FRENCH DRIVE GERMANS BACK BY BRILLIANT BAYONET CHARGE

WAR NEWS HAS BEEN VERY MEAGRE
Censorship Very Strict on News
From Seat of War.—Armies Massing

During the past week very little has been received in the way of real war news.
The Graphic bulletin boards, which contain the latest news, are posted at the Post Office each day as received and are eagerly read by all.
When news is of sufficient importance a bulletin containing all the details is published and sold on the streets, meeting with a ready demand.
As no news of importance has been received since Saturday, none has been published, but they will be resumed as soon as anything of importance comes through.
The Graphic is also supplying outside parties with the latest news by phone. Anyone outside Campbellton, wishing to get the latest news should call up the Graphic Office between 4 and 5 o'clock each afternoon.

NEWS OF BIG BATTLE HOURLY EXPECTED

News From Alsace Is Conflicting But Seems to Indicate French Hold Meulhausen

(Special to the Graphic).
New York, Aug. 12.—A special cable brings the news of the concentration of the opposing armies on the continent in the vicinity of Namur and the outcome of a battle would be very momentous.
The news from Alsace-Lorraine is conflicting, but the last word is that the French have succeeded in holding Meulhausen. In this direction the fighting so far has not been of a serious nature.

OCEAN ROUTE NOW CLEAR TO LIVERPOOL

(Special to the Graphic).
Ottawa, Aug. 12.—An announcement of significance was authorized by the Canadian Government. This was that the ocean was clear from Montreal to Liverpool, which is taken to mean that the German cruisers not accounted for have either been located, safely bottled up or have been destroyed.

The North sea is now clear for shipping and that steamship services have been resumed. The British cruiser Drake has entered the St. Lawrence for protection of the Canadian shipping.

(Special War Despatch)
St. John, Aug. 13th.—Matters in the North Sea are still shrouded in mystery and no news of any kind has been issued to the press.

From an authoritative source it is learned that a big naval battle is expected hourly in the Adriatic sea, where the British and French warships are making a demonstration against the Austrian fleet.
Success still attends the Bel-

BRITISHERS SHOW GRIT AND NOT FLAG FLAPPING

Fifty Thousand People Sing Hymns Before Buckingham Palace

Last Sunday saw England in prayer.
Fifty thousand people on Sunday evening assembled around Buckingham Palace singing "Oh God Our Help in Agony" with wonderful solemnity, before the King and Queen on the front in inspiring, particlarly the county district. "You didn't try to keep him back" said a friend who witnessed a girl laughingly bid her lover good-bye, "Never" came the reply. "He'd never marry me if he didn't fight for the King now." Mothers assemble in the market places cheering their sons as they march off. "Do your duty my lads," they shout in farewell. The tears are kept back until the lads are gone.
This is the universal spirit.

enough men and officers trained in commission at
