Mr. VanWyck, the pastor, said that the congregation had had a hard time of it. He gave the members of Central Church a great deal of credit for the manner in which they supported the work when the church seemed to have its most discouraging moments. It was not his wish that in the building of the new church any members should be taken from any of the churches in the community. He looked for the time when church union would be a reality. Rev. John Young also spoke in a congratulatory tone.

The services closed with the benediction by Rev. S. B. Russell.

LADIES' SHIRT-WAIST.

No. 1936.—All seams allowed.—A favorite form of embellishment for a shirtwaist is the narrow stitched boxasyone form of embelishment for a shirtwaist is the narrow stitched boxplait, and this latest development lends itself especially to the lighter woolen and silk materials, such as challis, voile, surah and taffeta silk, as well as to linen, pique and madras. In Nattier blue voile it is a neat and pretty style. There are three narrow box-plaits down the front, three stitched to bust depth on the shoulder, and two down the back. It would be a good model for Scotch flannel or gingham or it might be utilized for albatross or Panama cloth. The pattern is in 7 sizes—32 to 44 inches, bust measure. For 36 bust the waist requires 3 3-4 yards of material 20 inches wide, or 2 1-8 yards 36 inches wide, or 2 yards 42 inches wide.

Open Verdict In the Case of Gladys Garrold.

The jurors on the inquest on the eath of Gladys Garrold, who died as a result of injuries sustained by run-ning into an auto on King stret east on unday last, brought in an open verdict saminay hast, brought in an open verdict last night, and affixed no blame for the accident. The evidence given by a large number of witnesses was the same as the story already published. Coroner McNichol presided. The evidence showed that the little girl ran around the front of the car when she got off at Wellington street with her mother and sister and brothers, and ran into an auto belonging to Mr. Thomas Crooks. She was knocked unconscious, and died at the City Hospital some hours later while undergoing an operation on the left side of her skull. The witnesses called were not all heard till about 11 o'clock. Those called were Maurice and Merion-Garrold, brothers of the dead girl, and Macia, a sister; Drs. Balfe and Arnott, Harold Palmer, chauffeur; Mr. Leslie Crooks and Miss Grace Crooks, who were in the machine; D. E. Bell, conductor on the street railway; Robert Merrington, motorman; James Burrows, Gordon Colville, Ed. Reach, W. Venattor, Fred Armitage, J. E. Hampson and Tracey E. Noble. The last seven witnesses were on the car at the time of the accident.

About midnight the verdict was relast night, and affixed no blame for the

the business on the programme. The meeting was held last evening, and the election of officers was proceeded with. Mr. George Schnabel was elected president, and Mr. J. B. Dinkel was chosen ornt, and Mr. J. B. Dinkel was chosen for the vice-president's chair; H. Hack-busch, Financial Secretary; H. Bis-marck, Recording and Corresponding Secretary; A. CEREMONY OF INSTALLATION.

Archbishop McEvay Refers to Sacrifice by Predecessors.

Mgr. Sbarretti Refers to Devotion of the People.

Event That Will Long Live In Church History.

As long as life lasts will the impres sions created in the hearts and minds of those who attended the installation of Arichbishop McEvay continue and the words spoken will never be forgotten. It was a solemn and imposing event, and the great crowd present was deeply im-

Shortly before 10 o'clock as the organ commenced to softly sound the first notes of the opening voluntary the high altar flashed into a blaze of light, and the Vicar-General, with his attendant chaplains, errayed in the golden vest-ments of office, passed down the centre

ments of office, passed down the centre aisle in order to meet the Archbishop's procession at the main entrance.

Headed by acolytes, carrying book, candle and censor, and followed by the priests of the city, and the Archbishop's procession passed from the palace along Shuter and Bond streets to the main entrance of the cathedral. The short route was closely lined with many hundred spectators, but the greatest order was maintained without any interference from the small squad greatest order was maintained without any interference from the small squad of police on duty, and the stately procession passed along without any difficulty. Following the diocesan plergy came a long array of high dignitaries of the Church, and Bishops of other dioceses, not only in the province of 1 oronto, but from far down by the sounding sea, who delighted to do honor by their presence to the new Archbishop. Escorted by a bodyguard of Knights of St. John, in their quaint uniform, and with drawn swords, Archbishop McEvay, clothed from head to 100 tin golden raiment, with his crosier in his hand, came immediately after the visiting Bishops, and the procesthe visiting Bishops, and the procession closed with another small body of the priesthood.

ier in his hand, came immediately after the visiting Bishops, and the procession closed with another small body of the pricesthood.

Full of symbolism were the ceremonies which were gone through upon the aisle, headed by cross and tapers, passing between two lines of robed priests to the sanctuary, where tiers of seats had been erected for the accommodation of the clergy. The number in attendance was so large that a considerable portion of the body of the church had to be set aside for them.

Swung high above the centre of the sanctuary was a large white cross, from the base of which flowed six festons of the Papal colors, white and golden, while the pillars of the nave were similarly linked. At the conclusion of the singing of the first carticle welcoming the Archbishop the Vicar-General ascended the pulpit and read in rolling Latin the Papal briefs. Then the Archbishop, accompanied by his deacons, the Rev. Father Coyle and the Rev. Father Toyling, was escorted to the Episcopal throne, where the brief of the Bishop of Rome was solemnly returned to his keeping. In order of their rank the clergy of the diocese who were in attendance came forward and took the wow of obedience by kneeling and kissing the episcopal ring. At the conclusion of this ceremony, Dean Morris read the address on behalf of the clergy. The address of behalf of the clergy, and he, having pronounced the benediction, the High Mass was proceeded with. The celebrant was Monsignor Sharretti, who at its conclusion was presented with an address of welcome by Vicar-General McCann, and his Excellency replied briefly.

Among prominent churchmen present were: Archbishop of Halifax, Most Rev. C. H. Gauthier; Bishop David Scollard, of Sault Ste. J. McCarthy; Archbishop of Kingston, Most Rev. C. H. Gauthier; Bishop David Scollard, of Sault Ste. J. Briefly Davi

It is in this full Catholic sense of faith and love that we pay our homage to you to-day.

The See of Toronto has been blessed by a line of illustrious churchmen, who, in season and out of season, devoted their talents and their lives to the building of the Church in the archdiocese. They laid the foundations deep and broad. With them there was no trimming of Catholic faith, no minimizing of Catholic faith, no minimizing of Catholic dogma. The lustre of their light was seen and the effect of their power felt beyond the most distant boundaries of the Dominion. To their valiant efforts in days of stress and struggle the excellent school system which the Catholic children of Ontario enjoy to-day is chiefly due. Institutions of learning and homes of charity were planted and fostered by them. Everywhere in the archdiocese may be seen monuments of their seal and labors. Their teaching and example were productive of a people of strong faith and patriotic spirit.

Such, your Grace, is the heritage which comes into your hands to-day. The memory of the martyred missionaries, the fruits of the labors of five most devoted bishops, the garnered of several generafruits of the labors of five most devoted bishops, the garnered of several generations of self-sacrificing priests make a precious trust. This trust, we are sure, will be safe in you, keeping. May your own reign add to the store of noble achievements of the prelates of Toronto. In all your undertakings for the advancement of religion and the good of the country you may rely with absolute confidence on the unwavering loyalty and patriotic support of the priests of the Archdiocese of Toronto.

The following is in part the address from the laity, which was read by Mr. Justice Anglin:
To the Most Reverend, Fergus Patrick McEvay, D. D., Archbishop of Toronto: fruits of the labors of five most devoted pleased the Holy Father to appoint you, on behalf of the laity of the archdiocese we approach your episcopal throne to welcome you as our chief pastor and to assure you of the good-will and affection of your new flock.

While we deeply regret the cause which has impelled out late reverend Archbishop to lay down the burdens and to free himself from the responsibilities of the episcopate, the selection of yourself as his successor has filled us with confidence for the future of this diocese. Your designation by the Holy See as our Archbishop would suffice to ensure for you our loyalty and our religion as Catholics; the dignity of your exalted position of itself commands respect. For the third time consecutively the Bishop of London becomes the Archbishop of Toronto. Our knowledge of the many excellent qualities of your illustrious predecessors, our appreciation of the splendid work accomplished by them, and our grateful recognition of the benefits which we have derived from their paternal solicitude and exemplary lives lead us to regard as most auspicious the appointment to Toronto of another Bishop of London.

Under the administration of your immediate predecessor the churches and schools of the diocese have largely in-creased in number. The Catholic parishes in this, your metropolitan city, and its

In the body of the church were the Hon. R. W. Scott, Secretary of State, representing the Provincial Government; Hon. J. J. Foy and Dr. Reaume, representing the Provincial Government; members of the Separate School Boards of Toronto and London, and representatives of the various societies and institutions connected with the Province. The address of the Celegy, as presented by Dean Morris, of St. Catharines, read in part as follows:

May it please your Grace,—We the priests of the Archdiosese of Toronto are assembled to-day to bid you welcome as sour spiritual chief. The Holy Father has been pleased to appoint you Archbishop of Toronto and Metropolitan of the ecclesiastical province. With respectful twerrone we hail the appointment. Peter has spoken through Pius, the apostolic authority has been exercised and its decision meets with filial obedience from the clergy of the archdiocese.

We recognize in your appointment the continuation of the world-wide commission of Christ to the apostles, "Going therefore teach all nations. . . . I am with you all days," Your mission has its source in God. Your selection was the continuation of the world-wide commission of Christ to the Holy Ghoet; your appointment was made by the Vicar of Christ in his office of ruler of the universal church. It is in this full Catholic sense of faith and love that we specified their sense of the church in the diocese.

The See of Toronto has been bl performed long and faithful service for the Church in the diocese.

Mgr. Sbarretti made a very earnest reply, in the course of which he said:

"Now I know that you are second to none in affection to the Holy Father. The beautiful address you have read to me is an expression of your filial devotion to the supreme head of the Church. I certainly did not expect less from your faith, but it is not on that account less agreeable to my heart to hear this manifestation of your love towards the Holy See. The sentiments you express are not directed to me personally, but to the authority which I represent in this country; for that very reason they are more acceptable to me. You love Peter and all to whom any portion of his authority is delegated. As you see the Saviour in Peter, and Peter in his successor, so you see the Holy Father in the person of his representative. Be always, my dear brethren, devoted to the Church and the Holy See, knowing that thereby you are ever devoted and attached to our Lord Jesus Christ. In conclusion, I desire to express another lively and ardent wish that I cherish, namely, that the faithful laity, the elergy and the Bishop will be always united, that the bonds between you will be aso a family in you will become stronger and strong-er, and that you will be as a family in which all the members love each other with each other cheerfully the guidance of its head.

Suburbs now number seventeen; the Catholic population has grown until it approximates 40,000 souls. Your new vineyard is large, and, creditable as have been the achievements of the past, we realize that there is still much to be accomplished.

Our educational advantages of to-day are undoubtedly great, as compared with those of years not long past. Yet we believe that there is still room for progress and improvement in this field; and we are especially delighted to know that, in the person of your Grace, the cause of Catholic education, advanced as well as primary, has an ardent friend and advocate.

The Archbishop, in the course of his reply, which was delivered in tones easily audible throughout the whole building, first made reference to the exceedingly amicable relations which had existed between himself and the clergy and laity of Lordon. In feeling terms
