MORE SPEAKERS LEND THEIR AID

Fifty Will Give Addresses For the Welfare Fund Cause, Commencing Shortly.

WILL ATTEND MEETINGS

to the committee of speakers for the asked to contribute. United Welfare Fund, which is to be March 31 and the following week. Fifty or more well-qualified speakers are being selected from the community service agencies affiliated

The London auxiliary of the C. N.

R. was called out this morning shortly aften ten o'clock to Long-wood where a freight train travelling towards London was halted when the trucks on one of the cars were derailed and directed by the committee named above.

Already these organizations are calling for speakers, and it is believed that all whose meetings occur during the rest of the month will wish to have the interest of their members freshened by the re-telling for the story of the fourteen vital community service agencies affiliated
