

The Braes of Yarrow

An Historical Tale of the Sixteenth Century.

'How guess you that.' 'Because when I parted with him he was dressed as you are in a black cloak and bonnet without a feather. I had not courage enough to warn you of this while we were still within that man's reach.'

CHAPTER XLIX.—THE PRIORY OF ST MARGARET. 'With bitter strokes it both began and ended: She at the first encounter on him ran with furious rage, as if she had intended Out of his breast his very heart had rended, But he, that had like tempests often tried From that first flaw himself right well defended. The more she raged the more he did abide; She he'd, she foy'd, she lash'd, she laid on every side. Yet still her blows he bore and her forbore, Weening at last to win advantage new.'

Mistress Douglas, all unperceptions of the treachery to which she had fallen victim, accompanied her false guide without again questioning him as to the route they travelled. The farther they advanced, however, the more she became convinced that they could not be progressing northward. The conviction sprung from her remembrance of the course they had taken in starting, and she could not recollect that they had yet altered the course by any turn.

A number of German Emigrants returned from the Western States on Monday and intend settling near Ottawa. The great Trade Sale of Messrs. Thomas Griffith & Co., wholesale grocers, Toronto, will take place to-morrow.

A vote was taken of the Township of Caledon on Monday on the passing of a by-law granting a bonus of $45,000 to the Toronto, Grey and Bruce Railway, when it was carried by a majority of 180.

Remember the Missionary Meeting in the Wesleyan Church this evening. It will be one of the most interesting of the kind ever held in Guelph. A number of very talented speakers will address the meeting.

FOR THE LAND OF THE FREE.—Mr. John W. Armstrong, of Eramosa, has returned from a visit to Missouri. He purchased 320 acres of land in Shelby Co. in that state, 270 acres of which are under fence. He intends to remove thither before long.

THE VICTORIA STEAM WASHER.—We have much pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to this really valuable patent, which is shown here for the first time. This boiler cleanses clothes entirely without labour. The water, suds and steam are forced through the clothes from the bottom and then drawn back again, this continued for a short time removes the dirt entirely. As the improvement can be put in any boiler at a trifling cost and is really effective, it must meet with extensive favour. The boiler is in operation at Coulson's Hotel to-day.
