TO CORRESPONDENTS.

The "thoughts on" Imagination and the article of Hope are much too important to find admittance in the Enquirer.—Our kind and useful correspondent G. S. we trust, will produce something more new & original for the next number. Our Work having already been complained of by numerous readers as entering rather too minutely, dry, detail, and is not presenting sufficient of interesting matter so requisite and essential to the advancement of a rising Colony.—The Editor's inclination, desiring him to accede to the wishes of so respectable a portion of his readers, he must for the future request, that all communications forwarded to him for insertion partake more of the Title and nature of the Work.
