Sparkles.

At a Far Rockaway Hotel: Fastidious traveller: What can I have for dinner, waiter? Irish waiter: Ye can orther fwat ye plase, sor. Fastidious traveller: Oh, then I'll have some consomme soup, a bit of salmon, a little entree to follow, what joint you may have hot, and I'll have some dessert, some cheese, [and I'll have—Irish waiter: Will ye, now. Then ye'll just have eggs and bacon—what ye're used o.

R. FELLOWS, M.D., of Hill, N.H., says that he has made use of WIS-TAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for several years, and it has proved to be very reliable and efficacious in the treatment of severe and long-standing coughs. He says that it saved the life of at least one of his patients.

NEW YORKER: You are a stranger here, I presume? Chicago man (haughtily): I am from that great city that New York is jealous of. New Yorker: Ah! and how are things in dear old Lunnon?

MAMMA: I hope my little boy, while dining with friends, remembered what I told him about not taking cake the second time? Little boy: Yes, mamma, I remembered and took two pieces the first time.

DEAR SIR,—I suffered for three days very severely from Summer Complaint, and could get no relief, but kept getting worse till the pain was almost unbearable and I was very weak. After everything else had failed I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. The first dose gave relief, and it did not fail to cure me.

WM. T. GLYNN, Wilfred, Ont.

ONE day at luncheon Mamie was very greatly delighted with some honey which had been sent her by a friend who lives in the country and keeps bees. After eating awhile in silence she exclaimed: "Doesn't Mrs. Lep-ley teach her bees to make nice honey."

GENTLEMEN,—I can recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, for it saved my life. We have used it in our family when required ever since, and it never fails to cure all summer complaints.

FRANCIS WALSH, Dalkeith, Ont.

"CAN you give me credit for this poem?" enquired the writer who had invaded the sanctum. "Hum! I don't know about that; but if it's printed you'll have to take the blame for it."

"FOR many years we have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in our family and find it an excellent medicine for all forms of summer complaint." John A. Valens, Valens, Ont. Fowler's Wild Strawberry. Price 35c., sold by all dealers.

MASTER DEWILBE RICH: Nurse! who was zat lady wiv ze dog, zat tised me dus' now? Nurse: Why, dear, that was your mamma.

MRS. T. YOUNGWIFE (sobbing): Y-you are ungrateful. Didn't I bake you three big cakes last week, and what have you done for me? Thomas: Didn't I eat them?

GOLDWIN SMITH is opposed to Sir Charles Tupper in many ways, but doubtless both would agree that no better remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, headache, kidney troubles, skin diseases, etc., exists than Burdock Blood Bitters, the best family medicine known.

MR. BASHFUL: I do love Boston bread, you know. Miss Waiting (seizing her chance): Now, do you know, I am Boston bred.

PARROT: How many great titles end in "or"—emperor, legislator, editor, Wiggins (who lives in a flat): Yes, and janitor.

THE Australian Commonwealth will have grand results. But the results of using Burdock Blood Bitters for diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood, surpass all expectations. Dyspepsia, headache, biliousness, scrofula, etc., are promptly cured by B.B.B.

BRECHAM'S PILLS act like magic on a Weak Stomach.

WIFELY care: John, do tie a knot in your handkerchief before you go to bed so as not to forget to get up to-morrow at four o'clock.

THE usual way is to neglect bad blood until boils, blotches and sores make its presence too plainly known. Every wise person ought to be careful to purify the blood by using the best blood purifier and tonic, Burdock Blood Bitters. Its purifying power is unrivalled.

ONE of Dr. Howard Crosby's characteristic puns was his translation of "In vino veritas," which he Englished as "Brandy peaches."

CEYLON TEA COMPANY

WHAT "THE TIMES" OF CEYLON Says of this Company, May 4th, 1880.

"We are asked by a Correspondent, 'Which Company, for the sale of Ceylon Tea at home, does the largest business?' and we really do not think that anybody can answer this question. In all probability, the Ceylon Tea Growers, Limited (Khangani Brand), sell more Tea than most, seeing that they have no less than one thousand Agents in Great Britain alone, and in the course of twelve months, must sell a very large quantity of Tea."

This is indisputable evidence that this Company is a GENUINE CEYLON TEA COMPANY.
