LOCAL ITEMS

Are you going to Lyndhurst on the 12th.

Rev. Geo. Stafford of Westport was in Athens on Saturday last.

The hay crop on Athens boulevards is being harvested this week.

Mr. A. W. Mallory of Mallorytown has installed a miking machine.

New potatoes are on the market at 30c. per peck.

Miss Annie Russell of Brockville, is the guest of Miss Belle Earl, Athens.

Miss Lily Wiltse left Athens for a visit with her sister at Syracuse, N.Y.

Mrs. Eck. Billings of Brockville was a visitor here on Sunday last.

Miss Mary Livingston is visiting friends at Phillipsville.

—Great clearing sale of Summer Hats at LeClair's, Brockville.

Mrs. M. A. Everts and son Alan leave this week for Union Park.

Wesley Stevens is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. C. Stewart, at Dalmeny.

Mrs. S. S. Cornell and family are sojourning at Union Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Cadwell of Brockville are visiting friends in Athens.

Mr. Rob. Patterson of Chicago, Ill., is a visitor at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. Patterson, Reid street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Parish and son, Arthur G. left on Tuesday for a trip to Quebec and up the Saguenay.

Mrs. S. C. A. Lamb and Mrs. T. W. Serviss are chaperoning the modelites at Lily Bay this week.

Miss Nina Benedict is visiting Miss Minnie DeWolfe at her home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Blancher of Brockville are visiting friends in Athens this week.

Next Friday, July 13, the Methodist S.S. will have their annual outing at Delta Park.

Mrs. McMackin and Mrs. Lyons are visiting their sister, Mrs. Jas. Walker, at Kingston.

Mrs. E. A. Robertson, Montreal is a guest at the home of her father, Mr. Phil. Wiltse.

Miss Roberta Ross is spending a part of her vacation with Miss E. Taggart of Westport.

Mrs. Geo. Nash and Mrs. N. K. Benedict were last week visiting Dr. C. C. Nash at Bath.

Mrs. Hodgins and children of Selby are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Stevens.

Miss Jessie Arnold and Miss Lenna Brown went to Wilton last week for a visit with friends.

At the recent examinations of the Ontario Normal College, Hamilton, Miss Edith A. Hughes obtained an interim Public and High School certificate.

—I have finally got settled in my new home on the borders of Charleston Lake—fine location—and have two or three furnished rooms to rent.—H. Case Phillips.

Considerable speculation is being indulged in these days as to the probability of some scheme being adopted to secure the construction of permanent sidewalks in Athens. Necessity and desirability urge to prompt action.

Fred Trickey, who has been assisting in a cheese factory since school closed, returned home last week with a sore finger. He had picked it with a pin and blood poisoning developed, but under surgical treatment it is now improving.

It is estimated that complying with the requirements of the report of the Toll Roads Inspector, published this week, will necessitate an expenditure of about $8,000 on the road between Athens and Fortthorn. As the road has not for many years given any fair return to the owners, their action in this matter will be awaited with much interest. Possibly a conference of the road company and representatives of the municipalities interested might discover a way of dealing with the matter that would be satisfactory all round.

Mrs. E. A. Gardiner and little son are visiting friends at Winchester.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kerfoot of Smith's Falls attended the funeral of Mr. Slack on Sunday.

Mr. B. C. Taggart of Westport has resigned the principalship of Winchester public school.

—The death is reported from Soper-ton of Mrs. Birch, daughter of Edward Westlake of Glen Buell. The deceased was only recently married.

Miss Daisy C. Hall of Knowlton, in the province of Quebec, student at the Royal Victoria College, Montreal, is visiting Miss Jessie Taplin.

Miss Mabel Derbyshire, by reason of being senior pupil of her A. M. S. graduating class, is this week with the modelites at Lily Bay.

This Wednesday evening the officers elect of the I.O.O.F. will be installed by Mr. R. J. Green, P.D.D.G.M., of Oak Leaf. A full attendance of members is requested.

At the recent exam's of the Ontario Medical Council, Dr. F. J. O'Connor of Long Point was successful in passing the primary and intermediate examinations.

Miss Cora Lee of Brockville Eastern Hospital and Master Jock and Edna Stewart of Seely's Corners spent last week visiting their cousin, Miss Luella Redmond.

On severing her connection with the teaching staff of the A.M.S., Miss A. Watson received from her pupils an address, read by Miss Marjorie Moore, and a gold locket, presented by Master John Kelly.

Mr. Albert Crumphy spent Tuesday in Athens soliciting special prizes for Franklin Fair. Athenians have always been admirers of Kitley's great exhibition, and this feeling should be reflected in the prize list as well as in the gate receipts.

We have pleasure in congratulating Master Kenneth Blancher, son of Mr. Frank Blancher, upon having obtained the highest number of marks of any entrance candidate writing in Athens. This is a distinction not to be lightly esteemed, and it reflects credit upon his teachers as well as upon his ability as a student.

A correspondent says: If a real up to date photographer would come to Frankville and Toledo and among the highly prosperous farmers, he would be employed in scores of cases in taking groups of people, churches, homes, favorite horses, etc.—the views to be developed on post cards and others. Now for a little more enterprise in this matter.

Messrs. J. A. and Blake McLaughlin have for the last month been very busily employed in Gananoque, disposing of and applying their popular repairing cement and asphalt roof paint. Their goods have been used and approved in Gananoque for the last seven years. At headquarters in Brockville the shipping trade to firms is steadily increasing.

The publication of the assessment roll has much to commend it. By this means the whole work of the assessor is exposed to public view and inequalities are promptly detected and corrected. It has been found to work very satisfactorily where tried, and the cost as been much less than where dual assessors and other plans were adopted to effect equalization. Very few rate-payers would object to paying a small sum for the privilege of comparing their assessment with all similar assessments in the village.

Miss E. Hayes has returned home after visiting friends at Smith's Falls.

Mr. Harold H. Layng, Miss M. Wait and Mrs. James Murray of Smith's Falls visited at the home of Miss E. Hayes last week.

A year ago, cheese sold on the Brockville board at 9 1/2c. On Saturday last the price was 11 1/2c and the record sale was about 13,900 boxes.

Miss C. Taber, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Wesley Towrie of Glen Buell, is spending two weeks with relatives in Gananoque and Lansdowne.

It has cost $1,000 to look into the Lansdowne alleged poisoning case. The county of Leeds will have to pay the expenses. The doubtful items are for keep and safety of the prisoners.

The last issue of the Canadian Poultry Review contains an excellent group picture of a pen of White Wyandottes, one of the famous stock of Wright Bros., Brockville.

On Friday, July 20, the Methodist Sunday-schools of Westport and Delta will join in holding an excursion to Brockville, Ogdensburg, Cardinal and Iroquois. Round trip, 80c. Train will leave Athens at 8.45.

The beauty of a Semi Ready suit is not all on the outside, and you have an opportunity of inspecting its inside excellencies—seeing both sides of the material, finding out just how it is made. There is a big advantage in this. When you go to Brockville call at the Wardrobe and learn all about Semi-Ready; or, if you want a lower-priced suit, ask for the "United Brand" clothing.
