Ready for Intervention.

It is clear from the cable messages of this morning that the United States recognizes that the action of seizing on Tampico and Vera Cruz and the blockading of ports on the Atlantic and Pacific borders of Mexico will likely lead to a regular invasion of Mexico. Yesterday after a two hours' debate, the House approved of President Wilson's proposal to use the armed forces of the nation to obtain from Provisional President Huerta the fullest recognition of the honour and dignity of the flag of the United States. It will be remembered that President Wilson demanded that the Mexican Government should apologize for arresting marines of the United States Navy, who were ashore on business of the State and in uniform, and should make reparation by saluting the U. S. flag by firing twenty-one guns. Huerta apologized, and expressed willingness to fire the salute of 21 guns, on condition that the U. S. Admiral returned the salute gun by gun. President Wilson rejected the condition, and demanded that the salute be fired unconditionally and that the response would be left to the discretion of the U. S. Admiral. Huerta tried to wriggle out of the difficulty by asking that the matter be referred to the Hague. President Wilson declined on the ground that a matter which affected the honour of his nation was not such a subject as could with dignity be referred to arbitrators, and intimated that the patience of the U. S. administration was exhausted. President Wilson then asked for the authorization of Congress for his contemplated action. The vote yesterday stood in his favour 337 to 87.

In the Gulf of Mexico or en route thither there are nearly 23,000 sailors, marines and officers; and off the Pacific Mexican ports or en route thither about 4,600 on battleships, cruisers and torpedo destroyers.

The intention is to seize Vera Cruz and Tampico, to blockade other ports and to hold the railroad bridge 75 miles from Vera Cruz in order to stop transportation of supplies to Huerta at Mexico from seaports.

Conflict between Mexican forces and those of the United States may lead to a general invasion, and in preparation for this arrangements have been perfected for calling into service 200,000 volunteers. Should this step become necessary and both Federal and Constitutionalists turn on the U. S. forces a long and bloody warfare may follow.

Southern Mexico is a particularly difficult country to invade as it is very mountainous and these fastnesses are easy of defence and difficult of attack. The chief advantages of the United States are command of the sea and the power to isolate Mexico, and an abundant supply of money and all that money can purchase in the way of war supplies and general commissariat.

It may be, however, that Huerta is playing for a fall. He may prefer to succumb to a first class power, such as the United States, rather than wait to be gradually reduced by Villa and the Constitutionalists, and thus in some measure save his face. The next few hours may force Huerta to show his hand.

LONDON, To-day.
S. R. Crockett, novelist, is dead.

BERLIN, To-day.
The German press, as a rule, is remarkably sparing in comments on the Mexican situation.

MEXICO, To-day.
Huerta said this morning, Mexico wants with real urgency the development of events, growing out of the controversy with the States.

LONDON, To-day.
King George and Queen Mary, accompanied by a large staff, including Sir Edward Grey, Foreign Secretary, his Private Secretary, Sir William Tyrrell, left for Paris to-day to pay a State visit. They crossed the English Channel from Dover to Calais on board H.M.S. Alexandra, conveyed by British and French warships.

VERA CRUZ, To-day.
Huerta, last night, ordered General Maas to place for him defence forces and establish a strong colony on the island in front of Vera Cruz. That Brian will use every effort in her power to prevent hostilities between the States and Mexico by imploring Huerta to alter his attitude, and accede to the demands of President Wilson, became known yesterday through the unexpected arrival from Galveston, of Sir Lionel Garden, diplomat. He came on the British cruiser, Berwick.

Buffalo, N.Y.
"I have been a Pullman conductor on the C. P. R. and Michigan Central for the last three years.
About four years ago, I was laid up with intense pain in the groin, a very sore back, and suffered most severely when I tried to urinate.
I treated with my family physician for two months for Gravel. In the bladder but did not receive any benefit. About that time, I met another railroad man who had been similarly affected, and who had been cured by GIN PILLS, after having been given up by a prominent physician who treated him for Diabetes. He is now running on the road and is perfectly cured. Hastily advised me to try GIN PILLS which I did—with the results that the pains left me entirely."

MACOM, Sask., To-day.

Seven persons were killed and 8 injured, in an explosion in a gas plant at Macom Hotel.

LONDON, To-day.

Early next month the Poulsen system of wireless will be in operation between Britain and Canada. Two stations, one at Bally Bunton, County Kerry, Ireland, the other at Newcastle, N.B., now being fitted with powerful apparatus. The new company proposes to give a public service at eight cents a word, press four cents.

The company under contract with the Canadian Government is the Universal Radio Syndicate. Under this arrangement all the British Empire telegraphic route will be complete.

MEXICO CITY, To-day.

Newspapers of the federal capital restricted themselves to a brief comment on the statement given out by the Foreign Minister, devoting themselves chiefly to expressions of approval of the attitude taken by the Mexican Government. "El Imparcial" declared Huerta has given high proof of his discretion, and loyalty, and concludes a people like the man should prefer death to dishonour. "El Pais" said the Tampico incidents as reason for war was infamous and as basis for assertion of a right of retaliation. It adds in these solemn moments serenity is the only thing that can save us, but should the time come to show ourselves patriots, it is indispensable to unite facing death.

PARIS, To-day.

A disposition exists here to remain detached from the events in Mexico, unless incidents should arise directly concerning France. The Bourse, however, is depressed not only as regards Mexicans, but most other securities.
