Wrecker Hackett Wins His Case. AMHERS: BURG, April 10 .- The Northern Steamship Company is hit hard in the result of the schooner Fayette Brown case, which was made public to-day. Some three years ago the Fayette Brown was sunk on Lake Eric by one of the (MERCHANT TAILORS.) company's steamers. F. B. Hackett SPRING OVERCOATINGS and SUITINGS. undertook the job of wrecking. The steamship company sued Hackett last fall, and the case was tried before Justice Falconbridge, at Sandwich. The justice referred to F. E. Marcon, of Windsor, to ascertain what amount was due Hackett for services in connection with the wreck. The muster's report has just been made and awards Hackett $8,408. This will throw the cests of the reference on the Northern Steamship Company also, which will be between $7,000 and $8,000 more.

WORK AND WAGES.

How a Detroit Merchant Managed His Striking Men.

A Big Labor Lockout in Chicago in Prospect-Detroit Types Boycott a Theater Manager.

TORONTO, April 10.-T. V. Powderly, for many years grand workman of the Knights of Labor, delivered temperance addresses at the Pavilion both in the afternoon and evening Sunday. In the course of his address Mr. Powderly related a very rate, according to the provisions of section 612 interesting story of a Detroit merchant and of "The Municipal Act" (consolidated 1892), upon the real property to be benefited by the chant had admitted to him that when there chant had admitted to him that when there said works respectively, separate assessments to be made for each work. A tile drain on Duchess avenue, commencing at a distance of 1:0 feet west of Wortley road, and running westerly on Duchess avenue to the creek.

And the principal of the property to be benefited by the said works respectively. Separate assessments was any discontent in his factory he sent for a few men with influence over their fellows and gave them $15$ apiece. These men the property of the present them took the grumblers to the nearest then took the grumblers to the nearest be | saloon and got them exceedingly drunk, so that when the time set upon for a strike came none of the leaders were on hand for action. "Thus," said the merchant, "I head off every strike with an outlay of $20 to $40. CHICAGO, Ill., April 10.—There is a strong probability that the employers of labor in the various building trades will declare a lock-out by Wednesday and throw from 60,000 to 100,000 out of work.

NOTES. The convention at Scottdale, Pa., on Saturday, resulted in a decision to continue the strike. The Detroit Typographical Union held a meeting Sunday afternoon and the boycott placed upon C. J. Whitney's three theaters by the theater mechanics was indorsed. A resolution was adopted placing a fine of $5 upon any member found patronizing any of them. The political action mapped out by the Trades Council was also indorsed. Three Seal Hunters Drowned. VICTORIA, B. C., April 10 .- The British teamer Empress of Japan arrived this afternoon and reports the loss of three hunters from the sealing schooner Agnes Macdonald. The men belong in Victoria.
