

This Advertisement is of interest to YOU, whether you are a Senior scholar or a Sunday School teacher. If a Senior scholar, you will likely want to prepare to teach in the Sunday School. If you are already a teacher in the Sunday School, your desire is to become a better teacher.

THIS new series of Teacher Training Handbooks follow the course and plan recently agreed upon by the Sunday School Council, representing thirty different denominations in Canada and the United States; and the International Sunday School Association.

The list is as follows: each writer is an expert.

THE PUPIL—By Professor L. A. WEIGLE.

THE TEACHER—Same Author.

TEACHING VALUES IN THE LIFE OF CHRIST—By Rev. W. C. BARCLAY, D.D.

THE SCHOOL—By Rev. J. C. ROBERTSON, B.D.,
General Secretary of Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies.

—PRICE, EACH BOOK, 20c. POSTPAID—

DIPLOMAS are given for this course by the General Assembly's Board of Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies. It is desired by the Board that a Teacher Training Class shall be formed in connection with every Sunday School. The books may also be studied as a substitute for the regular Lesson in Senior Classes in the School, or by individuals in their homes.

Presbyterian Publications

The Publications Committee of the Presbyterian Church in Canada
CHURCH AND GERRARD STREETS. TORONTO