

The window arrangement is such as to best accommodate the material bins and shelves without interference with good lighting.

The storehouse is located parallel with the main locomotive shop. The space between these two buildings is spanned by a high-speed travelling crane, which can be

