A London Lady Goes to Toronto to Visit a Sick Sister and Dies Ecrsolt in a Weck.

Emma, wife of James Leslie, of the express office, died yesterday at Toronto, where sie had gone on a visit to a sick sister. Deceased was the daughter of Alex. Moorhead and sister of Charles G. Moorhead, of this city. For many years she was a popular member of the Tabot Street Baptist Church choir. A week ago she had gone to Toronto to attend the sick bed of her sister, Mrs. Jas. Henderson, me Miss Lizzie Moorhead, who is now convelescent, though still very weak. Mrs. Leslie, however, after her arrival in Toronto, complained of grip, and though the best medical aid was in attendance her condition became critical, and her husband was talcaravid for Scholing workers. medical aid was in attendance her condition became critical, and her husband was telegraphed for. She died yesterday, very deeply lamented by a large circle of friends in the city. Her body arrived to-day on the noon train, and the funeral will take place to-merrow. Heart failure was the ultimate cause of death.
