

COUNTY CURRENCY.

Items of Interest from over the County.

A Weekly Digest of the County News served up to the Readers of "The Signal," Fifth and Front, Clipped and Condensed from Every Section.

Mr. James Fraser, of Manitoba, a former resident of Blyth, is visiting friends there.

Messrs. Douglas and James McDonald, Seaford, left for Winnipeg on Monday last week.

Mr. F. G. Neelina, Seaford, is confined to his residence by a severe attack of congestion of the lungs.

Miss Sarah Blackwell, of Turnberry, is home from Algoma, where she had been teaching since last spring.

Jas. McIntosh, blacksmith, Brussels, has taken a situation in Listowel at his trade. He is a good mechanic.

On Saturday, 25th ult., there was buried the fifteen-month old little daughter of Mr. J. C. Kincaid, Wingham.

Messrs. Howson Bros., who ran the Teeswater roller mill until it was burnt, have now leased the Wroxteter flour mills.

Miss Mary Elliott, Brussels, has gone to Mitchell, where she is employed in the woolen mill as a loom hand. She is well up to the business.

The bankrupt stock of F. C. Rogers, of Brussels, amounting to $15,219.71, was sold to Mr. Nightingale, of Brussels, for $50c. on the dollar.

John Brennan was presented with a gold headed walking stick and Mrs. Brennan with a clock as a parting gift from their Wingham friends on their removal to Cheley, where they purpose residing.

Mr. Wm. Cameron, of the 13th concession of McKillop, recently killed two pigs, seven months old, one of which weighed 240 lbs., and the other 267 lbs. dressed. They were of the Chester White breed.

Mr. Will Coloton, of Winnipeg, who had been visiting the old folk at Blyth, left on Friday, the 24th ult., for Stratford, accompanied by his sister, Miss Ellen Coloton. Will intends visiting friends in Detroit before returning to the Great North West.

Mr. John Elliott, Ethel, has a very severe attack of inflammation of the lungs and at the present writing she is in a very critical condition. We hope to hear of her speedy recovery. Since the above was put in type we learn that Mrs. Elliott died on Thursday morning.

In a private letter from Mr. L. Thorne, formerly of Seaford, now of Los Angeles, California, he says: "I am doing very well, although business is anything but good here generally." Mr. Thorne's many friends throughout this county will be pleased to hear this and wish him continued prosperity.

Mr. Tennant, a former Winghamite, has been given the situation at the G. T. R. crossing made vacant by the accidental death of M. Storen. Mr. Tennant is another railway man who has suffered severely on the track, last year having both his legs broken. However, he is a young man and well qualified to fill the position to which he has been appointed.

As a demonstration of the amount of sickness throughout, (not only Wingham) but we might say Ontario, we give the following:—A Miss Sparling, of Wingham, was very dangerously sick with typhoid fever. Dr. Chisholm telegraphed to three different places for a professional nurse, but, owing to the great amount of sickness, not one was to be obtained.

While Mr. Andrew Joyat, St. Helens, was coming from Lucknow, the tongue of the rig dropped out of the neckyoke, starting his team to run, throwing him out on the frozen ground, breaking two small bones in his hand, also spraining one of the bones in the forearm, besides a severe shaking up. The horses, when caught, were found to be seriously cut in places.

At the last meeting of the Morris township council the following officers were appointed: Wm. Clark, clerk, salary $125; John Watson, assessor, salary $80 and no extras; Richard Johnston and Wm. Laidlaw, auditors. The reeve, clerk, Thomas Laidlaw, George Hood and W. J. Johnston were appointed a Board of Health, with Dr. T. G. Holmes, of Brussels, Medical Health Officer.

The annual meeting of the Bluevale Cheese and Butter Factory took place Wednesday, the 29th ult. The auditors report showed that the total amount of milk received in 1889 was 2,831,037 pounds; total amount of cheese made, 265,065 pounds; average price for which this cheese was sold per pound, 9.96 cents; total assets of company, $5,350; total liabilities, $1,220. The company is in a flourishing condition and has now in consideration the erection of a gristing mill to be run by the company.

On Sunday evening of last week the wife of Mrs. Peter Cole Clinton, met with a very painful accident while attending the Baptist Church. Some children in the front of the church were misbehaving themselves and she went up to look after them. While so doing she was overcome by the heat and fainted, falling forward and striking her eye on the corner of the seat arm. Her eye and face were instantly swollen up very large and although medical aid was summoned it was not until the next day that they resumed their natural size.

On Friday morning, the 24th ult., a very sad accident occurred at the G. T. R. depot, Wingham, which resulted fatally. When the 6:30 a.m. train was due, old Mr. Matthew Storen was busy clearing the snow from the crossing, and did not notice the approach of the locomotive, which hit and killed him. The deceased was an old man of seventy years of age, and for a long time had held the position of signalman at the said spot; he was also a member of the R. C. church, and his remains were taken to London on the Saturday following.

Mr. Grant, the esteemed teacher of S. S. No. 10, Seaford, is lying very ill at his home in Clinton.

Miss Hannah Hall, Grey, is in Toronto taking a course at the Conservatory of Music. She will no doubt be an apt pupil.

The friends of Mr. H. Andrews, Clinton, will regret to learn that he has paralysis of the spine, with serious tendencies.

The hardware store of Mr. Campbell, of Winnipeg (brother of Mr. Peter Campbell, Stanley), was burned out a few days since.

Mr. Joseph Brackenridge, of Bluevale, has joined the army of benedictines. Miss Rebecca Peacock is the other part in the contract.

Principal Shaw, of Brussels, was taken down with the prevailing influenza and school had to come to a full stop in his department.

Dr. Coleman, of Seaford, has purchased the Brussels salt works and intends working them hereafter. It is said the price paid is $5,500.

A couple of weeks since it was announced that Mr. Jos. W. Mills had sold his farm in Stanley to Mr. Watt, of Oxford. The sale has fallen through, and Mr. Mills has, therefore, the farm still on his hands.

As an index of the state of the public health in this vicinity we may say that Dr. Scott, of this town, on Saturday, Jan. 25th, prescribed for over fifty patients at his office besides outside calls.—Seaford Examiner.

The recent heavy rains undermined the masonry of one of the abutments of the railway bridge at Seaford, and on Sunday of last week workmen were employed, with the aid of an engine, in putting in piles, and otherwise making the bridge secure.

Mr. Peter McLean, son of Mr. Alexander McLean, formerly of Tucker Smith, but now of Tyner, Dakota, who had been visiting old friends in Huron for a couple of months, left for his home on Monday of last week. Mr. McLean is located near Langdon, the county seat of Cavalier county. He says the average crop in that part of Dakota last season was about 15 bushels to the acre.

The Presbytery of Huron held a regular meeting in the First Presbyterian Church, Seaford, on Tuesday, 21st ult. Rev. S. Acheson, of Kippew, was appointed moderator for the ensuing six months. It was decided that there should be an evening sederunt at the next meeting for the purpose of holding a conference on the state of religion and that the subject of the conference should be the last four recommendations of the last General Assembly on that matter. Revs. Dr. Ure, C. Fletcher, D. M. Ramsay and J. H. Simpson were appointed to introduce the various recommendations. Leave was given to the congregations of Edmondville, Bayfield and Bethany to proceed with calls as soon as they are ready.

A circular regarding amendments to the Ontario License Act, suggested by the Presbytery of Ottawa, was referred to the Temperance Committee, to which there were added for this purpose Rev. Mr. Anderson and Messrs. D. D. Wilson and Wm. B. Laidlaw, of Seaford, and Mr. Jas. Scott, of Clinton. The moderator, and Rev. A. D. Macdonald, and P. Musgrove and Messrs. Wm. Fotheringham, S. Carnochan and D. D. Wilson were constituted a presbyterial deputation to visit Bayfield Road and Berne in the interests of that field. Mr. Jas. Scott, Clinton, gave a full report of the Sabbath Schools within the bounds and the thanks of the Presbytery were tendered to Mr. Scott for his diligence. The report of the presbyterial Wm. A. Forster Mission Society was read by Mr. Macdonald and the Presbytery recorded its gratitude to God for the zeal, liberality and devotion of the ladies and its prayer that God will bless them still more abundantly in the future. The next regular meeting is to be held in Willis Church, Clinton, on the second Tuesday of March at 10:30 a.m.—In the evening a meeting was held to consider questions in connection with Sabbath School work, to which the public were invited. The evening was very stormy and cold and the attendance was not large. The moderator occupied the chair. Interesting addresses on Sabbath School work and the connection of the school with the church were given by Messrs. Jas. Scott, of Clinton, James Mitchell, of Goderich, and Rev. Mr. Henderson, of Hensall. The church choir also gave several nice musical selections.

Do You Know It? Wilson's Wild Cherry is a sure cure for Colds, Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough and Loss of Voice. It has been in use for twenty years; gives immediate relief and effects a rapid cure. Children take it freely, its taste being sweet and pleasant. 1m

She was an ordinary mother, having an ordinary pride in her pretty baby. "What, alanna," she whispered softly, as she entered one of our High street dry goods establishments lately. But the baby wouldn't whist nor would he offer any explanation for the exercise he was giving his lungs. She timidly approached one of the young gentlemen clerks and asked of some towels. The conversation leading to the sale of three yards of "crash" was frequently interrupted by the baby. "There, there, alanna," she said in a tenderly subdued tone, at the same time giving the little one a gentle rocking, away motion to quiet it. "Let the baby cry, madama," said the smiling clerk, "it will make him good-looking." A light came into the mother's eyes; it was like a flash, with a pleasant twinkle in it, she replied: "Wish, thin, God knows, 'twas a pity but they didn't let you cry a little."

A Queen Among Women.

The queen of Greece is said to be the finest looking queen in Europe. She is the eldest daughter of Grand Duke Constantine of Russia, brother of Alexander II. She is tall and stately, and looks like a queen. She is a blonde, with brown hair, regular features, and with beautiful neck and shoulders. She dresses very simply except on state occasions, and often goes about Athens without even a escort with her. The queen is a woman of culture, and speaks Russian, Italian, German, French, Greek and English perfectly well, and she is now studying Albanian. The king and the queen have been blessed with seven children, and the youngest is a baby about a year old. Prince Andreas is seven, and the Princess Maria, who is a very bright blonde, is thirteen. Next comes the Princess Alex. drina, a very pretty girl of nineteen, and then Prince George, who is twenty, and last and most important of all the crown prince Konstantinos, the heir apparent, who was born August 2, 1868, and who was at eighteen declared heir apparent to the throne. All these children, save the year-old baby, speak French, English, Greek and Russian, and the home life is said to be charming.

Amberst Acknowledgments. "I acknowledge the good I received from Burdock Blood Bitters. I had constipation, irregular bowels and accumulation of wind, causing severe pain in my stomach. Two bottles of B. B. B. cured me. It is all you claim it to be." ALLAN A. CLARKE, Amberst, N.S.

Every Man a Brick.

Plutarch, in his life of Agesilaus, King of Sparta, gives us the original of this quaint and familiar saying. On a certain occasion an ambassador from Ephesus on a diplomatic mission was shown by the King over his capital. The ambassador knew of the monarch's fame, knew that though only nominally King of Sparta, he was yet ruler of Greece, and he had looked to see massive walls rising aloft their embattled towers for the defence of the town, but he found nothing of the kind. He marvelled much at this, and spoke of it to the King.

"Sir," he said, "I have visited most of the principal towers, and I find no walls erected for defence. Why is this?" "Indeed, Sir," replied Agesilaus, "thou hast not looked carefully. Come with me to-morrow morning and I will show you the walls of Sparta."

Accordingly on the following morning the King led his guest out upon the plains where his army was drawn up in battle array, and pointing proudly to the serried host, he said: "There thou beholdest the walls of Sparta—ten thousand men strong, and every man a brick!"

To Shampoo One's Own Hair.

Half the pleasure of having the hair washed and groomed is to have some one do it who knows how. In England, in the large stores, there is a department of hair dressing where an accomplished barber, with every convenience for showering and drying, will wash the hair of ladies for one shilling. In this country a good shampoo costs from 50c. to $1.00, which is a large sum for so simple an operation. After combing the hair from the hair, braid it loosely and bind the end with a small elastic band. Draw the hair in a basin and first wash the scalp thoroughly with castile soap; then let the hair fall in the water, soap and wash as if clothes. Afterward thoroughly rinse and wring the braid in a towel. Wipe the head dry, and the braid and brush out, beginning at the lower end, when it will not tangle. Let the hair loose in the sun and air and it will dry in less than half an hour. A woman's hair should be washed at least monthly if kept nice and healthy.—New York Evening Sun.

Swimming Niagara. Is an easy way to end life, and suffering dyspepsia to exist is an easy way to make it miserable. Taking Burdock Blood Bitters is an easy way to cure dyspepsia and it never fails to thoroughly tone and strengthen the entire system at the same time.

To make camphor ice with glycerine take of white wax, one half pound; spermaceti, six ounces; powdered gum camphor, three ounces; castor oil, nine ounces; glycerine, one ounce; oil of bitter almonds, one-half dram. Melt the wax and spermaceti, then add the castor oil and camphor. When melted add the glycerine. Stir the mixture constantly until all the ingredients are thoroughly incorporated, then stir in the oil of bitter almonds. Cool enough so as not to separate, pour into suitable moulds.

CANADIANS Work Too Hard!

The Result is Sleeplessness, Nervousness and a Broken-Down System, often Ending in Insanity.

Thousands of overworked business men, weary brain workers, industrial mechanics, and tired women, in all parts of the Dominion are to-day in a terrible position. Their nerves are weak, digestion poor, head aching, and they cannot sleep, work or live in comfort. This is what fills our Insane Asylums. This is the cause of that terrible Paralysis. Before it is too late, use Dr. Phelps' wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound. It removes the results of overwork, restores strength, renews vitality, regulates the whole system, and tones up the overworked brain and body. Do not despair, but use this wonderful remedy, and be restored to health and happiness, the same as was Mr. John L. Brodie, of Montreal, who writes:

"I have great pleasure in recommending your Paine's Celery Compound. My system was run down and I was not fit for business, could not sleep well at night and was nervous. I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound and improved immediately. I am now able to transact my business and endure any amount of excitement without bad effect." Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO., Montreal.
