This would be extended to what would be virtually a guardianship of the smaller nations, applying to them the principles which govern participation in the League by their greater gitters. This plan it is govern participation in the League by their greater sisters. This plan it is apparently proposed to internationalise the guardianship of small nations with the idea that there shall be no domination over them by one nation, economically or financially. Aside from the attention being paid to the Russian situation the society of nations is now in an advantageous position and steady development may be expected.
