DETROIT WON FROM CHICAGO

Tigers Beat the Cubs By 2 to 1 in a Good Game.

CLEVELAND WON TWO

Took a Double-Header From St. Louis-The Scores of Two Days.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—With Ty Cobb missing from the lineup, the Tigers took Comiskey's rapidly slumping White Sox Into tow this afternoon, 2 to 0. Usually when Cobb is among those present, about 5,000 fans turn out on Sundays to see the Georgia Peach perform. Today there were not more than 12,000 of the faithful on hand.

Mullin, who worked for the Tigers, had be Indian sign on the South Siders, two videly-scattered hits being the best they could collect during the afternoon. While Mullin was going along at top speed, Olmstead, for Comiskey's crew' wasn't doing so badly himself. The Tigers never did manage to bunch more than one hit in any one inning, their runs coming in the first round on a base on balls, a collision of outfielders, and a triple by

Crawford, which sent one of the run Felix Chouinard, a young outfielder, from Green Bay, Wisconsin, who reported to Comiskey yesterday, was given a try-out in today's encounter with the Tigers. Delehanty was left in a Cleveland hospital as a result of an accident which oc-curred on Saturday, Charley O'Leary fill-ing in at second. The score:
