

RADIAL RAILWAY BILL LAID OVER.

sell power. If it were allowed, it would come into competition with the Province of Ontario.

Mr. Pringle did not see why this power company could not go into competition with any power company subject to regulations.

Mr. Blackstock agreed with this. Mr. Bergeron sympathized with what Mr. Blackstock said, but he could not do otherwise than vote for the bill.

Mayor Bowly, of Brantford, protested against the bill. If the company would accept the 2-cent rate that would satisfy Brantford; if they would not divert power without the consent of the municipality, and would not run Sunday cars without the consent of the Province he would agree to the bill.

Mr. Macdonnell, Toronto, thought they should get the legislation asked for, providing that all interests were safeguarded.

Col. Hughes wanted the bill to be referred to a special committee.

Mr. Pringle wanted the company to get incorporation along the lines suggested by Mr. Blackstock. For this purpose he wanted the matter referred to a special committee.

In reply to Mr. Pringle, the Deputy Minister of Railways said that the question of jurisdiction was one which the department and the Government was considering.

Mr. Clarke, Essex, objected to a special committee, which was another way of keeping back the bill. It was delayed a long time already for the Provincial Government.

Mr. Bristol, Toronto, agreed that the company was entitled to some declaration from the committee, but the interests of the municipalities should be safeguarded.

In reply to Mr. Foster, Col. Gibson said that the company was willing to accept any arrangement which the Dominion and the Province might reach in regard to jurisdiction, but not to have a special earmark placed on his company, as some desired.

The committee will meet again to-morrow to deal with the Radial bill.

ROAD WORK ON FRONTAGE PLAN.

its property. In this case it is not likely that the matter would come before the Railway Commission to-day. Mr. Kent went there on the city's behalf to support Mr. Patterson's application.

The proposed Guelph Junction Railway project, which dropped out of sight for several months, looks like a go this time. Ex-Mayor Biggar, J. W. Lamoreaux, Frank Bruce and other promoters had a conference with Mayor Stewart at noon to-day and the prospect is that the building of the road will be proceeded with at once. The promoters asked that the city fix a route without delay. They thought it would be necessary to divert somewhat from the original plans and go south of the old Board of Works yard, the property now occupied by the Canada Screw Company. Mayor Stewart, however, announced himself strongly opposed to this and said that the road must run north between the Grand Trunk tracks and the screw company's works. A fine point of Dominion and Provincial jurisdiction is involved in this. The Guelph company will be an electric line, and has an Ontario charter, and some of the promoters questioned whether the Dominion Board had any powers to make an order for the company with a Provincial charter or whether the Ontario Board could compel a company with a Dominion charter to permit an electric road with a Provincial charter to cross its property. Mr. Biggar was confident the Railway Board would make the necessary order and that if this could be secured the company would be willing to use the road to the north. The Mayor promised to bring the matter before the Board of Works and Finance Committee this week and have a joint meeting as soon as possible. If neither of the boards has the necessary power at present an appeal will be made to the Dominion Parliament to have the matter straightened out and the likely have the city's backing. Although local capital is interested in the Guelph road it is eventually the intention for the C. P. R. to take it over. Its route to the city is defined as from the corner of Locke and Barton streets to the T. H. & B. spur in East Hamilton.

POLICE COURT CASE

Over Recent Rule Against Riding on Platform.

The first police court case in Hamilton as a result of the new regulations recently passed by the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board prohibiting passengers standing on the steps or platforms of cars will come before Magistrate Jeffs this week. The other evening a conductor insisted on a man who was standing on the platform going inside. It is said he refused, and to-day Superintendent Miller had a summons issued, charging him with refusing to comply with the rule. The company has not been having much trouble in enforcing the rules.

THE INSURANCE BILL

Minister of Finance Suggests How to Deal With It.

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 4.—(Special.)—The Insurance Bill was mentioned in the Banking and Commerce Committee this morning. The Minister of Finance suggested that on a day to be fixed the committee should discuss the bill. Generally, not clause by clause, as usually, but with the greater freedom of discussion. After hearing all that had been said from the outside and within the committee, the members might rest for a time, while the department took the bill into consideration. At the next meeting the bill could be taken up in the ordinary way. This, he suggested, and it was agreed that the committee would set Wednesday of next week to hear statements from the insurance companies.

The police received a report late last night to the effect that St. Ann's Church, Barton and Sherman avenues, had been entered a week ago last Sunday night and a silver crucifix stolen. The police do not know why the report was withheld for so long but are working on the case.

IN BANKRUPTCY.

Proceedings Brought Against Ingersoll at Pittsburg.

Bankruptcy proceedings were brought in the United States Circuit Court of Pennsylvania a few days ago against Frederick Ingersoll, the summer park promoter, according to a Pittsburg despatch.

Mr. Ingersoll has been ailing physically for some time, having been unable to devote his full attention to business. Five of the country's largest summer parks have been built by Mr. Ingersoll, and he has promoted many others. "The Mexican," in the city of Mexico, was his latest venture to open.

The Ingersoll Amusement Company, of which Frederick Ingersoll was the head, was behind the movement to build an immense amusement park on the Beach. A company was formed here and local capital interested. The matter dragged along until the Beach Commissioners passed a by-law prohibiting resorts of this kind on the sand strip. It was recently announced that there was no possibility now of the park being built, and this latest development would add strength to the statement. It has been stated by local men interested that the money paid in for shares had been kept separate, and would be returned to those who subscribed it.

Some Rochester park promoters are negotiating with Mr. Webb Bessey, of the Mountain View Hotel, for a lease of his park at the head of the James street incline railway. Their proposition is to take in the Bessey park and three or four acres south or west of it, and to install six or seven paid attractions, including special inducements in many lines; 300 fur-lined overcoats reduced to $47.50; overcoats worth $15 for $9.98; men's $15 suits for $8.98.—Fralick & Co., 13 and 15 James street north
