Greenstuff of all kinds always on hand. R. T. Caldwell

Lost—Between Neary's store and Church street, a sum of money. Finder kindly leave at Advertiser Office. 3swx

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Parker and mother of Canard, wish through our columns to thank their friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown them during their recent sorrow and affliction.

Our meat market is well equipped, everything absolutely clean and sanitary. The stock we carry is absolutely the best the County affords.

R. T. Caldwell.

Private Rev. William Owen of the 219th Battalion will preach in St. Stephen's Methodist Church on Sunday, both morning and evening. Rev. P. Pollitt, the pastor will be absent at Halifax attending Methodist conference.

Headquarters for fruit. Well I guess so. We sell an immense quantity of the best Oranges, Bananas, Lemons, Grape Fruit, Pineapples, Apples, Strawberries. "There's a reason," our prices are right, the stock is of the best quality. R. T. Caldwell

Wanted information of two girls 14 to 16 years of age, one with dark hair, black shoes, white stockings and blue coat. Both girls have short Dutch cut hair. Girls left Wolfville, Thursday supposedly for Kentville or Aldershot. Any information telephone at once Advertiser Office or Telephone Central, Wolfville.

St. Paul's Presbyterian Church.

The young ladies of the C. E. Society again entertains the soldiers on Monday evening and will hold a Basket Social and concert tonight.

The Brigade Quartette, which has consented to sing at St. Paul's, was much appreciated on Sunday night, as were also Mr. Vaughn and Pte. Macintosh. There was standing room only, all the school room chairs having been brought for the isles.

Next Sunday there will be special music. The morning subject will be: "Politics and Religion;" the evening: "Make Your Election Sure."

Red Cross Dance.

The Red Cross Bridge-Dance given at Pastime Hall, Friday evening, June 9, in aid of the Convalescent Home for officers and men now at Camp Aldershot was a great success and one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. The Hall was most artistically decorated with flags and bunting the stage being banked with apple blossoms. The fair ladies in their beautiful costumes, and the gentlemen in uniform and evening dress made a charming picture. The floor under the capable management of Mr. A. A. Thompson was in fine condition. Delightful music was rendered by the popular 85th Band, N. S. H., which added much to the enjoyment of the evening. A pleasing feature was the moonlight dances arranged by Miss B. Nixon and Mr. Harold Pelton. Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. A. A. Thomson and Mrs. F. W. Wickwire. The Card Room was in charge of Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. W. S. Blair. Mrs. Geo. E. Graham, Mrs. H. H. Wickwire, Mrs. Barclay Webster, Mrs. Botsford, Mrs. H. L. Cole and Mrs. Chesley constituted the reception committee and under their careful supervision everyone was enabled to enjoy a most delightful evening. The net proceeds were $157.50.

The Committee in charge wish to thank the D. A. R. for special train service, the 85th Band through Colonel Parsons, for the delightful music provided and all who assisted in any way in making the evening a success.

NEW BILL AT NICKLET, WEEK BEGINNING JUNE 19TH.High Class Vaudeville and Feature Photo Plays.

Beginning Monday and continuing the entire week the programs at Nicklet Theatre will undergo an entire change. The management have booked some splendid vaudeville features, chief among them being the Nelson Duo, a very refined and entertaining novelty. Second on the bill will be the great Marquis, the king of musical entertainers, then comes Forris, one of the greatest contortionists in the game today. These acts have been secured direct from the best vaudeville circuits in America and come highly recommended.

The movie attraction for the first two days is a Broadway star feature in 3 parts entitled, "The Crooked Path."

The Rossley Co. are closing their engagement on Saturday and their farewell performances will be the best in their repertoire—and everyone should be present to show their appreciation of the best company to visit the town for years.

Beginning next week the prices will be 15c for adults and 10c for children.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Benjamin West wishes to thank her many friends of Blomidon and vicinity who assisted her in her sad bereavement.
