of dropsy. The bodies of both the unfortunate men, after being coffined, were taken to St. John's cemetery, but the person who undertook to dig the graves failed to carry out the job, but instead, left the coffins in the sun just inside the cemetery fence. In that condition they were found by the Rev. Mr. McMorine, rector of St. John's church, who came to town to look for assistance to complete the burial. Ald. Hasking, Mr. McMorine and two other gentlemen then set about digging the grave, which after several hours' hard work they accomplished, burying the corpses side by side. The gentlemen were all sick from the fearful stench coming from the bodies, but have recovered.

L. L. L.

The following is a sample of the many letters we receive for our Lamb's Lubricating Liniment, and shows to the public its fame is fast becoming known abroad as well as home. One bottle will convince the most incredulous of its wonderful curative powers:
LANCASTER, June 20th 1884.

Mr. J. P. Lamb,
DEAR SIR:—Please send me one dozen of your L. L. Liniment as soon as possible, as I intend going away soon and I want to take some with me. It is such a good medicine to keep in the house for almost every complaint or accident. We think it will cure almost anything, and have, as you know, used it a long time, always giving the best satisfaction.

Mother is troubled with the rheumatism and it always helps her and the only thing she ever got to give her relief. We would not be without it for a good deal and hope it may become widely known that it may give relief to many sufferers.

Yours truly,
ANNIE J. NICHOLSON.
