ATTACKED IN A PASS. Cape Town, Sept. 12-While Colonel Munro's column was returning from Barkly West to Dordrecht, it was attacked by the Boers under Commandants Fouchee and Myburgh, in the Wolve Kloof. The advance guard was, still in the pass when a terrific fire was opened upon them from the heights above the kloof. The British were in a precarious position on the flat, where there was little or nocover, but they rapidly unlimbered and re-turned a brisk fire. The fire con-tinued for some time. The British had four wounded. It is reported that the Boers had four killed and a considerable number wounded. On the following morning a reconnoitring force with big guns, cleared Wolve Kloof of the Boors, who retreated in the fi-rection of the Drakensburg. The British followed the burghers for a considerable distance, shelling them ncessantly.
