THE TURKISH REVOLUTION.

Some Ministers Dismissed and Some Murdered.

Mutinuous Troops Carried the Day in Constantinople.

Union and Progress Committee Had Too Much to Say.

Constantinople, April 14.—Constantinople is quieter this morning after the exciting occurrences of yesterday, and business is gradually being resumed.

The Sultan had granted practically all the demands of the riotous troops, namely, the adoption of the Sheri laws as the basis for new laws; the dismissal of the Grand Vizier, the Ministers of War and Marine, and Ahmed Risa, President of the Chamber, the latter to be replaced by Ismail Kemal, provisional leader of the Liberal Union.

The casualties resulting from the rioting of yesterday include Nezim Pasha, Minister of Justice in the late Cabinet, who was mistaken for Riza Pasha, Minister of Marine, and killed; Riza Pasha, Minister of Marine, who was wounded, and Sadik Pasha, who was killed.

The events of yesterday came as a surprise to nobody in Constantinople. An upheaval was expected as a result of the recent developments and the increasing dictatorial methods of the Committee of Union and Progress.

Notwithstanding the absence of the commissioned officers, the troops observed splendid discipline. The deputies arriving at the House of Parliament were greeted by a band, which showed the movement was not hostile to the constitution.

When it was learned that their demands had been granted, the mutineers, headed by a band, marched to Yildiz Kiosk for the purpose of acclaiming the Sultan. They requested his majesty to repair to Stamboul and wear the "green turban" in order to testify his respect for religion.

A NEW MARCH.

The opening number to be played by the big orchestra of 50 pieces at the T. M. A. benefit on Friday afternoon will be a new march entitled "Zepira," by E. C. Hall, flautist of the Grand Opera House Orchestra.

FELT SHAKE.

St. John, N. B., April 14.—An earthquake sufficiently heavy to cause houses to shake was reported last night in despatches from Westford and Westford, about twenty miles distant on the Canadian Pacific Railroad.

Capstan Smoking Mixture.

This tobacco is a delightful blend of high grade tobaccos. It is medium strength and smokes cool and sweet. Capstan mixture costs 20 cents a tin at peace's cigar store, 107 King street east.

CAUSED SOME STIR THROUGHOUT CITY.

Great Interest in T., H. & B. Railway's Purchase of the Mills Hardware Property.

No real estate deal that has taken place in Hamilton in a decade has caused more interest than the sale of the Mills Hardware Company's warehouse and stable property at John and Hunter streets and on the Wood market, to the T., H. & B. Railway.

The Mills Hardware Company has not yet done anything about a new warehouse site. That is a matter that can easily stand until they can get a spot that exactly suits them, and they will do nothing in a hurry.

MRS. ANDREW CARNEGIE.

BEAUTIES OF ICE JAM

As Seen by a Visitor in the Great Gorge.

A Hamilton man who visited the ice jam in Niagara River yesterday writes: By piling its tons of snow and ice in the deep gorge at its foot, Niagara has made a scene of wintery splendor congealed over the waters, that once looked upon will never be forgotten.

The big jam at the Whirlpool is certainly the most surprising of all the queer antics this old river puts on its billboard for the scenic eyes. The grandeur of the sight here on Monday afternoon around the whirling maelstrom of ice and snow held spectators awe-stricken.

ANOTHER JAM.

Rain and South Wind Packed the ice at the Falls.

Niagara Falls, Ont., April 14.—The rain and south winds of yesterday brought down large quantities of ice from the upper river and lake. The lower river, where it had cleared itself of the jam from Lewiston bridge southward on Friday night, has been packed again to opposite Niagara Glen, a distance of about two miles.

CARUSO'S THROAT.

New York, April 14.—Enrico Caruso, the famous tenor, will sail for Europe to-day to undergo treatment for his throat.

Twentieth Century Judge Prohibits Prisoner's Marriage.

New York, April 13.—He stood before the judge, convicted of theft. She sat in a seat behind him. In his eyes was worry.

His lawyer was pleading for him. "And, your honor," he droned on, pompously, "in addition to my arguments that this young man's sentence should be suspended, let me also add that in this court room there sits before you now a woman who will wed this man and will make for him a home. The redeeming power of love!"

"Stop," said the judge. "That's enough. I suppose that most judges would melt at the suggestion of matrimony. I don't."

"But—er—er," came from the lawyer. "This man is a criminal. He shall not bring any more criminals into the world."

The lawyer was nonplussed. He had run up against a new kind of judge, Warren W. Foster, of New York.

"I'll suspend sentence on this young man. But, if he marries this woman or any other woman without my consent—without coming to me and proving that he can be a decent husband—I'll put a sentence of two and a half years in force against him right away. Don't you dare to marry, young man."

Judge Foster is a bachelor, with gray hair. He seems chivalrous and gentle to women and men alike. He was willing to talk about his action the next day.

"I suppose I am going to be misunderstood," he said to your correspondent. "I'm not a crusty old bachelor. Yes, you may take a picture of me to prove it. "But I couldn't let that young man marry that girl. I know. They always think they can reform men. But when a woman loves she loves so deeply that she goes the man's way. She doesn't fight against him to make him go her way. She'll only drag you down," I told her.

Albert E. Johnson, convicted prisoner who was prohibited by Judge Foster from marrying.

And I found out afterward that the gentle judge had sought the girl and had consoled her as best he could. "But there is a bigger thing than the romance of it—the broken romance," continued the judge.

"What about the children they would bring into the world? That's the biggest question we face to-day.

Judge Warren W. Foster.

Despite the opinions of a certain gentleman who has recently gone to Africa, I say that we must see that children are not born so promiscuously that many of them will be criminals.

MRS. MATTHEW SCOTT.

Wealthy Bloomington, Ill., widow, is the administration candidate for the residence general of the exclusive and highly political Daughters of the American Revolution at the coming congress of the organization in Washington, April 19.

SHE HIT OUT.

Woman Who Found Money Resented Any Interference.

The efforts of Chief Smith and two men to recover a handkerchief for a small girl at noon to-day in front of the City Hall from a woman who picked it up when the girl dropped it caused a good deal of amusement. The little girl had half a dollar tied in the corner of the handkerchief and, passing the City Hall, dropped it. A woman who was passing picked it up and started to walk away. Two men saw the loss and the find, and went over to the woman for an explanation.

MISS MARGARET B. MCCOY.

Who has resigned her position as soloist in St. Paul's Church to accept the leadership of MacNab St. Presbyterian Church.

AN ELEVATOR

Being Installed in Centenary Church This Week.

In a very short time Centenary Methodist Church will be noted for having the only passenger elevator in any church in Hamilton. Work was commenced on Monday morning by the Turnbull Elevator Co., of Toronto, on the installing of one of their hydraulic lifts.

There are many steps to climb from the entrance on Main street to the auditorium and requests have been made for an elevator. The shaft is being built on the left side of the east stairway and will go to the main floor of the church only. It will be several weeks before it is in working condition.

EVA FAY COMING BACK.

Manager Jack Appleton, of the Bennett Theatre, announced this morning that Mrs. Eva Fay would return to the theatre next week. Mr. Appleton was fortunate in securing Mrs. Fay's services. On her return engagement Mrs. Fay will answer about seventy-five questions at each performance, and in that way will try to answer the many questions that she had to leave unanswered on account of time not permitting. The theatre will doubtless be filled to capacity.

Icebergs Seen

Cape Race, Nfld., April 14.—Six large icebergs were visible from the wireless station here. The bergs have been in the same position since early Monday, the wind not being strong enough to carry them to sea. A wireless message from Point Amour, Gulf of St. Lawrence, says Heavy pack ice is moving swiftly to the southeast. Several large icebergs are visible. The whole St. Lawrence appears to be a great sea of ice as far as the eye can reach.

WILL BREAD GO UP, TOO?

Wheat Advanced to $1.14 Today—Flour at $6.

Will the price of bread go up? This is the question that has been occupying the minds of Hamilton citizens since the outside and local grain markets began to soar. Wheat advanced two cents, bringing it up to $1.14, or only four cents lower than the record of 1898. This advance was not caused by speculation, but by a general shortage in the supply.

Several of the bakers when seen this morning by a Times reporter said that they would be warranted in raising the price of bread one cent per small loaf, but did not intend to do so until their supply of flour ran out after which they would be compelled to advance the price if they had to pay the present rate for flour.

In the eyes of many of the people are now paying too much for bread. They point out that in the time of the Franco-Prussian war, when flour sold at $10 a barrel, or $4 per barrel higher than the present time, bread sold at 18 cents per four-pound loaf, or 4 1/2 cents a pound. With flour at $6 a barrel, and bread at 6 cents per 1 1/4 pound loaf, the rate would be 4 1/2 cents a pound, or three-tenths of a cent a pound more than in the time of the war.

WHY STEAL?

Alex. Findlay Gets $50 a Month From Scotland.

It was announced by the police to-day that Alex. Findlay, who is awaiting sentence for attempting to break into Sidney Fox's house on Locke street south last Saturday night, is "a remittance man." He receives every month from his family in Scotland, $50, which is surely enough to keep a man who pays no taxes and lives in a small bathhouse. He had all kinds of tools in his place which might easily have been used for breaking into houses. He has pleaded guilty to one charge, and the police are working to connect him with others. The tools the police seized are many and varied. They include: Shovel, pickaxe, an ordinary axe, a two-inch augur, crow-bar, large lock, two small planes, stone, hammer, compass, lantern, five files, screw driver, pair of tin-smith's shears, a jimmy, four punches, two spoils of wire, two small wrenches, a gouging chisel, a blacksmith's rasp, and two key-hole saws.

STILL CONFIDENT IN KINRADE CASE.

Police Authorities Look For Sensational Developments at the Adjoined Inquest.

That the Kinrade murder inquest, which came to an abrupt adjournment a month ago, after a series of intensely dramatic incidents, will be productive of some sensational developments when the investigation is resumed in No. 3 Police Station a week from to-morrow night, is the belief of the police, who display an air of confidence that impresses one with the fact that they must have some good reason for their optimistic view.

FORESTERS COMING.

A large party of Foresters from Toronto, and the Royal Foresters Trumpet Band, will accompany the Supreme Chief Ranger, Hon. E. G. Stevenson, to this city for the big reception in the Grand Opera House to-morrow evening.

HUNDREDS HOMELESS.

Much Damage Done by Rochester Conflagration.

Three Churches, Business Block and 40 Houses Burned.

Heavy Downpour of Rain Helped to Put Fire Out.

Rochester, N. Y., April 14.—Revised estimates of the damage caused by yesterday's spectacular fires place the loss at between $400,000 and $500,000. Three churches, an entire business block and forty houses were destroyed, hundreds were made homeless and scores were thrown out of employment by the conflagration, the most serious since the fire of 1904 in the retail dry goods district.

The scores of fires, some accidental and some incendiary, with which Rochester has been afflicted, have resulted in an increase of 25 per cent in fire insurance rates by the State Board of Fire Underwriters. The Common Council of the city has increased the amount of the reward offered for the apprehension of incendiaries from $1,000 to $2,000, although it was practically decided that yesterday's fire was not due to the torch of the firebug.

Throughout the night streams of water were played on the moldering ruins by the firemen, who were relieved at intervals by volunteer organizations. The heavy downpour of rain which began early in the evening and continued most of the night gave assurance of lessening danger from flying embers, but caused much damage to household effects, which had been hastily thrown out of the houses in the path of the flames by the panic-stricken occupants.

Those whose homes had not been materially damaged by the fire were early at work carrying their effects back into their dwellings.

BURRA PUNDIT.

Dress Rehearsal Last Night Was Eminently Satisfactory.

The production at the Grand tonight of the new light opera "The Burra Pundit" is expected to be exceptionally fine. The performers have been rehearsing night and day on account of the unusual order of this up-to-date production and were amply rewarded for their efforts by the satisfactory result of the dress rehearsal, which more than fulfilled the expectations of those in charge. Several musical critics who were present pronounced the music to be far above the ordinary light opera music—unusual and original and of rare beauty.

The music has been composed and orchestrated by Miss Emma R. Steiner, of New York, who will present this evening and will act in the capacity of stage manager. Miss Margaret Macdonald, of Woodstock, the librettist, will also be present. The musical part of the programme will be under the direction of Mr. C. Percival Garratt, of Hamilton, and an unusually fine performance is anticipated.

MADE MERRY.

MacNab Street Church Officials Entertained Congregation.

The members of the Board of Management of MacNab Street Presbyterian Church gave a social last evening, in the school room, for the purpose of bringing together the old and a large number of new members who have recently come into the church. It was quite a novel affair, each person being tagged, and giving the name and place of birth of each, and also a proverb, partners for the evening being decided by similar proverbs. Refreshments were served and a good programme was contributed by Miss Margaret McCoy, Miss Annie Sutherland, Victor Hutchison, W. J. Allen, Geo. Gow, Vera Prensall and Harry McCoy. Mr. Donald McPhie gave a short address of welcome.
