MUD—and more to follow.
COLD, frosty mornings these. Eh?
KINDLING wood wanted at this office. Dry cedar preferred.

At this season of the year the cider press must be preserved.—Texas Siftings.

CURIOSITY becomes a vice when it is only an itching to learn what is amiss respecting others.

MRS. HARVEY'S big Newfoundland dog turned up his toes one day last week. He was a capital watch dog.

THE G. T. R. section house has been greatly improved and made more comfortable of late. It was much needed.

FARMERS are holding their grain in anticipation of higher prices and business is reported dull in Western Ontario towns.

CHAS. E. PELTON, of Innerkip, Oxford county, has taken his old position on THE BEE staff. C. E. is a lightning type slinger.

CARPENTERS are at work finishing the interior of Ballantyne's new store. When completed it will be one of the finest business stands in the village. A splendid opening for some live, pushing business man.

AN exchange tells of a parson who had had a call from a little country parish to a large and wealthy one in a big city. He asked time for prayer and consideration. He did not feel sure of his flight. A month passed. Finally some one met his youngest son on the street. "How is it, Josiah," said his neighbor, "is your father going to B—?" "Well," answered the youngster, judiciously, "paw is still praying for light, but most of the things is packed."

AUTUMN LEAVES.—This is a glorious climate. Summer has ebbed away by such slow degrees that the foliage preserved much of its midsummer green until a few days ago, when it seemed to suddenly recollect itself and don the golden hue becoming the fall. Foliage in the suburbs never looked lovelier than now in its new found colors, well displayed by a genial sun. A suspicion of Indian summer is in the air, and if a man cannot be happy and glad these days he is a duffer.

AN exchange says:—The man who carefully looks after his business with reasonable profits has but to keep his good name and his goods before the public, through the agency of newspaper advertising, and he will have little to fear from competitors in business. But he may well be apprehensive of the future if he simply trusts to the past history of his house to keep and extend his trade. In these days of publicity and progress, business cannot be done in that way. The most successful business men to-day are the most persistent advertisers.

250 CHARGES.—If all that the petitioner in his bill of particulars, re North Perth election protest, alleges is correct, the only wonder is that Mr. Grieve had not a much larger majority than he had. The charges number 250, which include treating, paying travelling expenses of voters, or paying money or some other valuable consideration to voters to induce them to vote for the respondent. Mr. Grieve is personally charged with paying money to secure the votes of J. Millar, Mornington; John Hagarty, Logan, and Edward Hill, Elma. Sir Richard Cartwright, Wilfred Laurier, L. J. Seagrave, general manager G. T. R., W. Wainright, assistant passenger agent, and one Hanna, a Montreal detective, will be subpoenaed as necessary and material witnesses. The trial promises to be one of the most important of the many that are before the courts.—Advocate.

Six has many tools, but a lie is the handle which fits them all.

If you have anything to sell advertise it in THE BEE. Everybody reads it.

Mrs. A. ERSKINE and son, of Monkton, Sundayed with her daughter, Mrs. M. Harvey.

Our old friend, J. H. Gunther, and bride, of Listowel, spent Sunday with friends in the village.

Miss MOWAT, of Stratford, is announced to give a lecture on missions in the Presbyterian church in the near future.

Mrs. SCARLET returned to her home in Toronto last Saturday, after spending a couple of weeks visiting her father, J. W. McBain.

HARRY HALL, of this office, and Wilson Mitchell, took tickets for Detroit last week, and from there, it is presumed, they went to Texas.

THE Xmas turkey is living on the fat of the land these days. He will soon be called upon to offer himself up as a Thanksgiving sacrifice.

MR. O'BRIEN, of the Stratford Beacon, denies the rumor that he intends retiring from that paper. He says there was not the slightest grounds for the rumor.

A BENEFIT hop, in aid of F. W. Riley, an invalid, will take place in the Town Hall, Atwood, this (Friday) evening, Oct. 20th. Admission, 40c per couple. The object is a worthy one.

THE Stratford Beacon last week displayed lightning reportorial work in its lengthy verbatim report of the Whale murder case. The report occupied over seven columns of the Beacon.

EDWIN LEE, a student of Huron College, London, is supplying on the English church mission, here, until a permanent pastor is appointed. He is a young man of ability and promise.

Our footballers were defeated 1 to 0 by the Brussels club at the Brussels tournament on Saturday. We understand four of the Brussels players belonged to the Hurons, of Seaford.

THE practice nights for the cantata, "Queen Ester," will be on Thursday and Saturday evenings of each week hereafter, in the basement of the Presbyterian church. A few more male voices are wanted.

FARMERS report that the potato rot has set in in some places. A Beverly farmer says that air slacked lime freely distributed is a sure preventative. The proper proportion is to sprinkle over the potatoes one peck of lime to fifty bushels of potatoes.

"HERE lives a man that don't refuse to make and mend your boots and shoes. His leather is good, his work is quick; His profits are small but he gives no tick; But when he dies he fears no coils As he has saved so many soles." That man is Jim Ferguson.

Our local grain buyer, R. Anderson, is kept hustling these days buying grain and shelling out the "needful." Atwood market has a reputation second to none in this district for paying the highest price for grain. Our market report is thoroughly reliable, being corrected every Wednesday afternoon by Mr. Anderson.

In some remarks on the wealthy young men of the country, a writer in the October number of Wives and Daughters says: "Considering that very rich young men do not bear an enviable reputation for intellectual achievement, moral grandeur and loftiness of purpose, not to speak of common every day virtues like industry, integrity and sobriety, it is difficult to understand why the possession of one of them should be esteemed a piece of good fortune."

THE season has come when a man's temper is to be sorely tried; when the Christian graces he has acquired during the past twelve months are to suddenly vanish; when it will become exceedingly difficult for him to tell his experience in the class-meeting on Sunday morning; when his otherwise benign countenance will look like a cloud before a thunderstorm. Yes, this is the season when the man of the house has to wrestle with the stovepipes, and of course he will get mad and kick things about generally; he can't help it you know.

THE fall trade is looking up.

A DELICATE thought is a flower of the mind.

EVERY man's destiny lies in his own hands.

FEBRUARY, 1892, will have 26 days, in other words, 1892 will be a leap year.

THE seeds of our own punishment are sown the same time we commit sin.

THE evangelists, Revs. H. T. Crossly and J. E. Hunter, are holding services in Owen Sound.

THE kind of women who would make their husbands obeys and stand around are the kind of women who don't have any.

We regret that Wm. Zeran continues very poorly. Although over 80 years of age he has had, until recently, tolerably good health.

E. BROOKSHIRE, formerly of Atwood, has a tailoring establishment in Kirkton. He is a steady and exemplary young man.

THIS week will finish our big clearing sale. We have bargains yet in all lines. Don't fail to call and secure some.

NEW subscribers can get THE BEE from now to the end of 1892 for $1. Any person bringing us five new subscribers will receive THE BEE free.

THE King of Siam is attended by a body-guard composed exclusively of 4000 of the prettiest young women in his realm. He is evidently a "masher."

SUNDAY evening, in the Methodist church, service will begin at 6.30, instead of 7 o'clock, during the winter months, the change taking effect next Sunday evening.

REV. D. ROGERS goes to Galt for next Sabbath in the absence of Dr. Griffin, who will be in Brussels. Rev. R. Paul comes here, and will conduct services morning and evening.

REV. W. H. CLINE has tendered his resignation of Immanuel church, of Toronto, and the resignation has been accepted, to take effect not later than December 31. Mr. Cline was formerly pastor of the Baptist church, Atwood.

WEDDED.—On the 21st inst., J. A. Wilson, son of James Wilson, of this town, and Miss Clara Gordon, a former resident of Atwood, were united in marriage. They will make their future home in Nickel City, Algoma. Their many friends in this locality, including THE BEE, join in wishing them joy and prosperity in their new relationship.

THE Nickel City correspondent to the Sudbury Journal says:—The event of the week, here, was the marriage, on Wednesday night, of John A. Wilson, of this place, to Miss Clara Gordon, of Whitelash, both formerly of Atwood. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Rondeau, of Sudbury, at the residence of the bride's father, at Whitefish. Geo. U. Jackson assisted the groom through the trying ordeal, and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Gordon. A large number of the friends of both parties were present. The bride was tastefully dressed in a suit of Henrietta and silk with medallion collar, and the bridesmaid in white muslin. Shortly after the ceremony the happy couple came to Nickel City to begin their new life in their handsome cottage on the hillside here.

MR. MAGWOOD EXONERATED.—Those who counted on interesting and spicy developments in the trial last Monday of the protest against Thomas Magwood, M. P. P. for North Perth, are disappointed. The trial opened on Monday morning was only a matter of form, giving effect to the total abandonment which the Liberal managers have made of the petition against Mr. Magwood. Half an hour's formal proceedings ended the whole matter. The exoneration of Mr. Magwood is as complete as it could be made. Mr. McPherson, counsel for petitioner, distinctly says he has investigated all the charges against Mr. Magwood and finds that not a single one of them can be substantiated, while as to corrupt practices by agents, the most he thinks he could do would be to prove a few trifling cases such as might be proved in connection with the clearest election ever held, but not sufficient to affect the result in the slightest. He admits the election to have been conducted in a pure manner. Mr. Magwood is to be congratulated on this handsome vindication of his right to his seat in the Legislature, and the Conservative party is likewise to be congratulated on the frank evidence given by keen opponents to the purity of the election as conducted both by Mr. Magwood and his supporters. The case was dismissed without costs.

Auction Sales.

WHEN you see anything advertised in THE BEE you may be sure the proprietor has a good thing, or he would not advertise it. If you make up your mind to buy what you see advertised in THE BEE, be sure that you get it, and don't take anything else.

THERE is to be a big executors' sale of farm stock and implements, on lot 6, con. 16, Logan, on Monday, Nov. 2nd, next, commencing at one o'clock p.m. 8 horses, 16 cattle, 21 sheep, and a host of implements, will be sold without reserve. C. H. Merryfield will wield the hammer.

ARRANGEMENTS are completed for a third course of lectures to be given in the Methodist church during December, January and February. The distinguished names on the tickets are a guarantee that something good is in store. Further particulars later. It is probable also that a series of special services will be held, commencing possibly with the "week of prayer."

THE day when "old maid" was an epithet of contempt, has, thanks to sane humanity, gone by. Married women are no doubt happier as a rule than single women, but in the matter of "choices" and freedom—freedom to think, to act, to work, to realize ambitions or to be amused—the latter have a undeniable advantage. In the age of women there are several years of quiet blessedness set aside for the maid, young, middle-aged or old. The single woman is free to cast her destiny in what mold she may select.
