Service & Repairs

ersigned is prepared ake the putting in of rvices in connection own System to Dwell-ther Buildings. Also

TPAIRS

Engines, Mills, Fac-Machinery of all kind. easonable. Satisfacanteed. ON SALKELD.

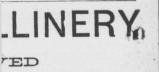

welling Guide. D TRUNK RAILWAY. and depart at Goderich as fo ARRIVE

DEPART. 7.00 a.m. 1.55 p.m. 4.05 p.m ARVELOUS

ISCOVERY and addit greatly sclasse. rith opinions of Dr. Wm. A Hamm-rid famed Specialis in Meas Psychol-sockley, D. Peditors, the Scientist, . Richard Dr. Schwarz, the Scientist, . Richard Science, the Scientist, . Astor, Sain post free by OlSETTE, 237 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

ADES ICNS ! HEM N TOWN. NELL.

75.000.

ATES. in Hats and Bonnets. ERS, FLOWERS 98-3m

A Humorous Speech THE WIDE, WIDE WORLD. The Rev Alexander Gordon, of Bal-

The Rev Alexander Gordon, of Bal-fast, speaking at the recent soirce of the British Foreign Unitarian Association, addressed the audience as "Gentlemen and ladies," and said that when he had the honor of being their representative in Hungary he learned that that was the only right mode of addressing a combin-ed meeting of the rexes, on the principle of keening the best to the last. I to was

A despatch from Everton, Pa., says the rest coal strike has ended in victory for the men who secure an advance of 12 per the men who secure an advance of 12 per tent. The New York police were especially tetive in making arrests for violation of the treise law last Sunday, and reached a total f 108. Dr. Wm. H. Bradley, manager of the Veekly Press, of Philadelphia, has been trested, charged with embezzling over 5,000. John Spever, a Lacrosse, Wis., laborer, re-eived notice last week that a deceased rela-ive in Germany had bequeathed him in Germany had bequeathed him FARM AND GARDEN.

Eleven one-armed switchmen on the Chi-ngo and North-western railway at Chicago, truck for an advance in wages and were accessful in their demands. A San Francisco despatch tells of a move-nent to secure control of all the sugar mar-ets of the world. The capital involved is 100.000,000.

A cablegram states that a treaty between ers remember that hogs ready for mark. masia and Japan has been signed at Tokio et reasonably early in the fall usually sell milar to the treaty recently concluded be at better prices than at any time until after the first of the packing season. after the first of the packing season.

reen Japan and the United States. J. A. Downs & Co., who conduct the larg-t meat and fish business in Portsmouth. N. L, have been attached by their creditors. he liabilities are unknown. The steamer North Star, of Buffalo, was ized at Desroit on Sunday and libeiled for 76,000 for the sinking of the steamer Shef-ld off White Fish Point last June. It Buckhorn, near Peterboro, on Sunday chard Jarvis and Ed. Welsh went out in cance trolling. The lines became entangled the weeds, and in trying to disengage em the cance was upset and Jarvis drown-

THE HURON SIGNAL, FRIDAY, AUG. 16, 1889

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

the recent sensational marriage of Sydney Lawless, son of the ex-manager of the Bank of British North America at different points and Miss Chamberlain, the 20-year-old daughter of a wealthy farmer on the Ayl-mer Road. The knot was tied a few weeks daughter of a wealthy farmer on the Ayl-mer Road. The knot was tied a few weeks ago. At the time it was hinted that an un-willing consent was wrung from the groun The parents of young Lawless also raised a row, as they move in the elite of O'iawa society. Now it is announced that Barrister J. A Gemmill will apply in behalf of Lawless at the next sitting here of the High Court of Justice for an annul-ment of the marriage on the ground of durcas as well as on the ground that the Lawless is 19 years of age. The history of the marring has leaked out Lawless does not deny that he, at well as other young men enjoyed the society of Miss Chamberlain. A couple of wasted to see him that evening. Lawless arrived on time. In the drawing-room he was confronted by an irate father, who, pro-ducing a revolver, told Lawless he hather was confronted by an irate father, who, pro-ducing a revolver, told Lawless he nather was confronted by an irate father, who, pro-ducing a revolver, told Lawless he hather was confronted by an irate father, who, pro-ducing a revolver, told Lawless he hather was confronted by an irate father, who, pro-ducing a revolver, told Lawless he hather was confronted by an irate father, who, pro-ducing a revolver, told Lawless he hather was confronted by an irate father, who, pro-ducing a revolver, told Lawless he hather wate do ta see him that evening. Lawless in poor health, and he has not long sur-libilee, and a great gathering in his honor was held in Edinburgh. He was in poor health, and he has not long sur-libile, and a great gathering in his hor or was held in Edinburgh. He was in poor health, and he has not long sur-ling the accounting the nator cover ling the accounting event of his long sur-ling the accounting weit he as cot long sur-ling the accounting event of his long sur-ling the accounting weit he as cot long sur-ling the accounting event of his long sur-ling the accounting event of his long sur-ling the accounting the mator cover ling the accounting event of his long sur-li duchag a revolver, told Lawless he had the option of having his brains blown out or of marrying the young woman. The young man expostulated, but in vain. Chamber-lain became threatening, but Ritchie, a brother-in-law, interfered. Finally Lawless agreed to marry to save his life. Rev. Mr. Cunningham, an Episco-palian clergyman, was quickly summoned. Learning the age of the pair he refused to perform the ceremony. Then Rev. Mr. Sears was sent for. He also declined to make them one. It was now nearly 1 o'clock in the morning, but Mr. Chamberlain determined to save his daughter's alleged dishonor, brought out his team and coon fable dard fourties and a gurse dard fourties and the same and an the weeds, and in the synch the synch the matter, or had closely observed the full trade. team and the machine move astride the morning, but Mr. Unamoutant is team and the machine move astride the morning, but Mr. Unamoutant the morning and the morning the team and the machine more astride the morning. The morning the team and the machine more astride the morning, but Mr. Unamoutant the team and the morning morning the team and the morning team and the morning team and the machine morning team and the machine morning team and the machine morning team and the team and team and the team and yard of some one who had done so, what s difference it makes in the manure heap b. difference it makes in the manure heap less and his bride parted at the door.

PUT POISON IN HIS TEA. JAMES HICKS' MYSTERIOUS AND PAIN FUL DEATH. Young Plasterer, Taken Suddenly III After Eating a Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives Great Agony at His Home-Detectives After Cold Dinner, Dies in Great Agony at His Home-Detectives Gr

The Oklahoma Boom Forms an instance of a wild rush for an uncertainty, which is just the oppos-ite of the steady boom enjoyed by Bur-dock Blood Bitters. Buyers of this medicine get a certainty—an unequalled remedy for all diseases of the stomach, liver, howels, kidneys and the blood. 2 A Famous Divine Dead. By cable we learn that Rev Dr Hor-atio Bonar, the distinguished Scottish divine and poet, died at Edinburgh, cn Thursday last. Dr Bonar was an able theologian, but he is bast known to Cana-

CHEAP SILVER COMPOSITE. Call and see sample at the store of CRABE Goderich, June 6, 1889. A COOK BOOK FREE By mall to any lady sending us her post office address. Weils, Richardson & Co., Montreal. Spring GREAT VARIETY AND AT PRICES TO SOIT ALL -AT THE TORONTO

7

CARLING'S

ALE & PORTER

the embelishment of rticle in her Milliis selling low.

letter than ever before. ssing Case will be given at $2 or over, and in July 1st. 2202

FEAM DYE WORKS

_INERY ! ERON

tock of the

SI SI YLES est City Styles at town rates, asing, there has not been an oppor-

ring the Busy Season. , off the Square, 97-61

ur niture in town, go to ORDON.

SHADES and the Newest e. JOBBING done cheaply

RIAGES in stock for want of person wanting one I will order on a KING. hirst-class establishment, I am the unty. CHARGES MODERATE.

whether the cows are kept in the stable The Women of Switzerland. one of the women are exempt from field or allowed to be around the yard or pas

None of the women are exempt from field or allowed to be around the yard or pas rk, not even in the families of very sub-ntial peasant proprietors, whose houses furnished as well as any country house in us. All work as regularly as the poor male individual. The land, however, ng their own, they have a choice of work, the hard toilis generally done by thema. b felling and bringing home wood for fuel; wing grass, generally, but not always; carrying manure on their back; the aling horses and cows, digging, and such wing grass, generally, but not always; carrying manure on their back; the alling horses and cows, digging, and such y habour is man's work:—the binding a to a pole with a straw, which is done ee times in the course of its growth; the king of hay, the pruning of vines, and tching off the superfluous leaves and ten-s—these lighter yet necessary jobs to be re about vineyards or orchards, form the nen's work. But if he had raised only 58 bushels to the acre, the cost per bushel would have been 18 cts. Farmers in Dodge County, Wisconsin, make hay and barley their chief crops. Of barley they average thirty bushels to the acre. The hay is principally timothy. Fields that have been cut several years without re-seeding, and without fertiliz-ers, produce from out one and a quarter tons per acre. Pasturing is not allowed, and the aftermath remains as a mulch is every family of the middle or lower sesin Switzerland. One is surprised to see wife of such good, even genteel manners sound sense, and altogether such a surper the strack. Green corn stalks were wife of such good, even genteel manners sesinSwitzerland. One is surprised to see drawn fresh from the held and carefully wife of such good, even genteel manners sound sense, and altogether such a supe-person to her station, and the husband y often a mere lout. "The hen is the bet-bird allover Switzerland."—Dis Wespen. A Woman as a Sexton.

A weman as a sexten. may not be generally known, but it is a attached to the timbers by which the nevertheless, that the sexton of one of pressure was applied. The stack was ville's largest cemeteries is a woman-opened in January, no part of it was un-shelby-who, since the death of her fit to eat, and a very large portion was nd, in 1885, has had sole charge of St. of prime ensilage.

(Catholic) Cemetery, located at y-sixth and St. Cecilia streets. There

Rbeumatic Pains

ow 13,000 dead resting in this grave- Require no description, since, with rare the first grave in which was dug by exception, all at some time have exper-ienced their twinges. Rheumatism is not easily dislodged, only the most in Ireland for the lack which are to not easily dislodged, only the most the United States in 1865. She attands to powerfully penetrating remedies reach all the duties of the position, keeps her own books, records, &c., in a thorough and sysematic matter, and has achieved a most frequently resorted to by medical men, creditable success and made hosts of friends. She has a family of five children, one of whom, a daughter, is married. Mrs. Shelby attends to her duties faithfully, though uffering from the effects of a lightning affering from the effects of a lightning a small cost, as sample bottles of Nervitroke received some time since. She is line can be had at the drug stores for he only woman sexton in this city or State, 10 cents, large bottles 25 cents.

far as known, and one of the very few in s far as known, and one of the very few in his country.—Louisville Ccurier-Journal. Explosion in a Woolen Mill. HESPELER, Aug 8.—An explosion in the whouse of the R. Forbes Co.'s woolen ills here this morning tore of the roof of be gas hais, shattered the walls and seri-inaly injured W. H. Weaver, superinten-ont of the mill, and Machinist Fred were a match for them and kept out of were a match for them and kept out of the way.

Attempted Train Robbery.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 11.-What is supposed to be an attempt at train robbery was made last night on the Iron Mountain Railroad, a mile south of Newport, Ark. Two men got on the train there be-tween the baggage car and the smoker. A fight ensued between them and Bag;age-master Garrity and the colored porter, Andy Crittenden, in which the latter was killed and the former woundthe latter was killed and the former wound-ed. One of the men jumped from the train and escaped, but the pas-sengers and train men, among whom was a detective, captured the murderer and brought him here. He gave his name as D. A. Whitfield of Baxter County, this State. He is about 21 years old. He says he and his partner, Mike Moulders, were out for fun and were only trying to beat their way when the fight came off. Whit eld was heavily armed and appears like a border heavily armed and appears like a border

Crank Orton in Durance Vile.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10. - Azariah Jackson Orton, the "orank" employe of the Custom House who was arrested yesterday for send-ing what are termed scurrilous letters through the mails to President Harrison, through the mails to President Harrison, Jay Gould, Archbishop Corrigan, Henry George and others, waived examination before United States Commissioner Shields to-day, and was committed in default of $2500 to await trial. The man, who appears rational in other resp cts, has a delusion that he is destined to regulate the distribu-tion of wealth and bring about an equality of the world's goods among the "Workers in God's Vineyard."

AMANITOBA SCANDAL.

What a Brandon Paper Says About the Catholic Board of Education.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 11 .-- The Brandon Sun says it has been discovered that the Catholic School Board of Education has retained a large sum of money which has not been applied as voted, and that the Government having decided to get of supplier metil applied as voted, and that the Government having decided to cut off supplies until a satisfactory adjustment is made, the board has paid over $14,000 in cash to the Gov-

The Medical Association were entertained to a war dance by the Indian prisoners at Stoney Mountain yesterday and returning at noon left for Banff.

A Triple Crime

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 11. - A widow named Gillis lived in a remote district of McDowell County with two daughters about grown. They were poor but respect-able. Fridzy neighbors found all three dead. They had evidently been criminally assaulted and murdered. There is no clue to the perpetrators to the perpetrators.

The 1892 World's Fair.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Mayor Creat ap-pointed committees to do the preliminary work for the International Exposition in 1892 this afternoon.

A writer in the Journal and Messenger relates how one "bride-elect" obtained this knowledge just in time. A young lady, to whom John Wilson was engaged, was visiting at his mother's John had a bright little sister, who be-came very foud of the visitor. One day, when they were alone together, the child said, "Miss Jones, I wish you would stay at our house always." The prospective bride, with a sweet blush, responded, "Do you like me so well that yoù would be glad to have me for a sister ?" "You a sister ?"

for a sister ?"

for a sister ?" "Yes," said Anna, "but that's not what I was thinking about. When you are not here, John is horrid. He scolds us little ones, and bangs us about all the time."

time." Miss Jones was startled. She had thought that John was a particularly amiable young man. She had noticed with great satisfaction, how kind he was to the younger children in her presence. Was it possible that all this was put on? She would not for the fugitive from justice.

was put on? She would not for the world marry a man who was really cross and harsh to such a darling as Anna. She determined to investigate the mat-ter. New She would not for the Auclair, a merchant, became insane through loss of sleep, loss of money and anxiety, all springing from the symposium at the Club des Amis, and there are other ter.

ter. She managed to be present, unseen, when John came where the childret, were at play in the barn. As soon as he was near enough to be heard, he cried the Basilica against the club, and adopted was hear enough to be heard, he creet the passica agains the club, and anopeen out, angrily, "you little brats, you have no business here! Get out of the barn this minute, or I'll give you a good trouncing "" trouncing !"

trouncing ?" That was enough for Miss Jones. Such an elder brother would not be likely to make o good husband. The engagement ring was returned, and the bride-elect went home feeling that she had made a providential escape. In Brief. and to the Point. In Brief. and to the Point. tions that members have been known to resign, go up to their religious duties and then rejoin the club. Wherever Malette's story has leaked out it has caused a great sensation, as Erratt was sure to be a candi-date for the Mayoralty again, and this will go a great way toward ruining his chances of re-election. No local paper has yet pub-lished the story, but it is sure to get into print now that The Herald has broken the ice, and will cause a sensation.

ice, and will cause a sensation.

The "Elixir" at Chicago

Dyspensia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to liver is misery. Indugestion is a foe to good nature. The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order. Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bed concerned to be a subset of the subset of the Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, lato hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics. But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy heir meals and be happy. Remember :--No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness at the dyspeptic. Ask your draggist for a dyspeptic. Ask your draggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents. eowly Loved Another Man's Wife.

He who receives a good turn should never remember it. SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 11.—Yesterday John Henning entered the candy store of John Shellers and after a short conversa-tion with Mrs. Shellars drew a revolver and never remember it.

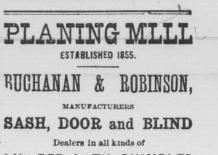

A KEWARD-Of one dozed "TEABER RY" to any one sending the best four lin. rhyme on "TEABERRY," the remarkable little gem for the Teeth and Bath. Ask y a druggest or address vu druggest or address Unlocks all the clogged avenues of the Bowels, Kidneys and Liver, carry-ing off gradually without weakening the ing off gradually without weakening the system, all the impurities and foul humors of the secretions; at the same time Correcting Acidity of the Stomach, curing Biliousness, Dys-pepsia, Headaches, Disziness, Heartburn, Constipation, Dryness of the Skin, Dropsy, Dinness of Vision, Jaumdice, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scrofula, Fluttering of the Heart, Nervousness, and Gen-eral Debility; all these and many other similar Complaints yield to the happy influence of BURDOCK BLOOD BUTTERS.

2. MILBURN & CO., Proprietors, Toronto.

LUMBER. LATH, SHINGLES

And builder's material of every description and the second

1000