Keeping One's Dislike to Ones' Self.

BY RUTH CAMERON.

We had rather disagreeable woman who sometimes comes to call on the lady-who-alwaysknows-somehow. Molly, the stenographer la-time to hear her name mentioned. pread out her hands to the open fire. 'Why do you say that, Molly?" ask-

I the lady, a tone of gentle disapoval evident in her voice. 'Because I do," said Molly. Yes, I know you do feel taht way, ut why put it into words," pursued

'Why shouldn't 1?" said Molly. "Isn't it just as well not to?" insisted the lady. "Does it do you any pecial good?" "No," admitted Molly rather reluc-antly, "I don't suppose it does." "And do the nicest people you know he folks you admire the most, go ound telling how they dislike peo-

"Don't know that they do," coneded Molly. "I guess you're right as usual, Lady. I take it all back. Only I don't have to say I like her do I? Because I don't. I just ... Oh dear. I've said it again."

Whereupon the lady laughed with ne rest of us and gave Molly up as

And as the Lady says, you will re alize that the finest people, people who you admire, don't do it. They probably have their dislikes, being human them confidence about them any more than they would about any of their private affairs.

And again, you will notice that suc cessful people, people who have made their way in the world, don't do it They have found it doesn't pay.

If we could train ourselves not to waste energy in dislikes, that would be ideal. Unfortunately to most of us weak human beings, that is impossible. But we can train ourselves to keep our dislikes private. In the words of a humble but very keen in' opinions, but I guess p'haps if we tried pooty hard we could help mentionin' of 'em as frequent as we do."

WOMAN'S WISDOM.

The worried mother wakes up to hear her baby's heavy breathing—a little cough—perhaps the croup or whooping cough. She does not want to send for the doctor when perhaps the trouble does not amount to much. Finally she thinks of that medical book her father gave her, The Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M. D. She says "just the thing to find out what is the matter with the little dear." Two million households in this country own one—and it's to be had for only 31c. in stamps—1,000 pages in splendid cloth binding. A good family adviser in any emergency. It is for either sex. This is what many women write Dr. Pierce—in respect to his "Favorite Prescription," a remedy which has made thousands of melancholy and miserable women cheerful and happy, by curing the painful womanly diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength.

"My desire is to write a few lines to let you know what your valuable medicine has done for me," writes Mrs. MARGARET ZUEBERT, of 323 S. Bentalon Street, Baltimore, Md. "Before the storck came to our house I was a very sick woman. I wrote you for advice which was kindly given and which made me a different woman in a short time. After taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' I began improving so that I hardly knew I was in such a condition. I did my own housework—washing and ironing, cooking, sewing, and the worst of all nursed three children who had whooping cough. I hardly knew of the advent ten minutes before—so easy was it. The baby is as fat as a butter-ball. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for any woman to take when in this condition. I recommend it to all my friends."

Reduce Engineer For Dealing in

Marconi Stock London, Dec. 10.—Signor Marconi, mons. the Marconi Inquiry Comnittee heard Joseph Taylor, engineer charge of the technical section of ircless telegraphy of the Post Ofice Department, describe his dealings n Marconi shares. Taylor admitted he had bought 30 $5 shares on December 21, 1911, as an nvestment. In view of the contract with the government he thought it would be wise to sell his shares and also one hundred shares of the Canadian Marconi Company. The Postmaster-General told the witness that he took so serious a view of his dealings in Marconi stock that e could not allow him to remain in the position he occupied.

The chairman read the report of the Postmaster-General stating that Tayfor had been in the Department twenty-four years. He was reduced in looks easy, and it would be if the weather would stay in the same spot

The first thing Mr. Moore does culation that he is sure to hit it off somewhere. The closer Mr. Moore can get to the weather the more accurate is his aim, and he rarely misses the target entirely.

Despite his geniality of manner ular men in the United States. Nobody thinks of giving a lawn social or an open-air concert or a lawn ten nis tournament without seeing if M: Moore is liable to butt in with thunder storm. Many a Sunda school picnic has been utterly ruin ed and dismantled because the superintendent chose a day which Mr Moore agreed to have clear overhead and dry under foot, only to turn around and deposit six inches of rain the wrong locality.

Mr. Moore entertains the utmos ontempt for the long-distance prothet who can tell just what the wear her is going to do before it gets good start. Mr. Moore has a pair o good eyes himself, but he can't see nore than forty-eight hours in the future, to save his life.

Whenever Mr. Moore meets rand of weather which he has no een before, he calls it "generally 'air." and then waits for results. This is a loose practice, and has aused many a picnic party to return ome in low spirits and several fee of fresh mud.
