Special to The Evening Telegram.
MEXICO City, To-day.
General Huerta intends to quit the Presidency in favor of General Gerardo Trevino and become a candidate in the October elections is the statement made last night by a well known Mexican, close to the administration. General Trevino is making his way to the capital and little effort has been made to disguise the fact that he has been officially summoned to Kustow. How the contemplated succession is to be brought about has not been disclosed. The American exodus appears to be practically at an end. Only a small percentage of the residents of the capital left.

COATCOOK, To-day.

Harry K. Thaw, tried out of Sherbrooke jail on a writ of habeas corpus obtained by the coup of William Travers Jerome, enjoyed three minutes of liberty yesterday afternoon and was then seized by the Dominion Immigration authorities and hustled by auto to this little town, where last night he paced the floor of the Immigration detention room over the Grand Trunk railway station. This morning a special train was to take him to his fate, and by night he may be thrust across the Vermont border as an undesirable alien. The belief was current last night that before many hours Thaw would be back in the Mattawan asylum for the criminal insane, from which he escaped on Sunday August 17. Thaw's chief counsel, J. N. Greenleaf, Montreal, was not present when the writ was sustained yesterday. Last night it was said he was hurrying here to make a last desperate stand, another eminent Thaw lawyer due to arrive was N. K. Langham, also Montreal Thaw, when he was told the inquiry was to be held secret, wrote the question and sent it down to the reporters. "Is it true that English law allows secret trial with a public excluded, when a man's life or liberty is at stake, like in Turkey or Bulgaria?"

MONTREAL, To-day.

The Institute of Legal Underwriters have under consideration the extensive work undertaken by the Canadian Government, for the improvement and safer navigation of the River St. Lawrence and is conferring with Lord's and Marine Insurance Co's with regard to allowing vessels in the Halifax and St. John to go there without additional premium being charged, and are also considering the extension of period during which for a small fixed additional charge, ships may be allowed to trade to St. Lawrence until the end of October. November rates will likely remain unchanged. It is further suggested that for a smaller additional premium than the present could be charged ships making one voyage to those waters.

PHILADELPHIA, To-day.

The address before the American bar Association of Montreal of Viscount Haldane, Lord High Chancellor of England, was an official announcement to the world of the declared policy of the British Government, according to an authorized statement made here by Francis Rawle, one of the leading lawyers of this city Rawle was chairman of the committee that received Lord Haldane's Chancellor upon his arrival at New York from England last week, and was with him while returning from Montreal to New York from where Viscount Haldane sailed on Tuesday night for England. That distinguished British Jurist authorized Rawle to make the announcement. The address in large measure concerned itself with the unity of nations, particularly those of Anglo-Saxon blood, their working together for the good of the world, and its peace betterment. According to Rawle's statement the Chancellor said: "It is official and intended to be so. It is the declared policy of the British Government, announced through my address to the world." It will be published immediately in French, German, Russian and Chinese." Sir Edward Grey, British Foreign Minister, said, went over the address, line for line, stamping its every word with his official approval. According to Rawle, the Lord Chancellor attributed to the Foreign Minister's ability and qualities the solution of the Balkan troubles, declaring his sincerity had persuaded the Foreign Ministers that England had no selfish ends in the settlement of European difficulties. Rawle said the Lord Chancellor, speaking of the States, declared, in fifty years you will undoubtedly be the leading nation in a national sense, and there is no reason to doubt you will be the leading nation in an intellectual sense.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DIPHTHERIA

A Kind Word to the Orphans

"He Who Gives to the Poor Lends to the Lord."

How often, dear reader, have we read or heard those words, and what effect have they had on our generosity? No doubt we have heard them repeated many times, but with our customary indifference we have given them merely a passing notice; we have pondered for a while but soon forgot.

However, as we approach the first Sunday of September, we are annually reminded of the collection to be taken up in the Catholic Cathedral and Churches for Christ's Poor, who are being attended to, and looked after, by the good Sisters of Mercy at Belvedere Orphanage.

In this institution one finds children of all ages. From the child of tender years to the grown up adolescent, who has been deprived of a loving father, or the watchful care of a loving mother, were thrown on the world, and must long ago have gone to ruin, morally as well as physically, were it not for the care of those good Sisters, who have provided a home and a shelter for those poor destitute ones. Surely they are doing a work which money cannot compensate for. They have left the world and all its pleasures. They have voluntarily renounced their home and kindred. They have parted with all that was most dear, in order to follow in the footsteps of the Master, and to look after those who like Him "had not where with to lay their head."

It is beyond question, that there have been made many demands on our people during the year, still I feel sure and have no hesitation in saying, that no demand is so great, no request so urgent, no object so deserving of our consideration and our assistance as the support of the Orphans at Belvedere.

There are in the Orphanage over a hundred children, and to feed, clothe and otherwise attend to that huge family is indeed no easy task. Everyone—at least every head of a family—knows full well how difficult it is to make the two ends meet in the upkeep of the household nowadays. Judge then for yourselves, what the labours of the Sisters must be in order to provide for those who have been deprived of the bread-earner, and thrown on the hard cold world unable to do for themselves.

"The Poor you have always with you." Our Blessed Redeemer has left them as a legacy to His Church, and true to Her charge She has never neglected even the least of that band, but has spared no pains to make ample provision for their upkeep, and to do all possible to alleviate their sufferings and to compensate by Her care and attention for the losses which the poor ones have sustained.

Following the example of our Benign Mother, Holy Church, let us give freely and generously of the world's goods which we may possess, to the Orphanage Collection, and we may rest assured that when the hour of reckoning comes, that He, Who has said "since you have done it to one of these the least of my Brethren you have done it unto Me" will not forget our little sacrifice made for the Orphanage, and will reward us a hundred fold in the Kingdom of Heaven.

—M. P. A.

ROSSLEY THEATRE.

COMING SEPTEMBER 8th.

Rifle Club Notes.

Three interesting competitions took place yesterday afternoon at the South Side Rifle Range. Conditions were difficult owing to a strong "fish-tail" wind, variable, light, and occasional showers.

The Police Medal, presented by the Rifle Club, was won by Constable O'Neill with a score of 78 points; Sgt. Noseworthy being second with a score of 60. Head Constable Shortrow also took part, and Constables Simmonds and Tulk. All shot well, considering that the men had had no previous practice this season.

The contest for the Senior Medal was a very close one, and was only decided by the final shot. Mr. L. C. Mews was the winner with a score of 36 points; Mr. W. H. Rennie being a close second with 35 points.

The Junior Medal was won by Mr. V. Darcey, of the C. C. C., with a score of 71; Mr. T. Horan being second with 68 points.

The scores were as follows:—
200 500 600 Td.
L. C. Mews ..... 29 29 28 86
W. H. Rennie ..... 26 29 30 85
E. Macnab ..... 30 26 26 82
V. Darcey ..... 25 29 17 71
T. Horan ..... 24 24 20 68
L. Kennedy ..... 27 23 15 65
J. Murphy ..... 24 22 7 53
Our old friend, George Curry, who is coaching the C. C. C. team for the Governor's prize, also took part, but his score being below 100 points, he declines to have it made public.

Next Wednesday will be the last competition for this season, and during the forenoon the Donegal Badge and Club Consolation Prize will be shot for. In the afternoon the B. C. Hendell (handicap) prize at 300, 300 and 1000 yards will be competed for.

Wonderful Enthusiasm

At Old Perlican and Grate's Cove.

REJOICING AT SIR ROBERT'S DECISION.

Special to Evening Telegram.

OLD PERLICAN, Yesterday.
The F.P.U. held a meeting last night on the arrival of President Coaker from Grate's Cove at 9. A large number attended and important business was considered. The union's activity in buying fish and berries and the supplying of coal by the steamer Kintail at nearly two dollars a ton less than local price, and the news of the coalition between Liberals and the Union caused a wonderful enthusiasm. Five sought admission to the ranks last night. The onward march of the Union will sweep everything before it in this district and there will be a change of over fifty voters here this election from Grabbillan to the Liberal-Union forces. Our 'Advocates' posted last Saturday have not yet arrived here. We ask the Postmaster General Woods to give us fair play and to see that the Advocates are sent us regularly when posted. All over the district the cry is where is our Advocate. Mr. Hickman passed

Mr. Coaker to Bay

The Co-operation of Liberal and Union Forces is Immensely Popular Throughout the District.

President Coaker left town on Monday evening to visit Bay de Verde Council of the F.P.U. He was accompanied by Mr. A. E. Hickman, the principal partner in the fish buying firm of Smith & Co. They arrived at Freshwater on Monday night after having made stops at Clarke's Beach, and Bay Roberts. Tuesday morning they visited Flat Rock and called upon several friends and having arranged business with the Council passed on down the District stopping at Broad Cove, Western Bay, Northern Bay, Ochre Pit Cove, Burnt Point, Lower Island Cove, Job's Cove, Caplin Cove. Meetings were held at Grate's Cove and Old Perlican on Tuesday night and Bay de Verde yesterday morning. Returning yesterday stops were made at all the above places and reports of meetings held the previous night, and at each place crowds gathered to give the visitors a hearty welcome. The District was decorated with bunting and Union motes. At one settlement a large motto placed along the road contained the following significant words: "Patsy Eats Crow," and immediately underneath a large crow was attached which had been killed that day for the purpose. The people fired volleys of musketry and the cheering of men and women showed the delight the living visit of these two friends of the toilers gave them. The meetings held were attended by every man present in these settlements belonging to the Union. At Bay de Verde a crowded hall gathered at 10 a.m.

And is a True Test of the Union interest in their affairs, for times are very busy at Bay de Verde. The fishermen, however, left their work and formed a great parade which met Mr. Coaker a mile from the town and escorted him in amidst great enthusiasm. The co-operation of the Liberal and Union forces is immensely popular throughout Bay de Verde District and the fishermen expressed their confidence in many ways. One F.P.U. Woods for the non-delivery of the Advocate of last Saturday. Mr. Coaker was only received Wednesday, and then at a very few places. The Telegram and other papers were received Monday and Tuesday, but the Advocate which had been simply heapied in the Post Office here for days or deliberately kept back in order to prevent it reaching its subscribers, until a week old. The to the notice of His Excellency the Governor and ask him for protection against such recalcitrance. Mr. Coaker
