EXPECT MAY-DAY ROW Montreal's Building Operations May Be Tied Up.

Montreal, April 17.—Prespects—are not very bright for a satisfactory ending of the negotiations under way between the building trades and the Builders' Exchange, according to the delibers of the respective productions. delegates of the trades and labor counwho had been dragged from the cloth who had been dragged from the cloth thought by the leaders or the Socialistic Labor party that hadding operations in Montreal will be completely paralyzed.

The corpenters, joiners, painters, The corpenters, joiners, painters, decorators, plumbers, steamfitters and electrical workers all wast more wages and improved conditions. At a meeting of labor men it was said that the master carpenters and joiners were willing to accede to an increase in wages, but would not agree to all the demands. In the case of the plumbthe demands. In the case of the plumbers and decorators, and electrical workers, the employers have declared to operate open shops, and the demands of the men will not be considered.

The question of forming a federation of all trades in the building line will be considered at the next meeting of the Montreal trades council.

been given by the Government for the passage through the Canadian canals ductions in the rate on wool manufactures.

Soon after the enactment of the Payne-Aldrich bill President Taft, in his speech at Winona, Minn., denounced the wool rehedule as indepensible, although he declared that the tariff law was, as a whole, one of the best of the kind ever passed by Congress.

In advocating a revision the House Democrats will use the President as their principal witness, This is the belief to stir up more or less trouble among the Republicans.

There is a good deal of speculation here as to the length of the special session called on April 4.

Senatorial Deadlock.

Present indications are that getaway on will come scource than was expectation.

[Canadian Press.]
Chicago, Ill., April 17.—Four women and two men were arrested for pelting the Rev. Sergius Bazilevitch, pastor of a Russian Greek Orthodox Church, with eggs, during the services yesterday. While the clergyman's head was bowed in prayer a shower of eggs was directed at him from the rear of the church. Half a dozen broke against his face and body and spread over his vestments. Police rescued the minister, who had been dragged from the church by members of his congregation. The trouble was the outgrowth of a fend between church officials and the congregation, caused by the removal of

MINISTER'S SON ILL

Perry Graham Lies Unconscious and Is Not Expected to Recover.

Brockville, April 17. — Perry M. Graham, the youngest son of Hon. G. Graham, minister of railways and anals, lies at the general hospital in an unconscious state, and the doctors nattendance say ne cannot live.

Hev. Mr. Maconachie, formerly Presbyterian minister, but now agent for the Children's Aid Society at Kingston, was in the city today paying a visit to Inspector Sanders to obtain information regarding the work here. So far as his investigations have gone, he is well pleased with the arrangements made for the care of children in London.

an unconscious state, and the doctors in attendance say he cannot live.

Mr. Graham, who was representing the Brockville Evening Recorder in the press gallery at Ottawa, came, home ten days ago, ill with jaundice, which did not develop serious symptoms until Friday.

His father was summoned from Ottawa last night, a few hours before his removal to the hospital.

Mr. Graham is about 25 years of age and unmarried. He figured prom-
