New York, June 24.—The first shot in an anti-ritual crusade, in this country, along the dream of John Kenst, who lost his life in a church riot in England, was fired by the Rev. R. C. Fillingham, vicar of Hexton, England, in a letter to Bishop Potter. The vicar is here arranging for the crusade, which is to begin next February. In his communication to Bishop Potter he denounced last Sunday's service in the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, in this city, as "scandalous and unlawful proceedings." In his letter he says:

"The Says: whee let flowers to the red of the Protestant Church in Says: whee let a flower to take steps to put an end to "The whole service is a flagrant defiance of protestantism. The
