INTERNATIONAL S. S. LESSON FOR TO-MORROW.

The Death of Moses—Deut. 34, 1-12. Read Deut. 31-34.

Golden Text—Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His Saints.—Ps. 116-15.

At God's command—see Deut. 32, 49-50—Moses ascends Mount Nebo to die, although his eye was not dim nor his natural force abated. Why is this penalty visited and exacted from such a devoted servant of God? In the wilderness of Zin the people of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron and against God, who was leading them by the pillar of cloud and fire—because there was no water. God directed both these leaders to gather the people before a great rock and to command or speak to the rock before the eyes of all Israel, that it give forth its water. See Num. 20, 8. Instead of doing so they addressed the people and said: Here, now, ye rebels, shall we bring you forth water out of this rock? And Moses smote the rock with his rod twice, and the water came abundantly.

It was not righteous indignation on Moses' part; not the fruit of the flesh and the carnal mind, and prevented a God-designed type of the Rock Christ Jesus, once for all stricken on Calvary for our sin, and to die no more, but now exalted a Prince and a Saviour to give the Holy Spirit to them that ask. Moses' and Aaron's presumption dishonored God in the eyes of Israel and spoiled the double type of Jesus on the cross and Jesus on the right hand of God for us—The Rock of Ages.

This is a grand and of a great life. At last the wilderness is laid, the hot dry sands, the fiery serpents, the weary marches, the desert graves, the slow and schoolings and muttered grumblings, all past; and here before Moses, in full view is the promised land flowing with milk and honey. He could not sing, "I've reached the land of corn and wine," but he could sing, "Nearer my God to Thee, than though it be a cross that raiseth me."

Moses committed Israel's hosts to Joshua, who was full of the spirit of wisdom; yet "There arose—V. 10—not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses."

MAY ORGANIZE THIRD PARTY.

Labor Congress Indignant at Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Supineness.

Winnipeg, Sept. 20.—The refusal of Premier Laurier to answer the urgent memorial of the Labor Congress on the question of having the Japanese treaty abrogated has stirred the labor delegates now assembled in Winnipeg. While the convention understands that it is a matter for Imperial authority, alone, they feel that the situation is so critical in the Canadian west that Sir Wilfrid could at least forecast "sympathetic" discussion. His silence has mystified the delegates and they are displaying their resentment by placing an order for to-day's executive session for the consideration of united political action by labor interests.

This means, possible the formation of a third party and is of special interest in view of the fact that a Dominion election is approaching.

The convention yesterday by 81 to 18 endorsed the Lemieux Industrial Disputes' Act.

Cannot Abrogate Treaty.

Ottawa, Sept. 20.—"They cannot do it. That treaty was not to be abrogated for four years," emphatically said T. Nasse, the Japanese consul-general, yesterday, commenting on the Trades Congress requisition. The treaty was signed about a year ago and cannot become inoperative for three years. It would mean the reducing of Canada's trade with Japan.

Climbing 199 Steps to Church.

The only way of reaching the old parish church at Whitby, in Yorkshire, from the town is by means of 199 stone steps—probably as curious an approach to a place of worship as any in the kingdom. The church stands on the east cliff some 200 feet above the sea level, and to watch the crowd of worshippers before and after service threading its way up and down the winding stairway is a sight to be remembered.—London Strand.

Forgetful.

"Tommy," said his mother reprovingly, "what did I say I'd do to you if I ever caught you stealing jam again?" Tommy thoughtfully scratched his head with his sticky fingers. "Why, that's funny, ma, that you should forget it too. Hanged if I can remember."

Mechanically.

Judge—And what did the prisoner say when you told him that you would have him arrested? Complaisant—He answered mechanically, yer honor. Judge—Explain. Complaisant—He hit me on the head with a hammer.—Exchange.

The fault is always as great as he that commits it.—French Proverb.

Don't lose time finding fault.
