

OIL PLANT BOGEY AGAIN LIFTS HEAD

Armstrong Uses Old Plea As
West Lambton Tories
Name Lesueur.

Special to The Advertiser
By a Staff Correspondent.

Sarnia, Sept. 20.—West Lambton Conservatives on Saturday unanimously gave the party nomination to R. V. Lesueur, M.P., who won the 1921 election for the first time in 25 years. No other name went before the convention, which was attended by about 300 and lacked nothing in its displays of enthusiasm. If there was any fear on account of the probable Liberal-Progressive fusion, it was not discussed, though the delegates and his lieutenants warned the delegates they would have to work to win and not lose.

Mr. Lesueur gave an able address, in which he foretold a Conservative accession to power, the connection of the Liberal administration during its term of office. He claimed that while the United States and other countries had effectively improved the post-war difficulties, Canada had done nothing in this regard in the last four years. He was accorded very hearty applause.

Wilfred S. Haney, M.L.A. for West Lambton, spoke briefly about the war, and suggested that the connection of Canada with the empire was in danger if the Liberal administration continued.

J. E. Armstrong, Conservative candidate in East Lambton, might have done the neighboring riding cause some harm if the meeting had been other than Conservative. One could sense the awkwardness when he started to raise the old 1921 bogey about Imperial Oil, Limited, moving across the St. Clair river. Everyone in Sarnia knows that concern is building still and generally enlarging its plant here.

Donald Sutherland, M.P. of South Oxford, went into an exhaustive attack of the King administration with the last speech of the afternoon.

QUEBEC FARMER SHOT, FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED

Reported As Hunting Accident,
Police Believe Man
Murdered.

Quebec, Sept. 18.—Detective Roussin of the provincial police department, left this afternoon for St. Agathe, Lotbiniere county, to undertake an investigation into the death of Francis Fournier, farmer and mayor of the parish. Fournier was reported to have been the first victim of a hunting accident. It is understood that developments have led the police to believe that Fournier was the victim of foul play. Fournier was at work in the fields with his son when suddenly a shot was heard from the neighborhood woods. Young Fournier turned in the direction of the sound just in time to see his father fall to the ground.

George Black, Conservative member in the last house, is again a candidate, and is now conducting his campaign.

TETRAULT STAYS OUT.
Canadian Press Despatch.
Montreal, Sept. 19.—Albert Tetrault,

M. L. A. will not leave the field of provincial politics to enter the federal arena. When the statements current to that effect, which were attributed to his intentions in regard to St. Denis division, were brought to his notice yesterday afternoon, he flatly denied them.

BUT IT TOOK AN EXPRESS?
Canadian Press Despatch.
Sackville, N. S., Sept. 19.—Premier King and Right Hon. Arthur Meighen crossed at the small New Brunswick station at Aurac this morning. Mr. King was proceeding from Halifax to Charlottetown, Mr. Meighen from Charlottetown to Amherst. But the two leaders did not meet. KENT CONTESTED BY PROGRESSIVES

J. W. Ward of Highgate
Named in Three-Cornered
Fight.

Special to The Advertiser
By Staff Correspondent.

Chatham, Sept. 20.—J. W. Ward, of Highgate, former warden of Kent county, and who was the consumers' representative on the natural gas board of reference, was chosen candidate of the Progressive party at a convention of the Kent Farmers' Political association Saturday afternoon.

His candidacy makes certain a three-cornered fight for the riding of Kent, with Dr. J. W. Rutherford as the Liberal standard-bearer, and Alex D. Chaplin as the Conservative nominee.

Four others were nominated. They were: D. R. McDermid, of Howard township, who contested the seat in the last federal election; S. R. Montgomery, of Dover, president of the association; W. M. Abraham, of Chatham township, and John Forsythe, of Chatham township. McDermid was the only one of the four to allow his name to go before the convention. The vote was 46 to 19 in Ward's favor.

Promises Economy.
In accepting the nomination, J. W. Ward declared that economy should be the watchword of ever parliamentary representative. He thought that the caution displayed by the county council in the matter of expenditures should be practiced by both provincial and federal governments. Referring to the Liberal and Conservative candidates, Mr. Ward declared that they had never given any public service, but that fact, apparently, did not worry the old parties. He was of the opinion that elected representatives should be men with some experience on public bodies. With the old parties, the speaker declared, was a question of "who has the most money." While he was not in the wealthy class, he believed, with a loyal support of the farmers, that he could win the riding.

A. K. Hodgins, M.P., of Hinton, convention. He directed criticisms at both Premier King and Hon. Arthur Meighen, and the parties they headed, asserting that the old governments had involved the country deeply in debt. He advocated direct taxation as one method whereby governments would be compelled to practice economy, asserting that with such a tax system, the people of the land would be constantly reminded how their money was being spent.

To Bear Expense.
Considerable time was taken up at the convention with discussing matters pertaining to the financing of the campaign. It was a matter which the executive of the Farmers' Political association decided should be settled before a candidate was nominated. The delegates and members of the party pledged themselves to supply the financial aid by purchasing "shares" in the association. S. R. Montgomery presided over the convention, which was largely attended, all parts of the riding being represented.

UNION THREATENS SOFT COAL STRIKE

Miners in West Virginia Fields
Expected To Join
Walkout.

Associated Press Despatch.
Washington, Sept. 19.—The chief feature of the coal situation today is the threatened strike of union soft coal miners in the northern West Virginia field. United Mine Workers union officials plan a strike there September 25 in the hope of crippling the production of bituminous coal, and thus reinforcing the anthracite strike. The situation is looked on with apprehension by government officials, who fear many non-union miners may be induced to walk out.

A department of commerce statement calls attention to the large increase in exports of Welsh anthracite to Canada. During the first seven months of this year the total was 243,095 tons, or more than double the similar period last year.

CITIES UPHOLD MINERS.
Associated Press Despatch.
Philadelphia, Sept. 20.—Mayors and burgesses of 60 cities and boroughs of the anthracite region of Pennsylvania have sent letters to the mine owners urging them to grant their employees the check-off, said a statement issued tonight by the United Mine Workers.

The last seen of the wolf in the Port Talbot district was Friday, following the hunt. Friday evening, a sheep belonging to Neil Munroe was killed, while later the same evening the throaty call of a wolf was heard by Colin McIntyre, in the same district.

When last seen Friday, the wolf was heading down the gully running parallel to the Scotch road.
